RACIST ETHNIC GROUPS BATTLE FOR PIG POWER

THROUGH THE MELTING POT INTO THE PIG STRUCTURE

Corrupt Power Survival at Stake

RACIST ETHNIC GROUPS BATTLE

Irish and the Anglo-Saxons history shows that the Englishment have been at each other's throats for centuries and centuries; that the Irish and the Italians in New York, the Middle West, and in California had an on-going ethnic battle that stretched over decades. From the last century until this century they have had these gangland-type battles essentially for political power.

Consider the era of Boss Tweed; the man who controlled Tamany Hall. About 1870, Boss Tweed was sentenced to the penitentiary - was put in jail. He dominated the politics of New York and he was an English Protestant. He had Scotch ancestry, but he was inclined toward the British, and inclined toward the English as opposed to the Irish.

In that same year, Honest John Kelly took over Tamany Hall.

A few years ago, though, a man by the name of Carmine Desapio was thrown out of Tamany Hall, because it was said he was a dictator; that he was corrupting the politics there. But Carmine Desapio was an Italian. And there has been quite a bit of social friction, quite a bit of social change that went down enabling Carmine Desapio to corruptly take over Tamany Hall - following Honest John Kelly, the man who ousted Boss Tweed.

At this point, you have to be careful of propaganda aprior; that is, we've been taught that John Dillinger, Al Capone, and the likes or Dutch Schultz, were just old-styled hoodlums, gangsters. If you could parallel the rhetoric, you would find that people who are trying to take something away from a class that's above them; that the upper-class trying to defend its possessions will always find rhetoric or find words to put those beneath them down. That is to stigmatize their activity, and to categorize that activity as something illegitimate. Therefore, we must deal with basic ethnic roots; that is, the cause that brought about today's racist ethnic groups battle for corrupt power survival.

Relevant to what's happening in this country today, when the Irish gained power; since before then they had a lot of conflict with the police, their activities and political drives were parallel to the Black people's vanguard of today - the Black Panthers.

The Irish were an exploited population here, with the Anglo-Saxons being in control of this country.

Anglo-Saxons had the political power, the financial power, and they weren't going to give it up. But Irish people like Machine Gun Kelly (paralleled in history to the Black Panther Party) had the same aspirations. The Irish wanted to get part of the product of this country by any means necessary. And they successfully organized the disreputable element in the Irish community, and used organized guns and force to take over complete control of their communities.

Propaganda tells us that they were into all kinds of corrupt things like gambling, bootlegging, and all other vices. It is never said that they were into banking, or the Irish were into industry; you have to go a little beneath the myth before you start getting ethnic insight.

You have to be concerned about the original method of appropriation; such as how does an ethnic group get its start in a county? How did the various ethnic groups as they passed through the melting pot in this country get a bankroll to work with? Who controlled the alcohol that was being produced before the Irish started producing their own?

History will show that the Irish were angry because the Anglo-Saxons wanted to control it; wanting, too, to reap all the benefits and profits. So they started ethnic wars outside of the law. The Anglo-Saxons (incumbent pig structure) was set upon by the power hungry Irish.

Beneath the labels; relating directly to ethnic groups, a bit of satisfaction can be found in being able to refer back to history. And, oddly enough, history shows a development between Al Capone and Mayor Alioto. Being more explicit, a lot of people think the Mafia (or the organized gangland activity the Italians instituted in order to survive as an ethnic group in this country) was so disreputable that it cannot be accepted. But it represents power. It represents a foundation. And it isn't right for the Italian people to try to disassociate themselves from the 'freedom fighters' who helped gain some power and some control for all Italians as a whole.

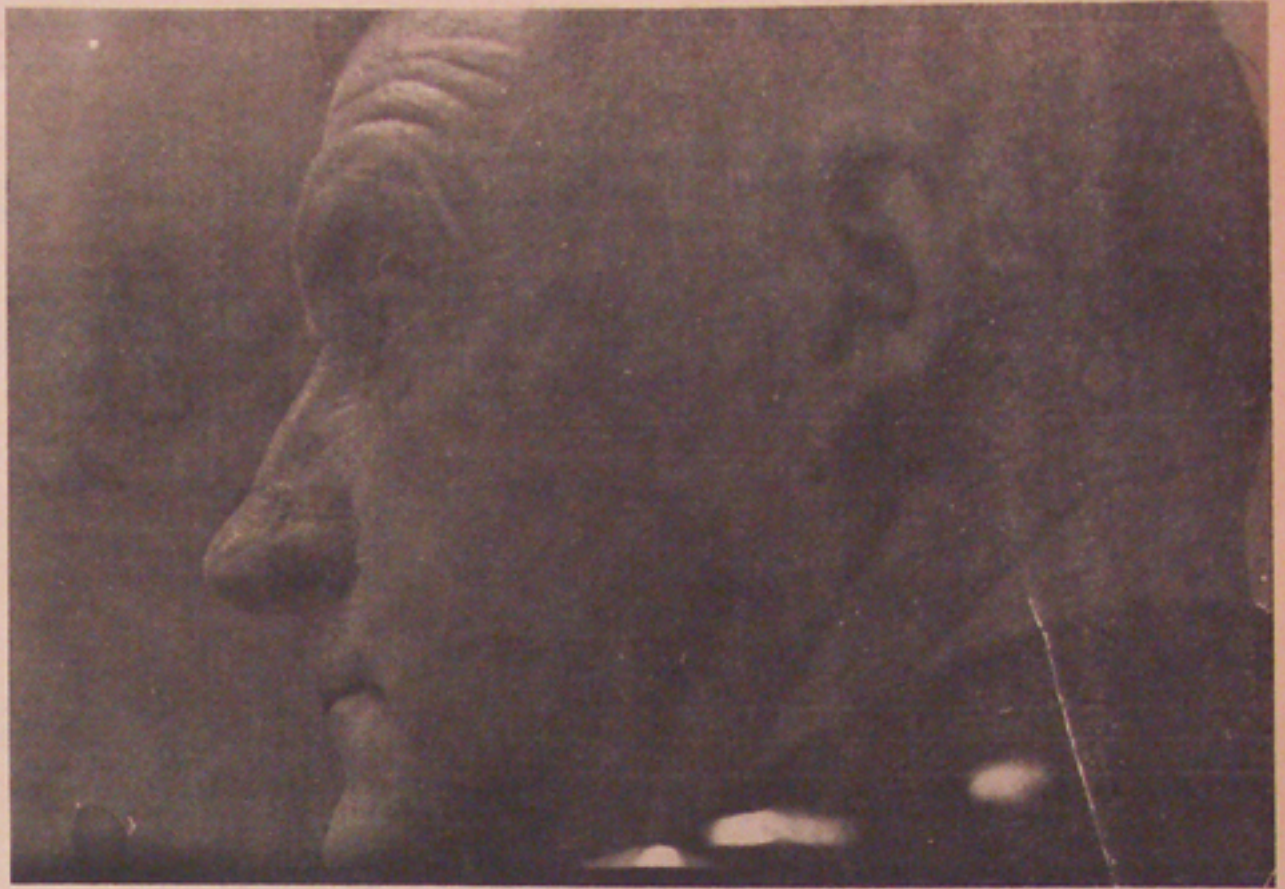

Nevertheless, corruption for progress is a contradiction of fact; which rejects any contribution from gangsters - the so-called gangsters produced by the Italians in this country. The idea is bullshit. Hoodlum-type gangs help only to put pressure on other people who find it necessary to use the very same methods.

When you start looking back into the history, you find that the Italians came to California in large numbers. They got involved in agriculture, particularly in producing grapes for the further production of wine. Then we find the Bank of America springing up in California, with funds - legitimate and illegitimate - going into that bank but coming out all legitimate. This is not to knock it, but to describe the whole scene.

It becomes bullshit when they talk about how legitimate, or when the Bank of America talks about itself: The Bank of America is and has always been one of the chief connections that the Mafia in this country. A. P. Giannini wasn't no saint; unless he was one of the traditional saints the Catholic Church possessed.

It's also interesting to note how religious lines coincide with the political and the ethnic lines. About three weeks ago, S.F. Pig Mayor Alioto had Chief Hog Cahill on his way out of office (remember when an Irish policeman in San Francisco shot Black brother, George Baskett?) Alioto left town. He went to Washington to confer with the leaders of the Democratic Party, or so he said. This brought about a situation in San Francisco where members of the Board of Supervisors, in the absence of the Mayor, rotate and fence over as acting mayor.

It so happened, however, it was Terry Francois' turn to be acting mayor. Terry Francois, you may think is French, is black - a bootlicker with a French name. And while Alioto was out of town, Terry Francois made the statement that Chief Cahill should resign because of all these things that were wrong with the pigs in the city's police department.

When Mayor Alioto came back to San Francisco, a delegation met him at the airport and told him about Terry Francois' remarks. Pig Alioto was asked what he thought about Francois' charges. But instead of the Mayor saying, "well, the police were out of order," press sennements came out: "Chief Cahill is the finest police chief in the country. We're going to keep him here by any means necessary". Then Alioto said, "Well, yess, there's a lot of things wrong with the police department, and some of those things have to be straightened out". He didn't support Cahill completely.

