Glorious Wilderness & Wildlife

Here is the secret most visitors to the Canadian Rockies never understand: You don't have to go on a trek or sleep in a tent to experience the solitude of this awesome country away from the crowds. On this glorious Classic Journey, you get to enter into the heart of this remarkable landscape without ever giving up the creature comforts. Certainly, you'll see the essential sights like calendar-perfect Lake Louise. But we'll take you into whisper-quiet groves of lodgepole pines...arrange a guided walk onto the azure ice of an awesome glacier...and put you in view of moose, elk or bighorn sheep. When we walk, we gravitate to gentle or moderate trails. For your comfort, we've arranged accommodations in gracious historic lodges and feasts on local specialties. The Cree used the word "Yoho"—an expression of awe—to describe this land. When you see it our way, we know you'll agree.

DAY 1

BANFF / JASPER NATIONAL PARK

- Walk at Bow Lake, Athabasca Falls, or Parker Ridge
- Wandering the grounds of our lodge in Jasper

Today you embark on your longest drive of the week, to Jasper National Park, the largest national park in the Canadian Rockies and part of the UNESCO World Heritage Site. This drive along the Icefields Parkway is known as one of the top 10 most scenic drives in the world. Towering above us hang the Crowfoot Glacier as well as the Bow Glacier to the West. You'll stretch your legs on a short walk, perhaps at Mistaya Canyon – one of the least visited areas in the park. As the waters surge through deep sinuous limestone channels, you get a wonderful sense of solitude. An alternative walk is Athabasca Falls - a series of short and easy pathways along impressive cascades. There are many footpaths to choose from. Based on the weather, your guide will select the perfect route.

Later, you'll arrive in Jasper National Park, home to many healthy populations of wildlife. Over the next couple of days, you have the chance to see grizzly bears, moose, caribou, elk, bighorn sheep, mountain goats and wolves that inhabit this mountain wilderness area.

This evening relax at your historic alpine-like lodge. Nestled on the shores of emerald-green Lac Beauvert and surrounded by majestic snow-capped mountains, Jasper Park Lodge was built by the Canadian Pacific Railway in 1922. Today it consists of a village of cedar chalets and log cabins connected by picturesque paths. After dinner on local specialties, you may want to head back out into the night. You're in the world's largest accessible Dark Sky Preserve – an amazing opportunity to look up and rediscover the wonders of the star-filled night.

OVERNIGHT: JASPER NATIONAL PARK

DAY 2

MALIGNE VALLEY

- Driving up the Maligne Valley
- Walking Maligne Lake's shores

Refueled from breakfast of local specialties, Jasper SkyTram whisks you up Whistler's Mountain to an elevation of over 7400 feet, showing you stunning vistas over mountain ranges stretching up to over forty miles. On a clear day, you can even see the white pyramid of Mount Robson in nearby British Columbia. Interpretive exhibits explain the high alpine environment, and a hiking trail leads you to the summit of the mountain. Be prepared to be amazed as you gain a brand new perspective of Jasper's stunning National Park. Please note: Jasper SkyTram will be weather permitting.

Afterward, you'll walk through the town of Jasper where you'll eat lunch on your own. Later, we'll drive up the Maligne Valley. At the top, there's impressive Maligne Canyon, carved deep into the stone, but so narrow that in some spots you can touch both walls. Footbridges span the 180-foot-deep canyon. The trails are well maintained and the views will have you reaching for your camera again and again.

OVERNIGHT: JASPER NATIONAL PARK
MEALS: B, D

DAY 3

COLUMBIA ICEFIELDS

- Marveling at the views on the journey to Lake Louise
- Exploring the Columbia Icefields

After an appetizing breakfast at the lodge, we journey to Lake Louise. Your drive follows the Icefields Parkway, one of the most stunning mountain roads in the world. The journey would not be complete without a stop at the Columbia Icefields, a sheet of ice spanning more than 125 square miles. Here, your local glacier guide leads you on a walk on the Athabasca Glacier for an up-close view of the glacier and its icy crevasses.

Later this afternoon you'll arrive in the village of Lake Louise, nestled in a picturesque valley on the shores of the lake and named after one of Queen Victoria's daughters. Known as Canada's "Diamond in the Wilderness," Lake Louise is a thriving ski resort in the winter as well as a summer wilderness retreat.

