The Big Island

Classic
JOURNEYS

“Classic Journeys provides unbeatable access to experiences around the globe.”

— Travel + Leisure

From Hilo to the Kohala Coast

Scientists love to remind us that the Big Island gets bigger every day. You'll see the glowing bubble and splat of lava that proves their point. But the wonderful paradox of this fierce volcanic dot in the Pacific is how lush greenery and rich human history coexist. From our hotel home bases, we'll go deep into remote valleys where farmers cultivate taro and experience the surprising sweep of "cowboy country." Our walks take us into vivid botanical gardens...to a skyscraper-high waterfall...and into a sacred refuge where islanders could escape the wrath of a king. The locavore food scene is really exciting here, and you'll have chances to eat in some of the many great restaurants and cafés. There's also great shopping in Hilo Town and time to relax on the beach or by the pool. From the heights of Volcanoes National Park all the way down into the clear blue waters where you can snorkel with sea turtles, we'll offer you in-depth insights to help you appreciate all the miracles of life on the Big Island.

DAY 1

HILO

- Marvel at rainbows in the mist and the plunging waters of Rainbow and Peepee Falls
- Explore the connections between Hawaiian cultural traditions and astronomy
- Enjoy a welcome dinner in Volcano

The Big Island is known for its "kick back" style, and we get right into the tempo with a leisurely visit to Rainbow Falls and Peepee Falls (pronounced Peh-EH Peh-EH). Between hexagonal pillars created behind the falls by slowly-cooled basalt lava, your eyes will catch rainbows in the mist as the falls plunge 80 feet into the curving jungle pool.

Next up is the Imiloa Astronomy Center. We take in their spectacularly down-to-earth native gardens on a guided walk that includes many of the "canoe plants" that rode to the islands with the early Polynesians. We're welcomed into the state-of-the-art planetarium for a viewing of Imiloa's signature 3D experience, "Maunakea: Between Earth and Sky" and explore the connections between Hawaiian cultural traditions and astronomy.

This afternoon we make our way to the town of Volcano, just outside Volcanoes National Park. We check into our private cabins in the rainforest and relax before a festive dinner in the town of Volcano.

OVERNIGHT: VOLCANO
MEALS: L, D

DAY 2

VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK

- Walk amid the Sulphur Banks and steam vents
- Visit Lava Tree State Monument

Today we explore Volcanoes National Park – a fascinating blend of active volcanism, biological diversity and Hawaiian culture. You get a remarkable feel here for the rumble and hiss that signals the growth of two of the most active volcanoes on earth. On our walk from the Kilauea Visitor Center, we'll learn about the processes that gave birth to the islands – and how the still-growing Mauna Loa came to soar 56,000 feet from the sea floor (to be more than five miles taller than Mt. Everest). We'll take a trail where steam billows from vents in the ground too hot for trees to grow.

Later this afternoon we will explore the lava formations at Lava Tree State Monument and time a visit to a black sand beach to watch the sunset.

OVERNIGHT: VOLCANO
MEALS: B, D

DAY 3

VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK

- Descend through a lush rain forest to the floor of the solidified, however still steaming Kīlauea Iki Crater
- Walk in a cave-like tube created by flowing lava
- Sip a cocktail while having dinner with vast views of billowing Halema'uma'u Crater

New experiences await our return to the park this morning. Our guided walk across a volcano crater will reveal more of the remarkable terrain created by millennia of flowing lava.

For an up-close look at volcanic forces, we'll enter the Thurston Lava Tube. Five hundred years old, it was formed by a river of lava that gradually built up walls and a ceiling. When the last of the lava flowed through, only the dark undulating surface remained. And for yet another perspective, we take a drive on Chain of Craters Road that winds through a terrain of pit craters, pahoehoe flows, pumice cones and a 1,100-year-old forest surrounded by lava.

We cap the day with cocktails and dinner at Volcano House, set in the warm, red glow of the nearby billowing Halema'uma'u Crater.

MEALS: B, L, D

DAY 4

KAHUA RANCH

- Browse the shops and farmer's market in laidback Hilo
- Learn about Hawaiian cowboy life and enjoy a cowboy cookout on a working ranch
- Enjoy a star show 3,200' above sea level in the Kohala Mountains

Today, we shift gears from the unstoppable forces of nature to the mellow human culture that lives at the volcanoes' edge. Back in Hilo Town, we'll visit Lyman Mission House, the island's oldest wood structure built by 19th century missionaries from New England. You'll have a chance to shop at Sig Zane's, known around the world for prints that honor ancient local traditions. And we'll browse the local farmer's market, recognized as one of the best in the United States! You can pick up lunch fixings or rest for a while in one of the town's small restaurants.