But then, you noticed there was a man by the name of Andriotti, Lieutenant Andriotti. Alioto was now pushing him to become Chief of Police. At the same time, however, some things started happening around the Bay Area that created a little bit of fear. Bombs. People started popping bombs (maybe that was the Mafia) but they started popping bombs. This is when Alioto ran to Chief Cahill, embracing him and stating that he had solidarity with Cahill. Cahill was given a blank Alioto check to go out and suppress whoever that was bombing.

Although beneath that public facade, there's a whole history of a struggle for ethnic group control of the guns in urban centers.

The Irish had managed to get quite a bit of control over a certain element of the economic system. One of these elements receiving a lot of publicity was a lot of bootlegging that went on in their own community. And they intended to control it by whatever means it took.

There was a great conflict between the Irish and the Italians which ended up with people gaining reputations for driving through the streets of Chicago with machine guns. It related very directly to guns, and actually achieving control of the sections of the corrupt industry they were aiming at.

Now if you take a developing agriculture on the West Coast, and some of the places around Kansas City, then take the development of some organized machinery in places like New York and Chicago with large sums of money flowing in, some of the things that we picture in our minds as legitimate quickly get stripped away. You have a situation here where people were taking things. Only the ones who had it taken away from them were the ones who were citing morality, and who were stating that it was out of order. They were making laws against it.

Dutch Schultz

When the Italians started gaining vast control of the production of alcohol, they passed a law to outlaw it. They called it Prohibition. A lot of people lobbied and pushed for the new law in order to keep the Italians from having control of it. But bootlegging didn't do anything but go underground.

You may think this is not relevant to your own life, but we're talking about 'the melting pot'. We're talking about what went into the melting pot and what came out of it: about Al Capone being melted into Mayor Alioto and about Machine Gun Kelly being melted into Chief Cahill.

It's no accident that when you look across this country, you find that the Chiefs of Police are Irish. This is not saying that every chief of police in this country is Irish. But saying that when you have Leary in New York, Reading in Los Angeles, Cahill in San Francisco, with Mayor Daley of Chicago thrown in - that's enough. These are the people who have control of the guns, the people who have control of the police functions, and the actual power that's involved in a social situation.

When you see Alioto moving against Cahill, having Cahill very uptight, where it looked like he was going to resign. Suddenly you see Chief Cahill being selected as the head man - the president or the chief of the International Association of Chiefs of Police. Here is where you have to wonder about the politics behind the scenes, and mostly because the International Association of Chiefs of Police is controlled by the Irish. It's the Irish Mafia.

Although, the Association has some other people in there who are not Irish, but are Italian chiefs of police. Italians have gained some control of the police departments in various places. So in order to counter what Alioto was doing in San Francisco, this political organization elected Chief Cahill, and this was a way of backing him up and bolstering his Irish power. Because if you can see that Alioto is Mafioso; remembering, too, the changes he went through concerning 'gun control'. Alioto told the people to take their guns down to the churches (where they have a lot of Italian priests) and to Fire Stations (where they have a lot of Italian firemen). But Alioto didn't say a hell of a lot about taking guns to the police department - where they have all those Irishmen. He did say later that he was sending all guns that were turned in to Italy, to be melted down, so that a sculptor could turn them into a statue - a monument to disarmament.

Now you have to wonder whether or not that's what really happened to those guns. It could be said that he was arming the Italian nation, and also was arming the Mafia, here, in Babylon. Alioto went through too many changes about those guns to believe otherwise.

When you recognize in history how the ethnic groups have moved out of the melting pot into the power structure - into some power - you find that these were the Anglo-Saxons, the Irish, the Italians, put the Jews along side (because Jews have their business on all levels - from Justice Goldberg, down to Yippie Jerry Rubin) - and Black people placed at the lowest level.

When the Irish were moving against the Anglo-Saxons, they made something like a coalition with the Italians and used the Italians as a lever against the Anglo-Saxons. The Irish threatened to unleash the Italians (the Italians had been stigmatized - Sacco and Vanzetti) all kinds of Italians had crimes and conspiracies all blamed on them. But once upon a time these things had been blamed on the Irish; that is, until the Irish gained control of police forces and also zipped into other sectors of the economy. Then they had enough power to do as the Italians recently did when they went down and forced a television station to take the laughed-about, Italian family hour, 'The Untouchables' off TV. Remember 'The Untouchables'? It is true that the gangsters tend to be characterized as Italians, and all seemed to be known as Big Tony or Big Al. It was TV's subconscious attempt to stigmatize hoodlums as Italians and/or to stigmatize the Italians as gansters.

MAD DOG COLL

But in direct contrast, all of the cops (Elliot Ness was 'the man' on The Untouchables) were Anglo-Saxon and Irish. Once in a while, though there'd be an Italian that they would bring into the police force. Still the big wheels in the police force in those TV mythologies were not Italian.

There is no doubt that people are being programmed to resist or to disapprove of a certain image that is constructive. And this is constructive precisely to combat a drive for power. Primarily, though, for political power.

The Irish were very shrewd in doing that. They were told of the Italians locked up with political power. The Irish would threaten to become united to that power when the Anglo-Saxons were blocking something that they wanted. But the Italians continued their struggle on their own and elevated themselves into a position where they were able to threaten.

This is actually how Alioto got into power in San Francisco. He made a sham coalition with the black bourgeoisie and the Mexican-American bourgeoisie in the area. There was also a layer of the Chinese community politically involved. Alioto went everywhere possibly because he needed all the help he could get. But he only used it.

Alioto went into the Mayor's office of San Francisco actually quoting Stokely Carmichael and approving of 'Black power'. He even said that he endorsed one hundred percent militancy, but he did not endorse violence.

The political nature of what he did was that Alioto made conflicting coalitions. He played the same game on Black people (with Black people against the Irish) that the Irish played against the Anglo-Saxons using Black people as pawns. The talk about coalitions between Black people and Mexican-American people becomes very key in this regard; specifically in relation to the Italians, because the big problem that the Mexican-Americans have in relation to the growing of grapes. Mexican-Americans have a strike going on, but Gorman Agnew, along with Irish Rafferty have come out publicly with pictures taken eating grapes. That was a show of ethnic solidarity.

