France's Picture-Book Provinces

Come home from one of our tours of Normandy and Brittany and you'll tell everyone you know about the day you walked to Mont-St.-Michel. The cathedral-capped island floats on water—at least until the epic tide recedes to reveal the sandy seabed. Then, as the faithful have done for centuries, we'll have the unique opportunity to explore one of France's most glorious landmarks on foot. True, the provinces of Brittany and Normandy have their apple orchards and salt-meadow sheep flocks and picture-book villages deep in the woods. And we've planned beautiful walks among them. But like the people and history of this region, we always seem to come back to the sea. To explore coastlines that have seen invasions from Iron Age Celts to D-Day's Allied Forces. To stroll in quaint ports that launched the Norman conquest of the British Isles. And to feast in restaurants where great platters of fresh oysters, lobsters and Coquilles St.-Jacques are standard fare. So much beauty, in the shadow of so much history, warmed by a lively hospitality makes this a truly unforgettable journey.

DAY 1

ST. MALO / CANCALE

- Visit a family-run oyster farm for a tasting
- Enjoy a scenic coastal walk from the fishing port of Cancale

From seaside St. Malo, you'll follow the coast to the fishing port of Cancale. Located opposite the bay from Mont St.-Michel, this small town is famous for its oyster-farming center, and you'll pay a visit to a family-run oyster farm and enjoy a taste of this local delicacy.

Nourished with your first taste of French coastal cuisine, set out on an afternoon walk with your local guide who leads you along a scenic footpath from Pointe du Grouin. Get your camera ready, as you'll have the opportunity to soak in the picture-perfect views of Mont-St.-Michel Bay and the Chausey Islands.

Overnight: St. Malo

Meals: D

DAY 2

ST. MALO / DINAN

- Explore the ancient seaport of St. Malo
- Roll up your sleeves for a hands-on cooking instruction
- Wander the medieval lanes of Dinan

Your morning starts in St. Malo, a bustling 6th-century seaport that was once a haven for merchants, sailors and explorers. Local pirates, known as Corsairs, once received a special license from the King of France to pursue their trade without fear of being hung. Your walk takes you along the narrow, cobbled streets of the old town to the 1½ mile long ramparts that surround the walled town. From the Saint Vincent Gate (Porte St. Vincent) to the Saint Thomas Gate (Porte St. Thomas), every inner wall is packed with history and beautiful views of the Bay of St. Malo.

Make your way into the scenic countryside for a visit to Saint Suliac, a picture-perfect village overlooking the Rance River. Your first stop is a crêperie where we've arranged a private cooking instruction of this Breton specialty. Roll up your sleeves for a hands-on instruction, then enjoy the fruits of your labor by dining on the crêpes and galettes for lunch. Stretch your legs on a footpath with breathtaking views of the Rance River and the chance to spot local wildlife. Later, you'll continue south to Dinan for a guided walking tour around one of the best-preserved medieval towns in Brittany. Its timbered houses are built on stilts that rise from its old port for a picturesque backdrop.

Overnight: St. Malo

Meals: B, L

DAY 3

MONT ST. MICHEL

- 'Only with Classic Journeys' discover the Bay of Mont-St.-Michel on foot
- Explore the famed island and monastery

Your much-anticipated visit to Mont-St.-Michel comes to life this morning as you experience in person one of the most dramatic and awe-inspiring sights in France. Combining history, architecture and natural beauty, this famed monastery was founded in 708 when the Archangel Michael appeared to Aubert, the bishop of Avranches. Taking more than 500 years to build, this island-abbey is perched on a 264-foot rock a few hundred yards off the coast and beckons visitors from around the world. Your walk to this UNESCO World Heritage Site is an 'only with Classic Journeys' excursion across the low tides with sand underfoot and the sounds of the waves in the distance. Soak in this experience, step by step, as you make your way to Mont. St. Michel and immerse yourself in this island's rich history.

On arrival on the island, you'll soon discover a labyrinth of narrow streets and alleys that are lined with charming shops, restaurants, and quaint houses. The climb up to the top of the abbey offers breathtaking views, so be sure to have your camera ready. The abbey itself is a masterpiece of Gothic and Romanesque architecture, which you'll learn about with your expert local guide. Together you'll explore La Merveille, one of Europe's most important Gothic monuments, and the 11th-century Romanesque and Gothic abbey church.

Note: Due to the tides, and with the advice of your local guide, your walk in the Bay of Mont-St.-Michel may take place in the morning, mid-morning or afternoon.

