Night of the Moonjellies is written from the first person point of view. Can you write a story of your own using first person point of view?

Marina: a dock for mooring boats and having supplies, sometimes a service station.

Pier: a structure to land and/or tie up boats and ships

Moonjellies: common jellyfish found on the coasts of the Atlantic and the Pacific Oceans.

Sea Fever

I must down to the seas again, to the lonely sea and the sky,
And all I ask is a tall ship and a star to steer her by,
And the wheel's kick and the wind's song and the white sail's shaking,
And a grey mist on the sea's face, and a grey dawn breaking.

I must down to the seas again, for the call of the running tide
Is a wild call and a clear call that may not be denied;
And all I ask is a windy day with the white clouds flying,
And the flung spray and the blown spume, and the sea-gulls crying.

I must go down to the seas again, to the vagrant gypsy life,
To the gull's way and the whale's way where the wind's like a whetted knife;
And all I ask is a merry yarn from a laughing fellow-rover
And quiet sleep and a sweet dream when the long trick's over.

By John Masefield (1878-1967)

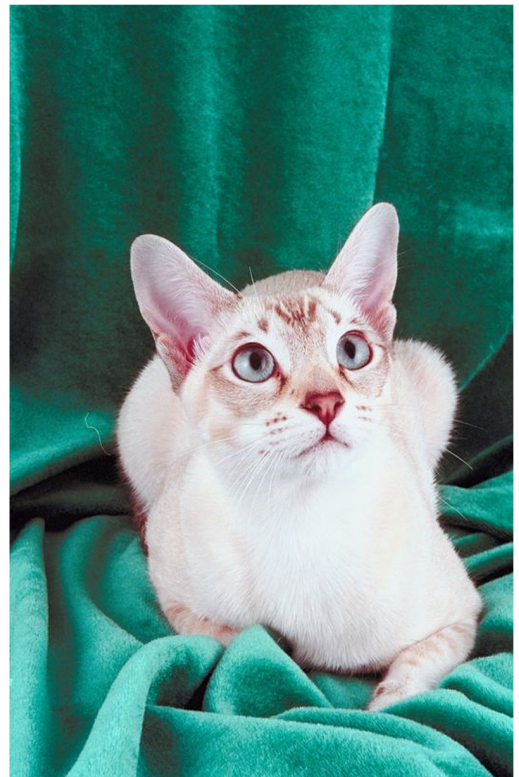

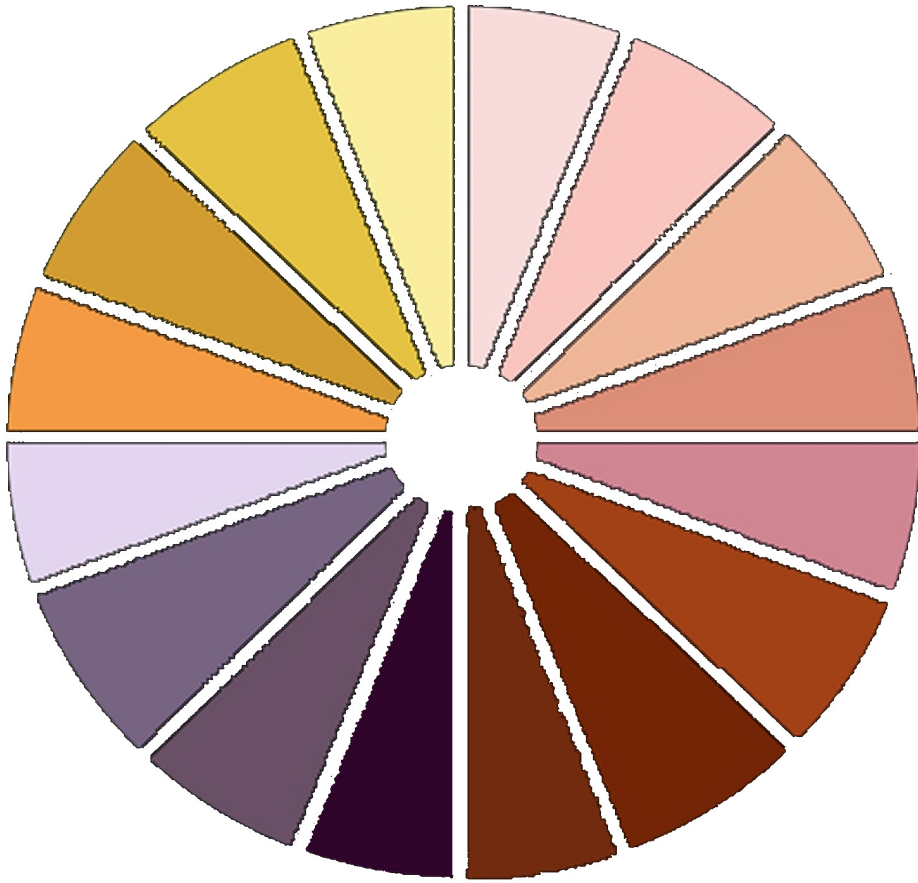

How many food items can you remember from the story?

Examples of different viewpoints

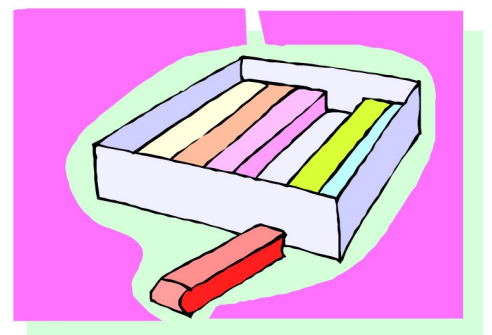

Warm colors are made mostly of red, orange and yellow. This family of colors is called warm because they remind you of warm things like the sun or fire. Below are some photos that use the warm color palette. How do they make you feel? Can you draw a picture using the colors from the warm palette?

Here are some examples of drawings using pastels...