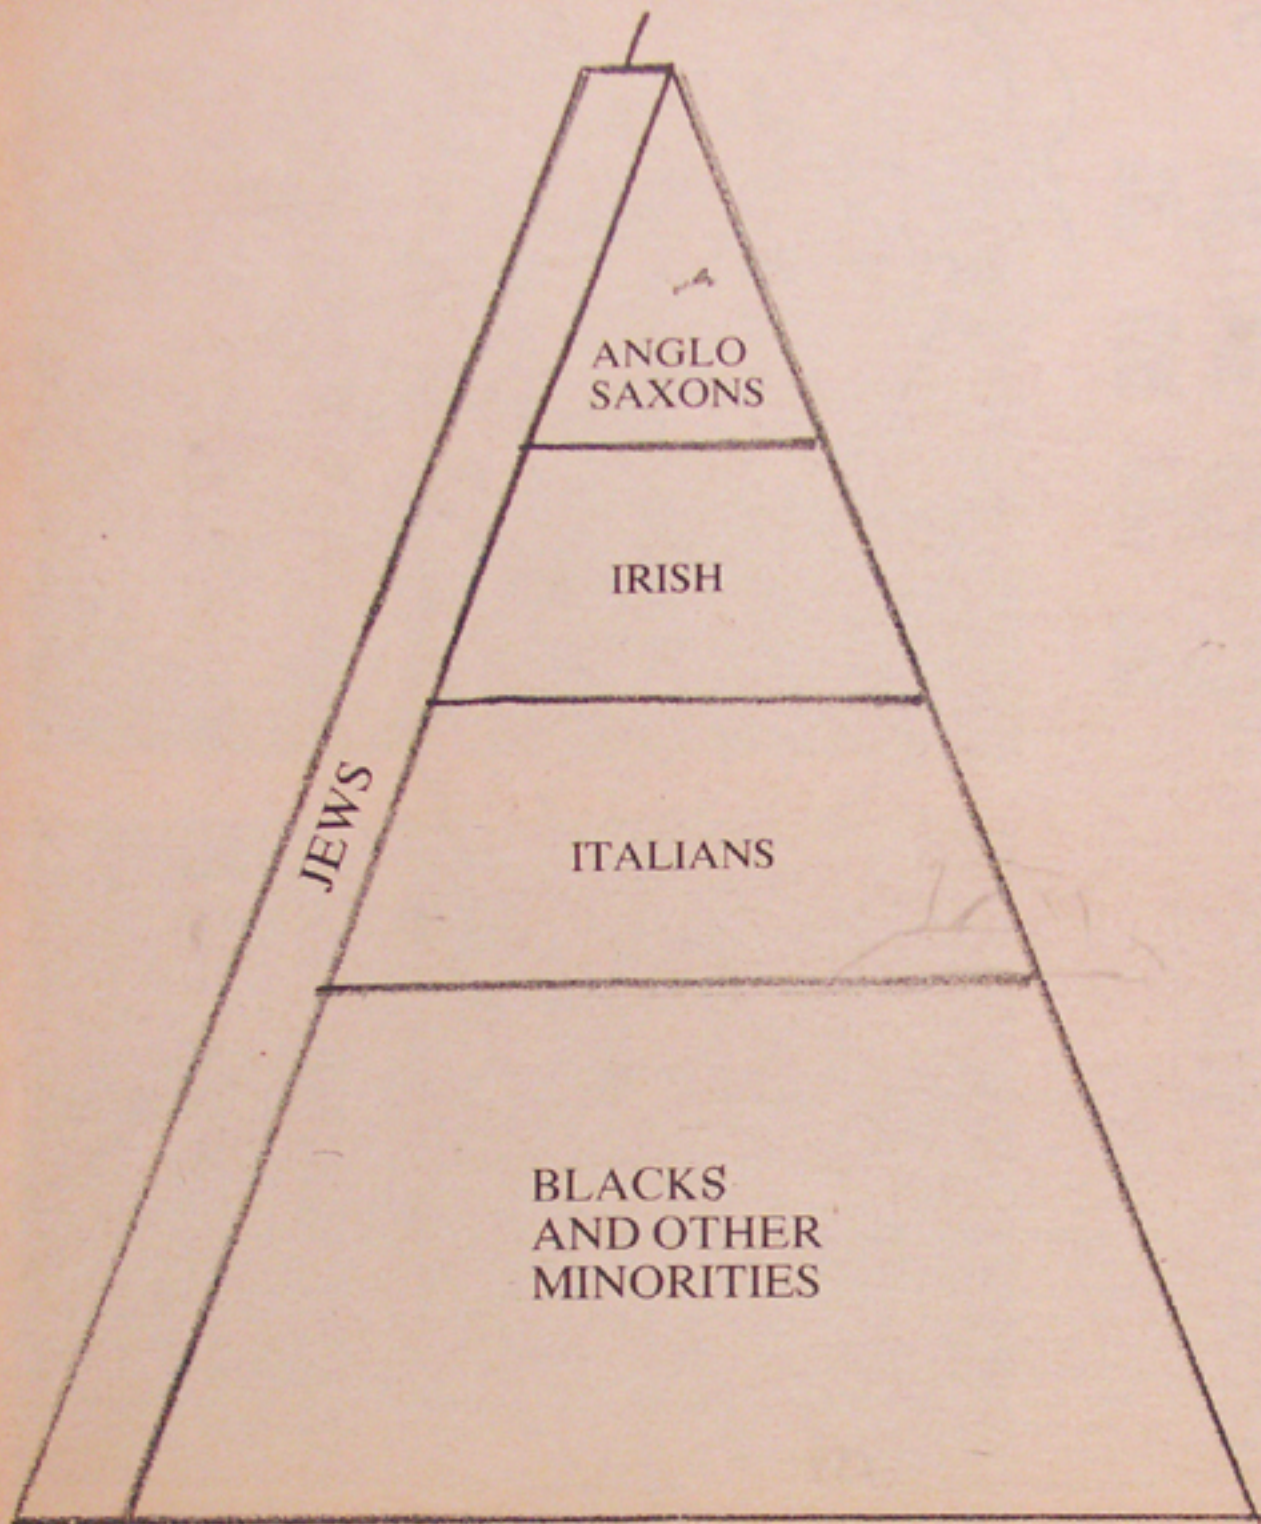

Many groups and individuals will say that the information contained in this article is anti-white, anti-semitic, anti-Irish, anti-Italian, and anti-Anglo-Saxon. But that is just a synonym for what has been said before; this time in detail. And, again, it's not true. Black people are aware that the Italians, the Irish, the Jews and the Anglo-Saxons, and a lot of other white people (the groups that must be dealt with) have functioned in history very much in an anti-black manner.

JACK LEGS DIAMOND, THOMAS FATTY WALSH, & CHARLES LUCKY LUCIANO

MACHINE GUN KELLY

JERRY RUBIN

Black people have no interest in obscuring that just to avoid being called a lot of derogatory names. It is clear that there would only be a repeat of what the Irish called the Italians or what the Anglo-Saxons called the Irish. Ethnic groups always put someone down for criticizing them. But when we have Irish Catholics and Italian Catholics controlling the city administration in many cities; while in these same cities you have large numbers of Black people cooped up there, no concern can be shown about one pig Mayor Alioto's feelings. The same position must be taken about Chief Cahill's feelings.

The only thing to be concerned about is unlocking the secret of their power. Concerned must focus on how they got into power, what condition these ethnic groups were when they came to this country, and so forth.

A book that is suggested for an in-depth analysis of ethnic groups is "Beyond the Melting Pot". This is a book that runs down the history of ethnic groups; passing them through the melting pot, and touching on what they were melted into.

But the book doesn't exist that we really need - a book that would separate complete falsehood, complete fabrication along with complete invention, and that will bring the disreputable element back into each ethnic group. It must be realized that it's that disreputable element that supplies the pressure, that supplies the chaos, that supplies the friction. These same elements forces those who want law and order to make concessions so that they can continue the functioning of their machine.

What must be remembered is Casa Nostra was raided. Could it be that the raid had anything to do with Irish and Italian politics on the East Coast? Kennedy, the man who had all these indictments in his hands against all these powerful people, had leverage for some political maneuvering, some political negotiations. And it's no wonder that a Kennedy (who happen to be Irish Catholic) was the first Catholic President in this country.

Is Mayor Alioto the first Italian mayor of San Francisco? The last one was Shelley, who was Irish, and he appointed Cahill, who was Irish, to be chief of police. We must call this 'ethnic coincidence'. It has to be called that or be called ethnic conspiracy.

The matter at hand is the root of racism. And the definitions people have to use to talk about racism are no good; these definitions have been to obscure the realities that we have to deal with.

What we're doing now is going back to the melting pot to see what the hell was going on there - to see just what happened. That's a lot of fiction about how people passed through the melting pot and came out red, white and blue. That didn't happen as such. People came out speaking a common language, with some very uncommon interests, but very uncommon interests.

Now these parallels; consider the history of Europe; where you have the English, the Irish, and the fact that the English have colonized Ireland. The Irish have been fighting a liberation struggle against the English for many days, many days. Then there is the historical rivalry between the French, the English, the Germans and the Italians - all the nations that were in conflict with each other so irreconcilable they went to war. These nations killed each other, invaded each other, and then the same people came over here.

When they came over to the America, they were no longer the Italian nation, the English nation, or the French nation, but were transposed into ethnic groups. The term that they used here was the ethnic group, they didn't speak about the Italian nation or of it carrying on a traditional conflict with the German nation. They didn't talk about the French nation here carrying on a traditional conflict with the English across the Atlantic. They spoke about the ethnic groups.

But this is also where reality becomes lost to us. When they redefine the people who were in this country as ethnic groups; using a ethnic designation as opposed to the national designation, then this is where the trick came into the game. This is where a lot of the reality of the real conflict that was going on became obscured.

Now it is important to carry over an understanding of the traditional conflict between the European nations in Europe and to see all of these nations coming to America and thinking that they left their national conflicts on the Mayflower. Instead, they brought conflicts with them - in their culture, in their language, in their minds, as in their hearts. These are the same conflicts that were transposed into ethnic rivalries as opposed to national rivalries.

The ethnic groups have functioned in this country like little nations; like little nations, but using the terminology of ethnic politics as opposed to international politics. Now it's only synonyms that are being used, with the main dynamics exactly the same, and their basic ways of moving has not changed. They used everything from diplomacy, on one hand, to guns, at the other extreme. And when the diplomacy didn't work, the politics were transposed into another means: namely, violence.

PROFILE OF THE BIG CROOK, WM KNOWLAND

by Bob Avakian

Anyone who has lived in or near Oakland knows it is a miserable city. Much of the housing is broken down; many streets are not lit; with the exception of the Oakland hills, the schools are overcrowded and run like prisons, and large numbers of people, black, brown, and even white, are forced to live in poverty, without adequate clothing, medical care or food. In fact, the over-all unemployment rate in Oakland is nearly 10%, twice the national average; and for black people it is twice as high again (20%). And everywhere they turn poor people are hemmed in, beaten down and tricked by the ruthless rulers of the city, who themselves live in the luxury of the Oakland Hills, Piedmont, Castro Valley, Orinda, or some other suburb.

Not only are the Oakland police notorious for their gestapo actions -- against black people, Chicanos and even anti-draft and anti-war demonstrators and sometimes even striking workers -- but the Alameda County Welfare Department, which is supposed to help people who cannot find work live with some dignity, made Oakland famous four years ago, when the welfare agents conducted midnight "bed raids" of their clients' homes. They actually forced their way into the houses of the very people they were supposed to be serving and demanded to see if they were sleeping alone. Any woman who had dared to entertain a male visitor was not only denied the piddling welfare check she had been receiving, but was actually prosecuted by racist District Attorney J. Francis Coakley, for defrauding the welfare department!