Leaving Hilo, we head north into historic "cowboy country." We'll enjoy a major change of scenery as we enter a region of vast, open pastures where cattle still graze. We're headed to Kahua Ranch, a working sheep and cattle spread where we get a look at the paniolo (cowboy) life. And we linger here as the day comes to an end. A panoramic sunset is followed by a big country dinner, plus a chance to try your hand at lassoing, horseshoe pitching and dancing. With clear skies we'll end our evening with a star show on the ranch.

OVERNIGHT: KOHALA COAST
MEALS: B, D

DAY 5

KONA COFFEE FARM / PLACE OF REFUGE

- Learn the traditional art of baking Portuguese bread
- Visit one of the island's renowned coffee farms

Take breakfast at your leisure and enjoy the resort's fine facilities. Then we're off to Kona, to learn the skill of baking Portuguese bread in a stone oven—and sampling the results! Of course a visit to Kona is not complete without a coffee plantation visit. At one of the island's fine plantations, we'll walk in the coffee fields and get a firsthand look at how the coffee "cherries" are harvested and processed. Of course, we'll save time for a tasting of the legendary Kona brew.

DAILY ITINERARY
HAWAII | THE BIG ISLAND | MULTISPORT

There's a serene spiritual theme to our afternoon. First, stepping back into the life of the old kingdoms of Hawaii, we visit an official place of refuge known as a puuhonua, surrounded by palm trees and situated on a scenic peninsula. Guarded by giant tiki statues and frequented by sea turtles that swim in the clear waters and sun on the lava rocks, the site was a sanctuary for defeated warriors or those who violated sacred laws. The site encompasses 400 years of Hawaiian history, including steep slopes where the royal class raced downhill on toboggan-like sleds.

Later this afternoon we return to our oceanfront resort for free time to relax by the pool or beach.

OVERNIGHT: KOHALA COAST
MEALS: B

DAY 6

KONA COAST

- Take a snorkel cruise along the Kona coast with a chance to try stand up paddle boarding
- Enjoy an ocean view farewell dinner

This morning we hit the water! We board a catamaran for a full day of sun and snorkeling. We are outfitted with snorkel gear and spend the day on the lookout for sea turtles and tropical fish. We also have the opportunity to try stand up paddle boarding.

Back on land, we have time to relax at the hotel before a festive farewell dinner.

MEALS: B, L, D

DEPARTURE

Flights leave the Big Island in the morning or in the evening for the red-eye back to the mainland. You can arrange your departure from either Kona—the nearest airport—or Hilo. If you leave at day's end, you're welcome to enjoy the resort's facilities and soak in a last day of Hawaiian fun.

MEALS: B

Tour Hotels

Volcano Rainforest Retreat

Just outside of Volcanoes National Park, Volcano Rainforest Retreat features four distinct cottages. Created with elegant simplicity in harmony with the rainforest, the retreat offers a unique setting for romantics, nature lovers and world travelers.

OVERNIGHT: VOLCANO | NIGHTS: 3

Westin Hapuna Beach

Overlooking a white sand beach, this hotel is part of a 2,000-acre Rockefeller development. All rooms face the ocean and have private lanais. The property includes landscaped gardens, an 18-hole Arnold Palmer golf course and a fitness center.

OVERNIGHT: KOHALA COAST | NIGHTS: 3

ENJOY THE UNEXPECTED

When you travel with Classic Journeys, you can expect handcrafted surprises built into every trip, but some things just can't be anticipated. Unusual weather, a once-a-year festival or an unscheduled site closing will inspire us and your local guide to improvise and modify this itinerary. Likewise, the hotels named here are used on the majority of our trips, but occasionally one of them can't accommodate us. If that happens, you can count on us to let you know before departure and make sure you're in a hotel of equal or better quality. It's our goal to make your trip exceptional!

Any discount offered cannot be combined with other offers, and only applies to published (regularly scheduled public) departure dates in our catalogs or on our website.