Overnight: Port-en-Bessin

Meals: B

DAY 4

D-DAY BEACHES

- Immerse yourself in the history of D-Day with visits to Arromanches, Utah Beach and Pointe du Hoc
- Reflect during a walk through the American Cemetery and along Omaha Beach

Today you'll set out for a series of meaningful walks along the D-Day beaches, where on June 6, 1944, Normandy made its mark in history and became the battleground for one of the greatest military operations of our time. Begin the day with a visit to Arromanches, with ruins of the artificial harbor built in only 15 days in 1944, as well as German bunkers that remain sprinkled throughout the peaceful landscape. On a specially curated walk, you'll experience on foot at eye level what it was like for allied soldiers to arrive at these cliffs and beaches. With an insightful visit to Pointe du Hoc, which features the most spectacular scenery along the coast, you'll be able to take in the sights at the cliff-top observatory and German machine gun posts. During the invasion, U.S. Rangers attempted a siege of the German-occupied cliffs by using grappling hooks and ladders borrowed from London fire departments. Explore the German bunkers and bomb craters that remain: a moonscape that dramatically illustrates the intense fighting.

After, a short drive takes you to Normandy's American Cemetery which sits on a cliff overlooking Omaha Beach and the English Channel. One of the best-known military memorials, you'll have time to walk through the cemetery filled with marble crosses and Stars of David. Filmed in the opening scene of Saving Private Ryan, you'll also have an opportunity to walk along Omaha Beach, where some of the fiercest fighting took place. After immersing yourself in these historic sites, return to your hotel for some downtime to reflect on today's impactful visits.

Meals: B, L, D

DAY 5

BAYEUX / PAYS D'AUGE

- Marvel at the Bayeux Tapestry up close
- Walk the scenic Pays d'Auge countryside

Your morning begins in Bayeux, the first town liberated during the Battle of Normandy, and most famously, home to the Bayeux Tapestry. Dating to 1067, the 230-foot-long tapestry depicts the decisive Battle of Hastings, when William of Normandy conquered England in 1066. Its impressive size along with its artistic and historical merits make the embroidered tapestry a world-renowned masterpiece.

Late morning, enjoy a short drive to the Pays d'Auge - classic Normandy countryside lushly woven with fields, wooded valleys, cider orchards, dairy farms, manor houses and quaint villages. Here you'll visit a family-owned distillery to taste Calvados, the legendary apple brandy. At a quaint restaurant, pause for a tasting of local cheeses, cider and teurgoule, a Norman dessert similar to rice pudding. Later, a countryside walk from Beuvron-en-Auge, a small town with half-timbered houses, leads you to a horse farm where you can watch the famous Norman horses being trained. Later in the afternoon, you'll journey northeast along Normandy's coast and countryside to Honfleur.

Overnight: Honfleur

Meals: B, L, D

DAY 6

HONFLEUR / DEAUVILLE

- Enjoy a guided walk around beautiful Honfleur, the birthplace of Impressionism painting
- Wander the traditional market and the art galleries

Today you'll explore Honfleur, one of Normandy's most charming towns. A curated walk around the town with your guide takes you through half-timber houses and cobbled streets to the old dock (Vieux Bassin), which still attracts artists as it did in the days of Boudin. The original fishing boats have been replaced with yachts, but the slender buildings lining the quays make for unforgettable views.

Continue on to Place Ste. Catherine where a traditional market is still held on the weekend, then stroll to Côte de Grâce. Here you'll have a magnificent view of the town where Impressionism was born, before taking time to browse the galleries and shops that line the streets.

ENJOY THE UNEXPECTED

When you travel with Classic Journeys, you can expect handcrafted surprises built into every trip, but some things just can't be anticipated. Unusual weather, a once-a-year festival or an unscheduled site closing will inspire us and your local guide to improvise and modify this itinerary. Likewise, the hotels named here are used on the majority of our trips, but occasionally one of them can't accommodate us. If that happens, you can count on us to let you know before departure and make sure you're in a hotel of equal or better quality. It's our goal to make your trip exceptional!

Any discount offered cannot be combined with other offers, and only applies to published (regularly scheduled public) departure dates in our catalogs or on our website.

THE Classic Journeys Difference

HANDCRAFTING TRIPS OF A LIFETIME.

At the end of the day, we fundamentally believe that every guest on every departure of every trip should have a trip of a lifetime. We're fortunate to play the role of well-connected friend, linking our guests with amazing guides, artisans, winemakers, hoteliers, restaurateurs, naturalists, and too many others to list here.

That's what motivates me and our team — in our La Jolla HQ and around the world — every day. Join Us!
