Classic
JOURNEYS

“Classic Journeys provides unbeatable access to experiences around the globe.”

— Travel + Leisure

Monkey-Watching, Kayaking, Snorkeling & More

This is a Central American eco-vacation taken to beautiful and fascinating extremes. You experience rainforests teeming with keel-billed toucans, ocelots, and spider monkeys on great walks with naturalists. Out of those jungles rise imposing Mayan pyramids, like the one you climb at Tikal. At Ambergris Caye and Hol Chan Marine Reserve, you go snorkeling or kayaking on the world's second largest barrier reef. Every day, the variety of nature and local culture is truly spectacular, from a soaring cave (absolutely no spelunking required) to a chocolate making demonstration on a cacao plantation. And lodgings in both countries offer tropical comfort at its best, whether you're tucked into the heart of a private nature reserve or sprawled alongside a gleaming white Caribbean beach.

DAILY ITINERARY

BELIZE & GUATEMALA | CORAL REEFS & MAYAN PYRAMIDS | MULTISPORT

DAY 1

CAYO RAINFOREST

- Pay a hands-on visit to a cacao plantation

We meet our local guide in Belize City and head for the nearby Cayo rainforest, one of the finest in Central America.

Our first fascinating stop is at a cacao plantation. As much as many of us love chocolate, the story of how it's created is much different than you might expect. We'll learn about growing cacao beans and try our hand at grinding them with the traditional method. You'll also get a taste of the original Mayan-style "hot chocolate".

Then we check in at our eco-lodge that's nearly hidden in the midst of its own private nature preserve. You may want to take an afternoon dip in the pool or relax with a cocktail, serenaded by the sounds of the forest.

At dinner tonight in San Ignacio town, you'll quickly learn Belize is a melting pot of Indian, Chinese, Nigerian and Central American cultures. That makes for a wonderful variety options. Just keep in mind that some are very spicy!

OVERNIGHT: CAYO RAINFOREST REGION

DAY 2

SAN ANTONIO

- Learn about Mayan ceramic making
- Walk through the rainforest to a massive limestone cave

In San Antonio, the local women still make ceramics like the ancient Mayans did. We'll visit their cooperative to see them at work, and they'll show us the traditional way of grinding corn and making tortillas on a fire hearth. Add some roasted chicken and handmade salsa, and our lunch is served.

Just steps away, we've arranged a visit to San Antonio's local school. Because our groups are small, the school welcomes our visit. We will meet the kids and teachers. (Consider packing pens, pencils and notebooks for the village children.)

This afternoon, we're headed underground! In the limestone bedrock of Belize, great caverns are common, and the Mayans believed they were entrances to the underworld. Aboard canoes, we float through the cave in search of pottery and other artifacts amid the fascinating rock formations.

OVERNIGHT: CAYO RAINFOREST REGION

DAY 3

XUNANTUNICH / GUATEMALA

- Cross the Mopan river on a hand-cranked ferry
- Explore remote Mayan ruins at Xunantunich
- Deliver dinner to an island of monkeys

Just as you'd expect, breakfast includes a wonderful selection of fresh tropical fruits and more. Fuel up because you're about to have a fun and fascinating Indiana Jones kind of day. Our first stop: the cattle ranch and stables owned by our friend Santiago. You have the choice of climbing into the saddle or taking a scenic walk through shaded forest, over the lazy Mopan River by a hand cranked ferry (cranked for us!), to the 1,500-year-old ruins of Xunantunich. Nobody knows for sure why the city was abandoned around 750 A.D., but we'll learn a lot about its history on a guided stroll around the site. Right at the center, there's a 130-foot-high pyramid called El Castillo, and from the top you can see all the way to Guatemala. Back at the ranch, we will enjoy an al fresco lunch.

Then we take an easy drive across the border into Guatemala. At our boutique eco-lodge, you'll love the waterfront suites, each of which has a deck that juts into Quexil Lagoon.

This evening is more fun than an island full of monkeys. Well, actually, it is an island full of monkeys. We're invited to accompany naturalists on a cocktail cruise of the lagoon to an island where they breed and care for spider monkeys. Taking along fresh fruits and vegetables, we assist in feeding them and have a fantastic chance to see the friendly creatures close up.

Dinner tonight is in the resort's open-air restaurant with a wonderful menu of local gourmet flavors.

