A NON-STATIONARY RESONANT PROTECTIVE FORCE FIELD:

HERMETIC HARMONIC HEPTAGRAM 7-D RESONANT TAKYON POTENTIAL (H³TRTP)

Even though the description of this protective system sounds like a mouthful of mathematical jargon, it is based on Mathematics and Geometry--Sacred Geometry, in fact. The regular protective force fields provided by the TAKYON CAPSULE T-1, T-1J and/or the T-1 + R-1 Protective Force Field Dome (PFFD) are so-called stationary in that the field does not move from the location where the devices are physically located. For instance, the person wearing a T-1 or T-1J around the neck is personally protected by a field of about 3 ft. in diameter, larger if the person is Sumo Wrestler! The field depends on the cross-sectional diameter of the individual wearing the device, since it INTERACTS with the ENERGY FIELD/AURA of the wearer.

The T-1 + R-1 PFFD is created by placing the Radial Amplifier Deflector, R-1, directly over the T-1. (The T-1J has no R-1J), and then the actual PFFD is created by an Activating Protocol using the Focused Consciousness & Rhythmic Breath of the person him/herself using a simple protocol instruction format. But again, the PFFD remains stationary where the devices are physically located. Once the person walks out of the PFFD, then she/he is out of the PFFD, because the PFFD does not "follow" anyone--it is STATIONARY. That is the simple physics and mechanism of T-1 and T-1 + R-1 fields.

In the NON-STATIONARY RESONANT PROTECTIVE FORCE FIELD (NSR-PFF), the PFFD is no longer stationary, but it "FOLLOWS" the person anywhere, as long as the person wears the 2nd T-1 device around the neck, because HARMONIC RESONANCE is established between the two T-1 devices via the QUANTUM-RELATIVISTIC TAKYON SPACE-TIME CONTINUUM OR QRT-STC, for short. It is noteworthy that the nature, structure & function of the H³TRTP Force Field is quite different from the regular T-1 + R-1 PFFD. This is the categorical difference between the 2. The former one, PFFD, is merely to protect the wearer against the ordinary Electromagnetic Pollution and Thought Intrusions from the electromagnetic "smog" of our high tech society, marketplace, & home environments. The new system was developed to protect people from Acoustical and Telepathic Thought Intrusions, whether from terrestrial or extraterrestrial sources. Readers, please don't laugh! Our research group as well as many others we work with and exchange info with, such as Leading Edge International Research Group (LEIRG), have received dozens of reports and feedback from people worldwide being affected by this phenomenon. Some think they are going crazy, but they are not. The sad truth is that this phenomenon does indeed exist. No one has yet determined where these intrusions are coming from or how they are produced, but they are very real. Some researchers have actually detected, measured and actually experienced these phenomena. They seem to be INFRASONIC, ULTRASONIC and "TELEPATHIC", since many people report that they can actually "hear" words, thoughts, even short phrases in their minds or heads. This phenomenon existed as early as 1992, but it became more noticeable in quantity (of people) and intensity in November 1996.

The new system H³TRTP consists of two (2) Takyon Capsules, T-1, one R-1, and a specially designed TAKYON TRANSFORM TEMPLET of a specific geometrical configuration and precise electromagnetic frequency (colour) and size so as to create the necessary Harmonic Resonance. The Activating Protocol is a Two-Part Format, the first requiring the person to do some "ARTWORK" with their own RED PEN and to do some cutting --with scissors--of the enclosed TAKYON TRANSFORM TEMPLET & DIAGRAMS. This is a necessary procedure to engage the Focus, Concentration & PERSONAL TOUCH of the person involved, thus becoming an "ARTIST/SCIENTIST" and using both RIGHT & LEFT hemispheres of the BRAIN! The 2nd part of the protocol involves the creation of the PFFD itself, and this involves Concentration, Focus, Visualisation & Rhythmic Breath. This allows the person to create an INTENTIONALITY FIELD by using YOGIC techniques, very, very simple--even simpler than making love!--thus using the "PSYCHIC BRAIN" THAT IS ALL FOLKS--SIMPLE, BUT MOST EFFECTIVE!