“Enthusiasm is Contagious”

AS TRAVEL + LEISURE NAMES CLASSIC JOURNEYS THE WORLD'S BEST TOUR OPERATOR FOR 2019, FOUNDER EDWARD PIEGZA REVEALS HOW IT FEELS. ENTHUSIASTICALLY.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Just before publication of this issue, Travel + Leisure magazine announced that its readers have voted Classic Journeys the World's Best Tour Operator for 2019. It's the second time Classic Journeys has won that recognition and the 14th consecutive year the company has been in the Top 10.

Congratulations! How did you get the news?

I received a top-secret email and phone call from the editor of Travel + Leisure a few weeks ago with orders not to tell ANYONE. Friends and neighbors must have wondered why my smile has been so extra big lately. Now they know.

And how does it feel to be the World's Best Tour Operator again?

Awesome. Humbling. So, so satisfying. Deeply gratifying to learn that we have achieved what we set out to do which is to handcraft trips of a lifetime for every guest who travels with us. I'm known as long-winded, so I could probably come up with 10 or 15 more ways to describe it if you want me to keep going.

Why do you think Travel + Leisure gave you this recognition?

Actually, it isn't the T+L editors who make the decision. That's the best part. Their readers cast the votes. So the people who do the traveling, the guests who explore the world with us and our competitors — they are the ones who raised their hands to tell T+L that Classic Journeys is the World's Best Tour Operator based on their own experiences. Let me say it right here: "To all of you who voted for us, you are the World's Best Guests!"

What do you think makes your guests the World's Best Guests?

That's easy. They are curious. They care about connecting with people of different cultures and immersing themselves in the world. They treasure experiences more than things. Like the old ad slogan went, they go for the gusto and crave the chance to have one-of-a-kind moments. They are incredibly interesting and interested people, and all of us at Classic Journeys count it as a real privilege to share in their passion for travel. And we feel that way on the other 364 days of the year when we're not celebrating recognition like this.

I guess this is what you meant when you told me that "Enthusiasm is contagious."

Absolutely. That's not our official motto, but it could be. We love what we do. We enjoy helping guests figure out how to invest their precious time and budget. I can honestly say that all of us feel that way — the Guest Services folks who interact with you while you're planning your trip, the Tour Operations team members who plan all of the logistics, the local guides who lead each one of our trips full time. There's just a huge amount of positive energy in what we do, and I think it truly is hard to resist. We'd climb into every one of our guest's suitcases and go along with them if we could. Because we can't, we call each guest while they're on tour just to be sure they are having a trip of a lifetime.

Has anyone ever called Classic Journeys obsessive?

I hope so, because we are. Everything is in the details. For instance, we've created a special tour for the total eclipse of the sun which is going to pass over parts of South America in 2020. We've already analyzed likely traffic patterns in the most remote areas and figured out how to structure our itinerary so that our guests will be in place in the path of totality while the people who don't plan ahead will be stuck in jams on remote dirt roads. We enjoy obsessing about details like that so that our guests never have to.

How can you top this?

Oh, we never let ourselves think of it that way. We just continue to approach every single guest on each and every departure like the most important guest we've ever had. It seems to be working! Of course, we keep looking for new ways to win more converts. For 2019, we've launched a new series of Classic Journeys that are based from

"I voted for you!"

We've heard that expression so many times lately from guests who registered their votes with Travel + Leisure. Given the results, we know it's true ... and you know that your votes really count!

STAFF AND GUIDES

"I always feel like I'm traveling with a best friend. I prefer your local guides to the ones that other companies fly in."

ITINERARIES AND DESTINATIONS

"If it's on my bucket list, you always seem to go there. Of course, with so many options you always seem to make my list longer and longer!"

ACTIVITIES

"On your trips, I've cooked with Michelin chefs, sung songs with Quechua schoolchildren, and walked on glaciers with the descendants of Vikings. Fun doesn't begin to describe it."

ACCOMMODATIONS

"How you manage so many 5-star properties on these trips shocks me. But please, please, please keep it up!"

FOOD

"I have never eaten so well so often so happily. When you people claim that you are foodies, you aren't kidding."

OVERALL VALUE

"We have never had a better vacation at any price."

river cruise boats. On a different note, seeing how many travelers can't always find as much vacation time as they really want, we have developed a series of 6-day or shorter quick trips that go as far afield as Iceland, the Galápagos and Morocco.

Final thoughts?

It's always an honor to win recognition. But, for all of us at Classic Journeys, the biggest privilege is to share the dreams of our guests and make those dreams come true. That connection is the best feeling of all.