OVERNIGHT: FLORES, GUATEMALA

MEALS: B, L, D

DAY 4

TIKAL / FLORES

- Take in the view atop the tallest pyramid in the Western Hemisphere
- Stroll the cobblestone streets of Isla Flores

Tikal, the premier Mayan site in Guatemala, is near our lodge. After breakfast, we'll make our way on white gravel paths to the tallest pyramid in all of the Western Hemisphere. Up the steps we go—yes, it's a climb, but incredibly worth it—to take in the vast views from the top. Other nearby pyramids jut up through a forest canopy that's home to lively spider monkeys. We'll have time to wander and explore before lunch at a cafe amid these archeological wonders. Back at the hotel, you'll have time to relax by the lagoon, explore any of the nature trails on the 200-acre reserve, or sip a drink by the infinity pool.

Later, we're off to Flores Island in Lake Petén Itza. The town is populated by descendants of the Maya, and we see women in their blouses called huipiles. Traditionally, the bright, geometric patterns contained clues to status and beliefs. The locals also like to visit the local street food market that was started by families from the nearby village of San Miguel. It's well-known for its desserts and drinks; and we'll pause for a treat, before we enjoy a stroll and shopping before dinner.

MEALS: B, L, D

DAY 5

AMBERGRIS CAYE

- Visit a family-run sugar cane plantation
- Explore our luxurious beachside resort
- Kayak on turquoise water at Ambergris Caye

Sugar is Guatemala's most important agricultural export, and the country is the fifth-largest sugar exporter in the world. We'll start our day with a visit to a family-run sugar cane plantation, where we see how the cane is harvested, and enjoy a homemade slushy from the tasty juice. Then we cross the border back into Belize for our midday flight to Ambergris Caye, an island right next to the Belize barrier reef. Our luxury resort sits right on the Caribbean Sea. You can take advantage of the many amenities and activities including two pools, ladder golf, bocci and bicycling. If you'd like, we will outfit you with sea kayaks so you can paddle your way around the amazingly clear water.

Tonight, it's your choice to dine poolside at the hotel or try one of the small local restaurants in San Pedro.

OVERNIGHT: AMBERGRIS CAYE
MEALS: B

DAY 6

HOL CHAN RESERVE

- Cruise the Caribbean Sea by catamaran
- Snorkel in the world's second largest barrier reef

This morning we hit the water! From the decks of our friend Steve's catamaran, Steve will dive for lobsters and fish that his sister (and on-board chef) turns into the freshest seafood lunch you've ever eaten! You'll have an opportunity to try your hand at fishing if you choose. Timing our visit for when the tourist boats have all headed back to shore, we'll make a stop at Hol Chan Marine Reserve. It is among the best snorkeling you'll find anywhere - shallow, clear and warm water. We provide all the gear, and you come nose-to-fin with natural life in the barrier reef. The coral forest is almost beyond words, with dazzling schools of fish flashing through clear water. Sea turtles, spotted eagle rays and docile nurse sharks are common sights. It's an experience you won't forget. (And it will make you the envy of anyone who's ever put on a mask and fins.)

Tonight's farewell dinner is the perfect climax to a fantastic day of sun and sea.

MEALS: B, L, D

DAY 7

AMBERGRIS / BELIZE CITY

- Linger longer on the beach
- Return home

After breakfast this morning, we part company. You can return to Belize City by ferry or on a 15-minute hop by plane. If you have an afternoon or evening flight, why not hit the beach one last time?!

ENJOY THE UNEXPECTED

When you travel with Classic Journeys, you can expect handcrafted surprises built into every trip, but some things just can't be anticipated. Unusual weather, a once-a-year festival or an unscheduled site closing will inspire us and your local guide to improvise and modify this itinerary. Likewise, the hotels named here are used on the majority of our trips, but occasionally one of them can't accommodate us. If that happens, you can count on us to let you know before departure and make sure you're in a hotel of equal or better quality. It's our goal to make your trip exceptional!

“Enthusiasm is Contagious”

AS TRAVEL + LEISURE NAMES CLASSIC JOURNEYS THE WORLD'S BEST TOUR OPERATOR FOR 2019, FOUNDER EDWARD PIEGZA REVEALS HOW IT FEELS. ENTHUSIASTICALLY.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Just before publication of this issue, Travel + Leisure magazine announced that its readers have voted Classic Journeys the World's Best Tour Operator for 2019. It's the second time Classic Journeys has won that recognition and the 14th consecutive year the company has been in the Top 10.