When a school kid in Oakland rebels against the totalitarian school system that attempts to teach him nothing but to stay in his place, fear his oppressors, and learn to say "yes sir" and "no sir" on command, the kid is simply kicked out of school and thrown out on the streets. "Troublemakers" in the Oakland schools are not only frequently beaten up by teachers and other school officials, they are often arrested right on the school grounds and dragged off to jail, where they are often kept for hours before their parents are notified.

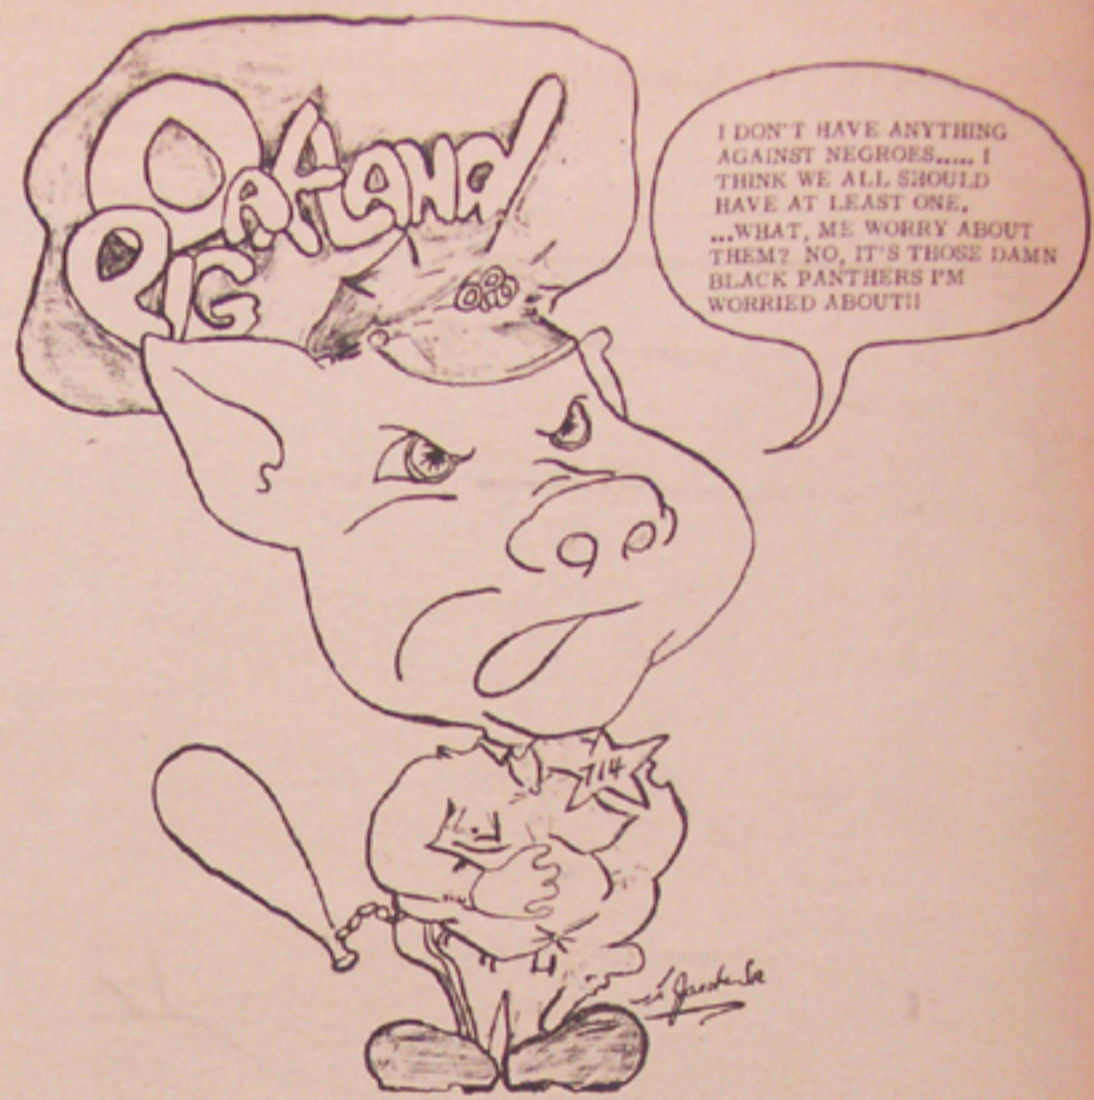

Most people already know about these intolerable conditions. But many people, especially those who are the worst victims of these atrocities, are not fully aware of who is responsible for the evil changes they are put through. They see only the welfare agent, the pig cop, the bill collector, the hard-headed teacher, the racist-dog D.A. or some other agent of the power structure: the men who give these agents their orders are far away in tall buildings. And, although it is necessary to struggle against these front-line functionaries of the power structure, it is also necessary to have an understanding of just who the criminal conspirators are who make the political decisions that come down on the people's heads.

For some time, the City of Oakland has been in the grip of William F. Knowland and his family -- publishers of the Oakland TRIBUNE, the only major newspaper in the city. Knowland's father, Joseph, made a fortune in the shipping industry in California after World War I, and increased it during World War II, when Oakland was a major port. It was in these war years that large numbers of southern poor people, black and white, were almost literally picked up by the Federal Government and dumped in northern cities to work in the defense plants and shipyards. They were put up in so-called "temporary" housing, which became permanent after the war ended, when large numbers of people, particularly black people, were thrown out of work by the closing of the shipyards. But Joseph Knowland did not suffer from the end of the war. By this time, he had bullied and bribed his way into full ownership of the TRIBUNE. Before World War II, the Knowland family only owned one-half of the TRIBUNE and several other criminal enterprises. But when the owner of the other half died and her estate was still being settled, Joseph put up $1 million to buy out the rest of the newspaper. And, even though there was a higher offer from a newspaperman in St. Paul, Minnesota, Knowland's friend in the Alameda County Superior Court, Judge John J. Allen, ruled that the estate had to sell to Knowland, for less money. So the Knowlands gained almost a complete monopoly on information in Oakland; and ever since, they have used the TRIBUNE as a PROPAGANDA TOOL for the games they and their cohorts are running on the people.

From the very beginning the Knowlands have built up a ruthlessly reactionary political machine to control Oakland and build a power-base for themselves in both the business and the politics, not only of Oakland, but of California and the entire country. Since the early 1920s, the Knowlands have wheeled, dealt and cut throats to get themselves more power and put the people in further misery. For example, in 1925, they used their influence to get Earl Warren appointed Assistant District Attorney, and then they pressured the District Attorney to step down to make way for Warren. Then in the 1940s, the TRIBUNE went all-out to get Warren elected Governor. And, after he took office, Warren (remember him, the "liberal" Supreme Court Justice?) paid off. When one of the U. S. Senators from California died, Warren quickly appointed William Knowland to fill the vacancy.

As a politician William Knowland has always been the implacable foe of black people, poor people, working people, and the peoples of the world. As far back as 1937, as a State Assemblyman, Knowland succeeded in temporarily blocking the pardon of Tom Mooney, a union organizer in the early 1900s (back when unions were really opposed to the power structure), who had been framed on charges of bomb-throwing. Later, as a Senator, he not only opposed the liberation of the Chinese people, but actually took up the cause of fascist Chiang-kai-shek, insisting that the criminal war in Korea should be extended to an attack on the People's Republic of China and the Chinese revolution. He was so hard-headed about his support for Chiang-kai-shek that he was given the nickname William "Formosa" Knowland. At the time of the victory of the Vietnamese people against the French imperialists at Dienbienphu in 1954, Knowland advised mad-man John Foster Dulles, then Secretary of State of the U.S., to intervene with bombing attacks, including atomic bombs if necessary, to crush the Vietnamese resistance to French colonialism and western domination.

On the home front, he voted in 1948 for a Senate bill that would have allowed southern states to further segregate their schools and he even opposed do-nothing bodies like the Federal Fair Employment Practices Commission. He supported bills allowing the states to open the relief rolls to public inspection, making the recipients vulnerable to further discrimination. At the same time he backed bills empowering the U.S. government to seize plants when workers went on strike and to use the army to crush strikes. In 1958, he ran for Governor of the State of California, mainly on a platform of flunking for big business, even to the extent of promising a "right to work law," aimed at preventing union organization. Throughout his political career, which officially ended with his defeat in the Governor's race of 1958, Knowland -- who had risen as high as Senate Majority Leader under the Eisenhower regime, -- was known as one of the key leaders of the most reactionary wing of the Republican Party. In 1964, for example, he was California campaign manager for Barry Goldwater.

