

Food for the Hungry welcomes four new board members

The organization grows its board of directors to a total of 10

Phoenix, Arizona (October 6, 2021) – International humanitarian organization Food for the Hungry announces the appointment of four new members to their board of directors. The organization welcomed Corina Villacorta, Klaas van Mill, Ogugua Osakewe-Adegbite, and Vivienne Yeda to the organization in spring 2021.

Corina Villacorta brings her expertise from Lima, Peru, where she acts as an executive coach and mentor. Klaas van Mill joins as a CEO and business owner, hailing from Cape Town, South Africa. Ogugua Osakwe-Adegbite, head of strategy and international expansion at M-Pesa Africa, is based in London, UK. Attorney and banker, Vivienne Yeda joins from Nairobi, Kenya.

With the existing members, the new additions bring the organization's board of directors to a total of 10. This diverse group of leaders operates as a system of strategic advisors, working closely with the president and CEO to hold Food for the Hungry accountable to its mission, vision, and values. About Food for the Hungry:

Food for the Hungry (FH) is a Christian humanitarian organization ending all forms of human poverty by providing life-changing development programs, disaster relief, and advocacy. For 50 years, FH has been working to respond to human suffering and graduate communities from extreme poverty into self-sustainability within a decade. By creating context-specific solutions in education, agriculture, health, livelihood, clean water, and disaster risk reduction, the nonprofit focuses on transformational development, investing in children as the key to lift entire communities out of poverty. With 98% of staff working in their country of origin, FH works side by side with local leaders, churches, and families to implement innovative solutions. The organization currently serves more than 5.3 million people in over 20 countries worldwide. For more information, follow FH on Instagram and Twitter, or visit www.fh.org.