OVERNIGHT: LAKE LOUISE
MEALS: B, L, D

DAY 4

LAKE LOUISE

- Following a trail along the spectacular trail of Lake Louise
- Lunching at the historic Chateau Lake Louise
- Strolling the shores of Moraine Lake

This morning's walk takes a path that rises 1,400 feet – and it's well worth the effort. You begin on the shores of Lake Louise. It's a gorgeous sight as the sunlight refracts off the vivid green water, a result of the minerals that fill the lake from the hanging glaciers above us. As you ascend above the tree line, the grassy slopes and alpine meadows open wide and you occasionally have a long-distance spotting of a grizzly bear foraging for berries. Your walk ascends along a trail that offers breathtaking views of the lake as well as Mount Victoria and the Victoria Glacier.

If you prefer a morning with a more relaxing pace, you have the option of going for an easy canoe paddle, exploring the shops and grounds of Chateau Lake Louise, or going for a horseback ride.

This afternoon, we all come back together for a short drive to Moraine Lake. Once featured on the back of the Canadian twenty-dollar bill, this tiny sapphire-blue lake sits amid the mountains that form the Valley of the Ten Peaks. Here you'll enjoy a relaxing walk with incredible views.

OVERNIGHT: LAKE LOUISE
MEALS: B, L

DAY 5

EMERALD LAKE

- Crossing the Continental Divide at Kicking Horse
- Taking inspiring walks at Takakkaw Falls and canoe on Emerald Lake

DAILY ITINERARY

CANADIAN ROCKIES | BANFF & JASPER NATIONAL PARKS | MULTISPORT

You spend the day in nearby Yoho National Park. Yoho is a Cree expression of awe and wonder. As we cross the Continental Divide, we drive over Kicking Horse Pass, named for the explorer who was knocked unconscious by his horse while searching for a suitable route through the Rockies in 1858.

In fact, finding routes through the Rockies – especially for the crucial train lines – led to some astonishing engineering feats. You'll see one of them, the Spiral Tunnels that ingeniously loop and loop to tame the high elevations. Local roads solve the same problem with intense switchbacks, and we'll drive one of them up to Takakkaw Falls, the second highest waterfall in Canada. These falls give credence to their name, which means "magnificent" in Cree. You follow a short trail to the base of these majestic falls, which plunge over 1000 feet into the Kicking Horse River.

This afternoon you have the option of going for an easy canoe paddling on Emerald Lake, one of the most beautiful lakes in the Canadian Rockies, or join your guide for a scenic walk around the lake.

MEALS: B, L, D

DAY 6

BANFF

- Picnicking in the depths of a Rocky Mountain forest
- Discovering the original site of Canada's first National Park

After a farewell breakfast at the hotel, you venture into Banff National Park. A short walk brings you to perfect spots to enjoy in the shade of the Aspen trees, lodgepole pines and Douglas fir trees that make up this magnificent forest. This morning, you take a walk above the tree line to Sunshine Meadows, regarded by many as the most stunning alpine setting in the Canadian Rockies. The meadows straddle the Continental Divide and are surrounded by some of the Rockies' highest peaks. Please note: Sunshine Meadows hike is weather permitting. Your guide may opt for an alternate hike in the area.

Back to the town of Banff, located in the heart of Banff National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and Canada's oldest national park. With your guide, you start with a visit to the Cave and Basin hot springs that spurred the creation of the park after three Canadian Pacific Railway workers stumbled upon the site in 1888.

You part company in Banff with many wonderful memories of your week.

MEALS: B, L

ENJOY THE UNEXPECTED

When you travel with Classic Journeys, you can expect handcrafted surprises built into every trip, but some things just can't be anticipated. Unusual weather, a once-a-year festival or an unscheduled site closing will inspire us and your local guide to improvise and modify this itinerary. Likewise, the hotels named here are used on the majority of our trips, but occasionally one of them can't accommodate us. If that happens, you can count on us to let you know before departure and make sure you're in a hotel of equal or better quality. It's our goal to make your trip exceptional!

“Enthusiasm is Contagious”

AS TRAVEL + LEISURE NAMES CLASSIC JOURNEYS THE WORLD'S BEST TOUR OPERATOR FOR 2019, FOUNDER EDWARD PIEGZA REVEALS HOW IT FEELS. ENTHUSIASTICALLY.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Just before publication of this issue, Travel + Leisure magazine announced that its readers have voted Classic Journeys the World's Best Tour Operator for 2019. It's the second time Classic Journeys has won that recognition and the 14th consecutive year the company has been in the Top 10.