And, after he retired from public politics, Knowland continued to rule Oakland with an iron, right-wing grip. He has used the TRIBUNE (which itself has less than 5% black employees) to oppose every struggle for the liberation of black people, students and working people. In 1965, when black people were boycotting the restaurants at Jack London square, because they refused to hire black people for any but the lowest paying, most degrading jobs, Knowland blasted away at the leaders of the boycott, writing in one front-page editorial that anyone who even picketed the restaurants was guilty of "gangsterism". He ranted and raved about the "private enterprise system" and how it was much more sacred than the right of people to work and live decently. And when the final confrontation of that struggle came down, on March 13, 1965, at the "Sea Wolf" restaurant, Knowland himself, along with his henchman in the city government, including much of the Pig Department, went down to the restaurant itself and supervised the defeat of the attempted boycott.

Again, in 1966, when black people boycotted the Oakland high schools and junior high schools, Knowland attacked them as "irresponsible" and when a minor rebellion broke out, after a pig attempted to arrest a black victim of an auto accident, Knowland wrote another front-page editorial blaming the school boycotters for the violence! After the murder of Bobby Hutton, when black people began the boycott of Houswives market, Knowland not only blasted them again with a front-page editorial, but he ran an ad in his paper asking people to break the boycott by going out of their way to shop at the market. And, just this year, when the Board of Regents, led by Knowland's pig-in-arms, Governor Reagan, tried to block Eldridge Cleaver from lecturing on the Berkeley campus, Knowland came out with his most atrocious editorial of all, in which the only description he gave of the Minister of Information was the passage from his book about how he became a rapist. But scurvy-dog Knowland did not include in this quote from SOUL ON ICE, the part of the passage where Eldridge says, "After I returned to prison, I took a long look at myself and, for the first time in my life, admitted that I was wrong, that I had gone astray -- astray not so much from the white man's law as from being human, civilized -- for I could not approve of the act of rape."

By deliberately leaving this part out of his editorial, Knowland was attempting to create the impression that Eldridge, instead of Knowland, was the mad-dog; that he was proud of having raped women and that he would do it again at any time. This was a transparent attempt to play on the worst racist fears and prejudices of white people; it was a scurvy example of irresponsible journalism that even the white racist capitalist press would generally be ashamed of. But it is just common practice for the snake, Knowland.

Knowland does not rule Oakland, and influence much of the politics of California and the country, however, only with his newspaper. He has built up a political machine in Oakland that includes triple-jawed Assemblyman, Don Mulford, from Piedmont; vicious District Attorney, racist Frank Coakley; Oakland Municipal Court Judge, mad-man Malcolm Champin and almost all of the Oakland City Government. In the next article, we will explore how this machine runs and we will look into the records and present crimes of some of the cogs of the machine. We will also get into the record of Edgar Kaiser, leader of the rival gangland mob, challenging Knowland's mafia for control of Oakland.

PART II: (Continued Next Week)

CANNON TRIAL DEFENSE COMMITTEE

SAN FRANCISCO -- A campaign against the District Attorney's office here will be the first major political action of a new defense committee being formed by Bay Area radicals.

The campaign was sparked by the jury trial Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 of Terry Cannon and Rick Epstein who had been arrested in the Haight Street action last summer.

Cannon, a staff member of the Movement Newspapers, was one of the leaders in the 1967 Oakland Stop the Draft Week demonstration. (He and six others appear in court Nov. 7 on charges resulting from that five-day action.)

After the Haight Street bust, both Cannon and Epstein were charged with resisting arrest, inciting to riot and obscenity. Cannon had the additional charge of interfering with arrest.

Both activists had been on the scene as observers, Cannon as a reporter for the Movement. Cannon had apparently said something to a cop, who recognized him from previous encounters and busted the two of them.

Clearly the D.A. is trying to avenge the "people of California" one way or another, since the judge isn't interested in pressing all the charges.

The defense committee will encourage both the liberal and radical communities in San Francisco to put pressure on the D.A.'s office before the sentencing on Nov. 22.

CANADIAN ANTI-U.S. DEMONSTRATIONS

OTTAWA -- Demonstrations against the U.S. pig structure's aggression in Viet Nam were held by the Canadian people in the past few days of Ottawa, Toronto, Vancouver, Winnipeg, Calgary and Halifax.

In Vancouver and Winnipeg, the demonstrators burned American National stars and stripes in front of the racist U.S. Consulates.

In Toronto, some 700 demonstrators fought with armed and mounted pigs, who were called out to suppress them. Scores of the demonstrators were unreasonably arrested.

PANTHER RALLY FOR ELDRIDGE

KEEP ELDRIDGE FREE

As long as Eldridge Cleaver remains free to lead our revolutionary struggle for human freedom and black liberation, he will continue to stand as a shield between the black community and the racist pig power structure as they direct the full blast of racist repression against him. If these foul swine succeed in eliminating Brother Eldridge, our most powerful leader, it will leave the rest of our leadership exposed to the full weight of their onslaught, and they will move to quickly destroy all resistance until these murderous gangsters can completely crush the masses of black people under their boots. Brothers and Sisters, the survival of black people in this racist fascist camp controlled by the world's most depraved gangsters, murderers, thieves and freaks is a race against time. The faster we unite to defend ourselves from aggression and destroy their apparatus of oppression the longer we can survive. Eldridge Cleaver is now in a race with time that has almost run out. But with the united strength of the people of San Francisco who are victimized and exploited by the same agencies that are destroying Eldridge, we can turn the tide against these punks and make them dance to our tune. November 27 is Eldridge's deadline. Let's make it the PIGS' DEADLINE!

WHAT MUST BLACK WORKERS DO?

by R. Stevenson

Oakland . . . Locked up in prison with Huey P. Newton is your right to speak . . . to organize . . . to a free political choice and to have free political association. If this verdict stands, the gates of prison stand open for you. You, your future, and the future of your family depends on how straight you think, now.

What happened to Huey in the Oakland courts is directly related to you. The people you work for, are the people who are responsible for the harassment, the shooting and beating, and attempt to murder Huey.

That Huey devoted his life to educating and leading his black people was his indictment. That he fought for a better world for all black people condemned him. He was convicted in a court owned and operated by the Big-time gangster interests of racist Oakland and this decadent country. The crooks who own the railroads, factories, warehouses, stores, trucks, machines, the banks, the mortgages on your homes the furniture in them, and cars are the same men who are responsible for the outright frameup of Huey P. Newton. These same perverted men are the hoodlums you work for.

If they can get away with framing Huey, they will cut your wages, destroy your unions, work you for nothing and jail you on top of it. They are heartless, soulless and have a desire for nothing but more profit. They own and they control. You work when they want you to and whenever you work and whatever kind of work you do, they take more than a hogs share of the profit from your labor. This is a wrong thing. The best way to fight a wrong thing is to fight for the right thing. Huey P. Newton was telling your bosses to stop brutalizing and dehumanizing you. Now you must tell those same bosses to stop doing it to Huey. You must tell them to Free Huey or their profits will be stopped. And you must mean it. Organize . . . Now!

It is a fact 95% of the Black People in this country have had to scuffle all their lives for a living and are still not able to eke out an existence. Two million Black people are exploited at the point of production. That means they work in basic industries. That means they are a part of the organized labor movement in this country. Auto, rubber, steel and shipping are all basic industries.

But caution won't Free Huey . . .

It may seem wrong to come down on you Brothers and Sisters who have been working one place so long that you may be afraid to speak out for fear of losing your job. Or you haven't been working one place long enough to speak out. With many of you one of the reasons you have been working is because your Brothers and Sisters in the streets have been jumping up and down. That fact is that they have been helping you get some jobs and keep some good jobs.

Example: Two years ago Black men driving those little brown telephone trucks and climbing telephone poles and installing phones in your homes were few and far between. Were you to ask one of those young Negroes how he got the job, he would have told you "I studied and prepared for it." He could not relate his job to the fact that at some time or other Black People had made the Ghetto so hot that the telephone company, in order to keep up their super-profits hired him. Nor could he relate to the fact that when Huey sat down with Chairman Bobby Seale and Little Bobby Huston; drafting the Black Panther Party 10-point Program that Huey P. Newton, the Minister of Defense, had proposed for jobs for such Black Brothers.

Point 2. WE WANT FULL EMPLOYMENT FOR OUR PEOPLE.

WE BELIEVE that the federal government is responsible and obligated to give every man employment or a guaranteed income. We believe that if the white American business will not give full employment, then the mans of production should be taken from the business men and placed in the community so that the people of the community can organize and employ all of its people and give a high standard of living.

Huey was not cautious when he was out in the streets every day, fighting the Big Businessmen for jobs for our Black People. You can not be cautious now when you speak out for Brother Huey's Freedom.

If the notion seems harsh then you must ask yourself is it true:

(A) Have you ever stood up in a union meeting and spoke in the defense of Huey?

(B) Have you ever told a white worker in your job that you don't think the evidence in the trial was 'beyond a shadow of a doubt' and that you want him to help build a Workers Committee to "Free Huey P. Newton" right on the job?

(C) Have you ever told your fellow office worker that to "Free Huey" an Office Workers Defense Committee must be formed?

(D) Have you ever told the men in your gang, while working on the ships or on the docks that there ought to be a committee of "Longshoremens for Huey?" And where are the "Warehousemen and Teamsters for Huey?"