Congratulations! How did you get the news?

I received a top-secret email and phone call from the editor of Travel + Leisure a few weeks ago with orders not to tell ANYONE. Friends and neighbors must have wondered why my smile has been so extra big lately. Now they know.

And how does it feel to be the World's Best Tour Operator again?

Awesome. Humbling. So, so satisfying. Deeply gratifying to learn that we have achieved what we set out to do which is to handcraft trips of a lifetime for every guest who travels with us. I'm known as long-winded, so I could probably come up with 10 or 15 more ways to describe it if you want me to keep going.

Why do you think Travel + Leisure gave you this recognition?

Actually, it isn't the T+L editors who make the decision. That's the best part. Their readers cast the votes. So the people who do the traveling, the guests who explore the world with us and our competitors — they are the ones who raised their hands to tell T+L that Classic Journeys is the World's Best Tour Operator based on their own experiences. Let me say it right here: "To all of you who voted for us, you are the World's Best Guests!"

What do you think makes your guests the World's Best Guests?

That's easy. They are curious. They care about connecting with people of different cultures and immersing themselves in the world. They treasure experiences more than things. Like the old ad slogan went, they go for the gusto and crave the chance to have one-of-a-kind moments. They are incredibly interesting and interested people, and all of us at Classic Journeys count it as a real privilege to share in their passion for travel. And we feel that way on the other 364 days of the year when we're not celebrating recognition like this.

I guess this is what you meant when you told me that "Enthusiasm is contagious."

Absolutely. That's not our official motto, but it could be. We love what we do. We enjoy helping guests figure out how to invest their precious time and budget. I can honestly say that all of us feel that way — the Guest Services folks who interact with you while you're planning your trip, the Tour Operations team members who plan all of the logistics, the local guides who lead each one of our trips full time. There's just a huge amount of positive energy in what we do, and I think it truly is hard to resist. We'd climb into every one of our guest's suitcases and go along with them if we could. Because we can't, we call each guest while they're on tour just to be sure they are having a trip of a lifetime.

Has anyone ever called Classic Journeys obsessive?

I hope so, because we are. Everything is in the details. For instance, we've created a special tour for the total eclipse of the sun which is going to pass over parts of South America in 2020. We've already analyzed likely traffic patterns in the most remote areas and figured out how to structure our itinerary so that our guests will be in place in the path of totality while the people who don't plan ahead will be stuck in jams on remote dirt roads. We enjoy obsessing about details like that so that our guests never have to.

How can you top this?

Oh, we never let ourselves think of it that way. We just continue to approach every single guest on each and every departure like the most important guest we've ever had. It seems to be working! Of course, we keep looking for new ways to win more converts. For 2019, we've launched a new series of Classic Journeys that are based from

"I voted for you!"

We've heard that expression so many times lately from guests who registered their votes with Travel + Leisure. Given the results, we know it's true ... and you know that your votes really count!

STAFF AND GUIDES

"I always feel like I'm traveling with a best friend. I prefer your local guides to the ones that other companies fly in."

ITINERARIES AND DESTINATIONS

"If it's on my bucket list, you always seem to go there. Of course, with so many options you always seem to make my list longer and longer!"

ACTIVITIES

"On your trips, I've cooked with Michelin chefs, sung songs with Quechua schoolchildren, and walked on glaciers with the descendants of Vikings. Fun doesn't begin to describe it."

ACCOMMODATIONS

"How you manage so many 5-star properties on these trips shocks me. But please, please, please keep it up!"

FOOD

"I have never eaten so well so often so happily. When you people claim that you are foodies, you aren't kidding."

OVERALL VALUE

"We have never had a better vacation at any price."

river cruise boats. On a different note, seeing how many travelers can't always find as much vacation time as they really want, we have developed a series of 6-day or shorter quick trips that go as far afield as Iceland, the Galápagos and Morocco.

Final thoughts?

It's always an honor to win recognition. But, for all of us at Classic Journeys, the biggest privilege is to share the dreams of our guests and make those dreams come true. That connection is the best feeling of all.