Congratulations! How did you get the news?

I received a top-secret email and phone call from the editor of Travel + Leisure a few weeks ago with orders not to tell ANYONE. Friends and neighbors must have wondered why my smile has been so extra big lately. Now they know.

And how does it feel to be the World's Best Tour Operator again?

Awesome. Humbling. So, so satisfying. Deeply gratifying to learn that we have achieved what we set out to do which is to handcraft trips of a lifetime for every guest who travels with us. I'm known as long-winded, so I could probably come up with 10 or 15 more ways to describe it if you want me to keep going.

Why do you think Travel + Leisure gave you this recognition?

Actually, it isn't the T+L editors who make the decision. That's the best part. Their readers cast the votes. So the people who do the traveling, the guests who explore the world with us and our competitors — they are the ones who raised their hands to tell T+L that Classic Journeys is the World's Best Tour Operator based on their own experiences. Let me say it right here: "To all of you who voted for us, you are the World's Best Guests!"

What do you think makes your guests the World's Best Guests?

That's easy. They are curious. They care about connecting with people of different cultures and immersing themselves in the world. They treasure experiences more than things. Like the old ad slogan went, they go for the gusto and crave the chance to have one-of-a-kind moments. They are incredibly interesting and interested people, and all of us at Classic Journeys count it as a real privilege to share in their passion for travel. And we feel that way on the other 364 days of the year when we're not celebrating recognition like this.

I guess this is what you meant when you told me that "Enthusiasm is contagious."

Absolutely. That's not our official motto, but it could be. We love what we do. We enjoy helping guests figure out how to invest their precious time and budget. I can honestly say that all of us feel that way — the Guest Services folks who interact with you while you're planning your trip, the Tour Operations team members who plan all of the logistics, the local guides who lead each one of our trips full time. There's just a huge amount of positive energy in what we do, and I think it truly is hard to resist. We'd climb into every one of our guest's suitcases and go along with them if we could. Because we can't, we call each guest while they're on tour just to be sure they are having a trip of a lifetime.

Has anyone ever called Classic Journeys obsessive?

I hope so, because we are. Everything is in the details. For instance, we've created a special tour for the total eclipse of the sun which is going to pass over parts of South America in 2020. We've already analyzed likely traffic patterns in the most remote areas and figured out how to structure our itinerary so that our guests will be in place in the path of totality while the people who don't plan ahead will be stuck in jams on remote dirt roads. We enjoy obsessing about details like that so that our guests never have to.

How can you top this?

Oh, we never let ourselves think of it that way. We just continue to approach every single guest on each and every departure like the most important guest we've ever had. It seems to be working! Of course, we keep looking for new ways to win more converts. For 2019, we've launched a new series of Classic Journeys that are based from

"I voted for you!"

We've heard that expression so many times lately from guests who registered their votes with Travel + Leisure. Given the results, we know it's true ... and you know that your votes really count!

STAFF AND GUIDES

"I always feel like I'm traveling with a best friend. I prefer your local guides to the ones that other companies fly in."

ITINERARIES AND DESTINATIONS

"If it's on my bucket list, you always seem to go there. Of course, with so many options you always seem to make my list longer and longer!"

ACTIVITIES

"On your trips, I've cooked with Michelin chefs, sung songs with Quechua schoolchildren, and walked on glaciers with the descendants of Vikings. Fun doesn't begin to describe it."

ACCOMMODATIONS

"How you manage so many 5-star properties on these trips shocks me. But please, please, please keep it up!"

FOOD

"I have never eaten so well so often so happily. When you people claim that you are foodies, you aren't kidding."

OVERALL VALUE

"We have never had a better vacation at any price."

river cruise boats. On a different note, seeing how many travelers can't always find as much vacation time as they really want, we have developed a series of 6-day or shorter quick trips that go as far afield as Iceland, the Galápagos and Morocco.

Final thoughts?

It's always an honor to win recognition. But, for all of us at Classic Journeys, the biggest privilege is to share the dreams of our guests and make those dreams come true. That connection is the best feeling of all.