If you stand up and tell people that according to their law - the racist law they believe in - the facts, and the evidence and that Huey was not tried by a jury of his peers and that you are fighting everyday to "Free Huey" because you do not believe he is guilty, and when you know the case and the facts (forward and backward) can relate to your fellow workers.

Present them boldly . . . then you will be helping to "Free Huey", and you will be saving yourself, your soul, your manhood. You will be helping to make this dirty, rotten, racist, Capitalist country a better place to live for all Black people.

Build a "WORKERS COMMITTEE TO FREE HUEY." A Black one, A Brown one, A White one, Or one that is all colors. But build a "Free Huey Committee!"

Panthers - B.S.U. Close S.F. State College

PANTHER

Striking students demanded that Murray be reinstated as English instructor at State. Another major issue of the strike concerned the list of demands produced late last month by the BSU insisting, among other things, that beginning with the fall semester, 1969, all black and Third World students be accepted without having to go through all the changes which traditionally have kept most black and Third World students from entering college.

After a militant sit-in at the school last spring, the administration agreed although reluctantly, to admit 428 black and Third World students this fall. The BSU charged that not only has this agreement has not been met, but the funds which were supposed to have been allotted for the black student program have been cut.

Striking students also stated that because the white director of financial aid is guilty of practicing racism by discrimination against black and Third World students she should be replaced by a black or Third World group director.

Some of the tactics employed by the striking black students did not meet with the approval of some of the white students. This is understandable because the tactics used by the black students were revolutionary! But then, the strike was not initiated for the purpose of enlisting white support, but rather for the purpose of meeting the demands of black and Third World students who receive the brunt of the injustice doled out at State.

One of the tactics used by black students was the literal "taking-over" of classrooms. Black students would move into classrooms and force the teachers and other students to leave. As one observer said, "The kids don't understand that the black students have no alternative but force."

Although it is likely that the administration may escape responsibility of dealing with the list of demands presented by the black and Third World students, it is very doubtful the issue of George Murray's suspension is one that can be brushed over. It is an issue that the administration can and must deal with. In fact, if he is not reinstated soon, a group of faculty members will also strike. The local establishment, press as expected, misquoted Murray as having said the black students should bring guns to campus November 6. When this issue came up, San Francisco State President Robert Smith who had previously resisted pressure from Chancellor Glen Dunke to fire the Panther, was finally overcome by pressure and gave in to Chancellor Dunke's demand. Striking students see this incident as an obvious political move on Dunke's behalf. It is a known fact what the Black Panther Party thinks of Richard Nixon because of what Nixon is known to be. Well, Dunke is presently being considered for Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare UNDER THE NIXON ADMINISTRATION. And it doesn't even take a college student to see the connections here. The strike is growing steadily and will continue to do so. And despite the fact that not many students have gotten busted so far, the busts and the suspensions will continue and the militancy increase.

MAFIA PIGS OF ALIOTO

BY JAY WHITE
(POLITICAL EDITOR)

Shortly after pig Alioto announced the formation of a special mafia assault force within his gestapo, the pigs he selected for this special duty began to 'run amuck.' The tactical squad began to attack everyone in sight. The pigs never neglected their primary function, which is to murder and brutalize Black people, they simply expanded that function to include everyone in the city who had an income under $10,000 a year.

The pigs never neglected their primary function, which is to murder and brutalize Black people, they simply expanded that function to include everyone in the city who had an income under $10,000 a year.

The actions of these brutes in blue, naturally created a universal outcry throughout the Black colony. As the sound of impending insurrection increased in the Black community, a large group of well-meaning (but misguided) brothers rushed to make one more appeal to the "people" of the pig power structure. The BLACK PANTHER PARTY recognized the incorrectness of this tactic so we could not participate in the discussions.

However, in the interest of Black Unity, we refused to attack those who did participate. We now see clearly that the only concrete results produced by those meetings with the San Francisco Pig Commission was a promotion for the Gangster Hogs in charge of this so-called elite mafia troops. The pig in charge of the Alioto Italian squad was, to begin with, a sergeant now they've promoted him to the ranks of lieutenant.

Seeing the obvious failure of the policy of appeasement put forth by the self-appointed (sham) leaders of the Black community, we feel that this is the proper time for the Black Panther Party to state its position on the tactical three pig squad.

We relate to the mafia pigs of the tactical squad on levels:

1. We know who they really are!
2. We are against their gangster tactics!
3. We are not afraid of them.

A brief explanation of our position may be in order. It is simply this:

We are against them because we have a clear understanding of their primary hood-fashioned functions. We know that they do not patrol the Black colony for the soul purpose of protecting the white man's property. We also know that they have special Alioto-oinked orders to try to eliminate the Black Panther Party. NO statements we make can condemn these punks, sissies, and cowards half so well as their own actions.

The second and perhaps most important part of our position is We are not afraid of Alioto or his mafia-controlled pigs. Now that it has become obvious to the people of the whole world that the strategy of the gangster power structure is to meet the legitimate demands of the oppressed with brutal force, the only means available to the people to counter act this gangster force is to be free from the fear of any force.

To aid some of our vacillating brothers and sisters in assuming this position the following facts should be made clear. (Italians for Alioto, Irish for Cahill, Jews for the judges, and Anglo-Saxon for racists).

1. The pig department is recruiting all over the country; placing special emphasis on Northern White suburbs and on the southern states, and upon "veterans of the Vietnam War."

2. These Vietnamese are the same ones that have been beaten so decisively by the National Liberation Front of the democratic people of Viet Nam.

3. The N.L.F. (also called Viet Cong by the imperialists which is equivalent to calling a Black Man a Nigger) is made up primarily of 11, 12, 13, year old children and 60, 70, 80 year old adults.

4. If the Vietnamese can bear them, then most assuredly Black people can remove the racist outlaws from the face of the earth.

Given this explanation of the Black Panther Party position, we can only assume that all Black people who will take this same approach to the strategy of the mafia-infested pigs, and our aims will succeed. We, the members of the Black Panther Party, stand firmly on the principle expressed in point No. 7 of the 10 point program of the Black Panther Party namely — WE DEMAND AN IMMEDIATE END TO PIG BRUTALITY AND MURDER OF BLACK PEOPLE.

That's what's happening, and that goes for Alioto's mafia pigs on the tactical squad too.

Tell it as it happens...

1. Zionist Plan, 1919, for Jewish State in the Arab States in Palestine. Shaded areas indicate parts of the United Arab Republic, Jordan, Syria, and Lebanon coveted by the Zionist leaders.

3. U.N. Partition Plan adopted by the General Assembly in November 1947. Palestine was to be divided into an Arab State and a Jewish State linked by an economic union. International zones around Jerusalem, Bethlehem and Holy sites were to be under U.N. command.

5. Areas occupied by Israel in 1956 war. Another attempt at expansion. Area conquered was relinquished.

Israel Military Aggression

Mao Condemns U.S.-Israeli Link

Palestine was one of the Arab countries under Ottoman rule (1550-1917) and under the British Mandate (1917-1948). In 1948, Arab resistance to occupation was put down, borders drawn and Israel declared itself a state. Israel is because Palestine's right to be was canceled.

Agriculturally, the area was rich. Very old olive orchards (many square miles of them), orange orchards, date palm groves, all long term crops, are standing proof that Zionists took over a well established country.

Over 70 years ago this country, almost entirely Arab owned and Arab governed, was coveted by another people regardless of the state in existence. The Zionist conferences have been held regularly since 1897. At the first one, led by Theodore Herzl, Palestine was chosen as the most desirable place for a Jewish state.

The British Mandate written in 1917 was adopted by the League of Nations in 1920. Britain's interest in the Middle East was in keeping with its colonial interests throughout the world. Zionists had stronger interests there, however, and since 1917 many attempts have been made to parcel out Palestine. See maps. The U.N. has passed resolutions and then stood by and watched the Israelis violate one boundary after another, the most outrageous being the initial 1948 war followed by the 1956 campaign and then the June war in 1967.

UNRWA camps are modern concentration camps. There are thirty one in the occupied territories, most products of the 1967 war. The Israelis are still trying to get the U.N. to approve their annexation proposal for the territories overrun in June 1967.

The Israeli Government is an imperialist, expansionist power in Palestine. The government is at fault, not all Jews. There are many non-Jews who support what Israel is doing. Pig Johnson is one of them. The term, Israel, is like saying racist United States, and it has the same policy as the U.S. government has in the Middle East. Palestine is the area now under the rule of the Israeli Government.

PALESTINIAN COMMANDOS ATTACK ISRAELI AIRPORT

DAMASCUS (Pan African Press) -- The Palestinian Commandos dealt a heavy blow to the Israeli aggressors by blowing up on October 24, the Lydda Airport -- the biggest in Israel, U.S. imperialism's tool of aggression. The explosion set the airport ablaze for 24 hours and caused a damage estimated at more than one million U.S. dollars, according to press reports here.

The Lydda Airport is only eleven miles from Tel Aviv, the heart of the Israeli-ruled area. Palestinian Commando fighters managed to get into the airport in disguise and planted explosives equipped with timing device in the airport's power compound. The explosives touched off a great fire and gutted the four-storey central terminal building of the airport despite the fact that large numbers of firemen and troops were sent to fight the fire.

The Palestinian Commandos have recently intensified their operations in the Israeli-ruled areas and scored remarkable successes. Apart from the explosion of the Lydda airport, the Commandos launched 24 attacks in the past week in the Beisan Valley, Jerusalem Bataah Tekfa, Abulus, Oum Sedrah, the Negev Desert and other areas. They wiped out about 250 Israeli occupation troops, demolished sixteen strongpoints including five big camps, destroyed twenty-two military vehicles and a stretch of railway and damaged a factory.

Among these operations, the attacks on October 22 and 24 were most remarkable. In an attack in Abulus on October 22, "Assifa" units under "Al-Fatah" (the Palestine National Liberation Movement) destroyed a major part of an Israeli camp, an ammunition depot, a supply depot and one heavy machinegun and killed a large number of enemy troops. On October 24, "Assifa" units attacked a big Israeli camp in Oum Sedrah, set the whole camp ablaze and killed or wounded a large number of enemy troops including a high-ranking officer. On the same day, another unit of the Palestinian Commandos destroyed an Israeli ambush site, an observation post and a rest centre for servicemen, killing or wounding twenty-five enemy troops.

New Syrian Govt. Formed

DAMASCUS (Pan African Press) -- A new Syrian government was formed recently with Nouredin Atassi, Syrian head of state, as premier.

The new government consists of the premier and 22 ministers. Fifteen ministers in the outgoing government have retained their original posts in the new government. They include defense minister Hafez Assad and finance minister Muwafak Shurbagi. Mohammad Ashawi, former minister of the interior, became foreign minister, and Mohammad Rabah Al Taweel, former commander of the people's army, became minister of the interior.

Yousef Zain, former premier, Ibrahim Makhous, former Vice-premier and foreign minister, and five other former ministers are not included in the new government.

Lebanese Villages Shelled

DAMASCUS -- Israeli, U.S. imperialism's tool of aggression, made military provocations against Lebanon by shelling the villages on its border last week according to the Arab-Syrian News Agency.

A Lebanese military spokesman tober 27, Israeli aggressor troops suddenly opened mortar fire at the Lebanese Village of AlMejeediyah, damaging three houses and killing some cattle. The Lebanese armed forces immediately returned the fire.

On the night of October 28, the Israeli aggressor troops launched new provocative attacks on Jibin and Malekiyah Villages on the Lebanese border.

Napalmed Guineans On Cuban TV

HAVANA -- Guerrillas wounded in combat and five children mutilated by shrapnel and napalm in Guinea recently appeared on Cuban TV. Their appearance was arranged by OSPAAAL (Organization of Solidarity of the Peoples of Africa, Asia and Latin America).

The Guineans have been in Cuba during the past year for medical treatment and education; the children are in primary school in Havana, and the combatants are studying a variety of technical subjects. (There is a great need for technicians to work in the economic and social reconstruction of liberated areas of Guinea).

The guerillas are veterans of numerous attacks on Portuguese garrisons. Armed efforts to rid Guinea of its Portuguese colonizers have been in progress for the last six years. Portugal's attempts to keep Guinea as a colony are assisted by its easy access to U.S. weapons through NATO.

OIL STRIKE

BUENOS AIRES (Third World Press) -- 7,800 workers of the state-owned "La Plata" oil refinery, the biggest of its kind in Argentina, are still on strike in defiance of intimidation by the reactionary authorities. They have won active support from the oil workers of Comodoro Rivadavia, the most important oil field of Argentina in the south of the country.

The workers of "La Plata" oil refinery went on strike for an indefinite period on September 25 in protest against the lengthening of the working day and other measures to intensify the exploitation of the workers as announced by the management. During the course of the strike, the reactionary authorities suppressed and intimidated the workers by closing down two trade union organizations of the refinery and with large numbers of police, infantrymen, police dogs and police vans. They also sent helicopters to hover low over the refinery. The management dismissed more than 150 workers in an attempt to sabotage the strike. However, the undaunted workers have persisted in their struggle.

The Comodoro Rivadavia workers and employees of the Administrative Bureau for National Oil Fields held a 72-hour strike from October 28 to express solidarity with the "La Plata" workers' just struggle and protest against the exploitation and suppression of the workers by the Argentine authorities.

Farce of Greek Democracy

ATHENS -- In the recent Greek election farce, almost one-third of the eligible voters chose to abstain or cast "no" votes, according to Demokratia. This occurred despite the fact that the election was held in a virtual state of terror, with much pressure on the people to cast their votes in favor of the new constitution.

Of 6,500,000 eligible voters, almost 1,500,000 abstained and nearly 400,000 cast "no" votes. Those refusing to participate in the elections had passports and drivers license confiscated and were subject to three years in prison. And in some areas, a "no" vote was impossible because of the balloting arrangements.

Chinese engineers and technicians overcame difficulties and successfully carried out the survey work of the Tanzanian section of the Tanzania-Zambia Railway. The survey work started last May and is nearing completion. Photo pictures technicians working together with Tanzanian personnel.

Torture in Mexico

MEXICO CITY (Third World Press) -- Several leaders of the Mexican student strike have been apprehended and subjected to torture. It is feared that two leaders taken by the government forces on Oct. 2, Raul Alvarez Garin and Luis Cervantes Cabeza de Vaca, may now be dead.

According to a dispatch from Third World Press correspondent Julian Meza, himself a strike participant, both Raul and Luis have been subjected to simulated executions. Reports reaching outside from Military Encampment Number One, where the two were being held, said that twice daily, the prisoners faced a firing squad. They were blindfolded, with their feet tied and their hands bound to a post. Someone shouted "Fire!" but the bullets went into the air.

No Review on Debray's Sentence

LA PAZ, Bolivia -- A French lawyer, Georges-Maurice Piret, is attempting to get the International Court of Justice at The Hague to review Regis Debray's 30 year sentence.

Debray, a French journalist, was arrested and tried in Bolivia last year on charges stemming from his association with the Bolivian guerrillas and with Che Guevara, who was leading the guerrillas at the time of Debray's capture.

General Aniceto Rios, head of Bolivia's Supreme Court of Military Justice, told the court on October 6 that the case is not open to review.

Blame it on Che and Marcuse

MEXICO CITY -- Mexico's President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz has condemned Ernesto "Che" Guevara and Herbert Marcuse as "philosophers of destruction." He blamed their works for contributing to the conflict in Mexico between striking students and the government.

SURVEY WORK FOR HATHMAND U-BHAKTAPUR HIGHWAY BEGINS

KATHMANDU (Third World Press) -- Survey work for the construction of the Kathmandu-Bhaktapur highway to be built with Chinese aid was started last week.

A team composed of Chinese highway technicians and Nepalese technicians has been formed to do the surveying.

An agreement on the construction of the highway was signed on September 27, 1968, between the Chinese and Nepalese governments.

Cochinos La Espanola

MADRID -- Armed Pig repression took over on the campus of Madrid University No. 4. Dozens of cops invaded the campus and tore down anti-regime posters, and they prepared to meet any resistance with waterhoses (equipment made in racist U.S.A.) University officials had warned earlier that they would punish students who had burned a picture of Generalissimo Franco and had raided the office of a dean.

Some of many students jailed in recent Mexican revolt.

REVOLUTIONARY STRUGGLE

TIRANA -- The Albanian paper "Bashkimi" (unity) carries an article by its commentator today, warmly acclaiming the heroic struggle waged by youth and students in all capitalist controlled countries against U.S. imperialism, against exploitation, and against oppression.

A powerful storm of revolutionary struggle is now engulfing many countries in the capitalist world - the call for rebellion-revolt-resistance voiced by thousands upon thousands of students is resounding in the United States, Britain, Italy, Brazil and Japan. The struggle now being waged by the youth and students of these countries has given expression to their bitter hatred for U.S. imperialism, the racist pigstructure, the bloodthirsty enemy of mankind, for its policies of plunder and war and for the savage capitalist-imperialist rule by violence.

It is not fortuitous, it says, that a powerful student movement has developed vigorously throughout most of the world. This is an inseparable part of the revolutionary struggle waged by the people of the world to smash the shackles of deep-rooted contradictions between the U.S. pigstructure and all the oppressed peoples. The students' struggle has furnished additional proof of further degeneration and decadence of the capitalist system.

In order to get rid of the shackles of rule once and for all, the youth and students of the capitalist countries are now seeking for the only correct road which will lead their struggle to victory. While demanding economic and educational reforms, the students are working for basic political and social change. The youth of many countries are now gradually merging their revolutionary struggle with the workers' movement.

The article says that the sick, racist reactionaries all over the world are mortally afraid of the students' revolutionary struggle because they see in it the mighty waves of people's revolutionary struggle. Both waves of revolutionary struggle will inevitably sweep the enemy of the peoples away from the surface of the globe, the article concludes.

JAMAICAN STUDENT REVOLT

KINGSTON -- Last Month's student revolt at the Jamaica branch of the University of West Indies in suburban Mons and the subsequent rioting which gripped the capital city are held to be symptomatic of the rising discontent of Jamaicans with their leaders and the economic stranglehold in which themselves caught after seven years of independence from British rule.

As a matter of fact, the principal figure in the clash between the government and students -- Dr. Walter Rodney, 26-year-old U of WI alumnus from Guyana who held a lectureship at his alma mater when he was declared "persona non grata" -- believes that Jamaica is moving rapidly toward a point which place it in the same circumstances that Cuba found itself in 1959.

Dr. Rodney sees a revolution definitely in the cards for Jamaica chiefly because of the high rate of unemployment -- currently 21 per cent of the approximately two million inhabitants; the wide disparity between the "haves" and "have nots," the retention of a family-type political and governmental rule; and the power which outside interests and non-Jamaicans wield over the country.

If a central issue could be selected, it would be that of unemployment. Economically, Jamaica depends upon its tourism industry, but that in itself is not sufficient to halt the increasing rising rate of unemployment.

Second in line is the bauxite industry, controlled exclusively by such outside interests as Kaiser, Reynolds Metals and Aluminum Company of America, and Aluminium Company of Canada. Both tourism and bauxite are chiefly controlled by U. S. financing.

ARGENTINE LABORERS IN DEEP MISERY

BUENOS AIRES (Pan African Press) -- In Argentina under the rule of Latifundia and the big bourgeoisie, the broad masses of the labouring people are leading a miserable life. Their health condition is appalling, diseases are rampant and death rate is high among children.

In the provinces of Salta and Corrientes which are typical of the poverty of the country, 30 families of Latifundia and big bourgeoisie possess 50 percent of the farming and pastoral land as well as 80 percent of the provinces' total income, while the masses of the labouring people and their families only share the remaining 19 percent of the income. In Corrientes province, 1,580 children died every year on an average, while in Salta province, the death rate of children is as high as 10 percent.

As a result of the extreme poverty and poor housing conditions of the labouring people, about 1.5 million Argentine population are suffering from an endemic disease called the "sickness of Chagas". This disease is prevalent among working people, particularly those in the rural areas. The disease is spread by insects found in huts built with mud and straw. In the agricultural area of Santiago Del Estero Province, 75 percent of the 20-year-old residents are suffering from this disease. In the poverty-stricken northern provinces of Formosa, Santiago Del Estero and Chaco, one out of every three persons is suffering from Goitre, tuberculosis or the "sickness of chagas".

CHINESE PHOTO EXHIBITION

COLOMBO (Third World Press) -- A photo exhibition of the People's Republic of China was opened last week at Kandy, an upcountry city of Ceylon. It was warmly welcomed by the people there.

The workers and peasants who came from the suburban and plantation area around the city expressed high appreciation of the exhibition.

K.W. Gunawardane, Professor of History in the University of Ceylon, addressed the opening ceremony.

mony of the exhibition. He highly praised the great achievement in the fields of agriculture, industry and scientific research after the founding of the People's Republic of China under the leadership of Chairman Mao and the Chinese Communist Party.

This exhibition was sponsored by the Kandy Branch of the Ceylon-China Friendship Association. Last month, a similar exhibition was held in Ratnapura by the Ceylon-China Friendship Association Branch there.

SOUTH AFRICA JAMS RADIO TANZANIA

DAR ES SALAAM -- (NPI) -- South Africa, fearful of a black revolt against its ultra-segregationist regime, has begun intensive jamming of the powerful Radio Tanzania, Africa's "Voice of Hope" to millions of blacks living under white minority rule in Southern Africa.

Radio Tanzania daily beams English and African language programs from Dar to South Africa,

South-West Africa, Rhodesia, Mozambique and Angola from its powerful Communist China-built transmitter -- whose signals have been picked up as far away as Australia and South America. The broadcasts seek to mobilize black Africans in the freedom fight, under the joint sponsorship of the Tanzanian government and OAU's African Liberation committee.

PART II

- Continued from October 26, 1968 Edition

We say that this is not going to work; putting black people into a bag; that we are, in fact, in the midst of the second reconstruction. And they're trying to move against us again - to thwart this reconstruction as they did the former reconstruction. But this time we have something that we didn't have when the reconstruction went down before. We have organizations that are controlled by black people; and, we are armed!

Now they are able to intimidate black people through the use of terroristic organizations, the Ku Klux Klan, the Knights of the White Camellia, the local police, and other vigilante operations. After they pulled the federal troops out of the south, and destroyed the black reconstruction that was going on, they just swept all the black office holders out, there was no power in the hands of black people, to see to it their leaders were kept in power. But this time we don't have leaders in power; we have lackeys and bootlickers who are supposed to be in power, they're in office, but they don't represent black people, and we also have those who speak for black people but who are ignored by the pigs in the power structure and also by their lackeys in the black community. They are deliberately ignored and glossed over, and tried to make them feel irrelevant or not part of what's happening. But this is something that we're hip to. We're not a part of what's happening with them. And they're not a part of what's happening with us, so that there's two things happening in this country, there's an old culture being consumed by its own insanity, its own irrelevance, its own decadence, it's being consumed by its own death. It's dying, it's killed, it has killed itself, it has committed suicide, and these rinky-dinks that these pigs are going through are already the death throes of a dying, twitching carcass. So that it doesn't become us to be come overly involved with these twitchings, because we must separate ourselves from the dead and we must begin to call our own shots and exhibit a life force of our own that is independent of the twitchings of these pigs and their piggish system; that has its own rhythm, that has its own beat, that has its own time, that has its own calendar, that has its own direction, that has its own future, that has its own justification, that has its own reason for being, and doesn't have to explain it to pigs, because the pigs don't want to hear it, they don't understand it, and we don't want to hear what they have to say. So we have to start making a distinction between the people in the pigs by projecting an alternative reality that not only manifests itself in terms of sit-ins, in terms of demonstrations, but also in terms of laying foundations in new directions, showing new ways of doing things, new ways of living together, one that pulls a lot of things together that have been developing during the cultural revolution, both in the black community and the white community.

There is the spirit of communalism that's been developing, that needs to be harnessed, there's a spirit of anti-establishment that need to be harnessed, and there's a spirit of unit and direction and there's also ideological attraction, an idea to be made and put together, that will be the glue that will hold all of us together. And all this has to be done very quickly, it has to be shown this is irrelevant to the pigs' calendar. And a lot of people have to check it out, and check it out maybe wedded to a different way of doing things, but we have said that we are in the middle of a historic change. A new direction has to be struck out on, new ground has to be broken, and people will have to have the courage to take a new step in order to create new realities. And the step that the pigs are trying to beguile us into following, the steps that lead down to the pit or the pig-pen of their disgrace. And we don't heed their call, we don't follow them. We move in our own direction, and we just laugh at them, and watch them die, watch their system die, and start building places in museums for them, at the same time recognizing that it will be a struggle to the death, a struggle between life and death.

It's a struggle for life itself to prevail over the forces of death and decay, and death has never been able to be invincible over life except when death was able to make life think that it was dead already. And it's the pigs in their games that's dying; it's the pigs, and their exploitation is being defeated in Viet-Nam. It's not the people who are being defeated in Viet-Nam, because the people have never authorized that shit, the people should be just as glad to see the pigs getting kicked out of Viet-Nam as the Vietnamese people are glad. And we should not identify with their defeat, with their disgrace, or with their attempt to save face. It's their face that they're trying to save because their face is ugly, and it's been kicked, and the people have repudiated and rejected them, but the people have smiles on their faces, they have a glow, because freedom is being enlarged upon the face of the planet Earth and we should rejoice in that and let the pigs go down, to their oinking defeat, and it's not part of our life, it has nothing to do with us, except that we should be doing more to hasten that defeat by not allowing the pigs to use us, to front us off, to keep their game going.

And a part of this new reality, a part of the problems that we have to deal with, we must never lose sight of the fact that our Minister of Defense, Huey P. Newton, has been bottled up by the pigs, and taken inside of this vicious prison system. We should understand that Huey has not been taken to Disneyland, that he has not been released into a Garden of Eden, but he's been taken into the innermost chambers of the pig-pen where vicious, and cruel forms of pressure and mind-murder, soul-murder, are enacted upon people. The pigs, when they have a brother or an inmate, I don't care if he's black or white, when they get him behind those walls, they have a power to fuck with him, do things to him, and to make life uncomfortable for him, because they want vengeance. They want to inflict pain upon those who rebel against their system, and who didn't go along with their program. They want to crush them into accepting their program, into relating to their program, once they're out on parole. They want to destroy your very ability to resist their pressure. They tell you that you have no respect for authority, when in fact you have no respect for their power. They have no authority, because what they're doing to people has not been authorized by the people, and authority can only come from those who authorize, it can only come from the author of a situation, and the people are the authors of this country, there's no other legal foundation for any authority in this country, except that which has been authorized by the people. And when the pigs use subterfuge, and political chicanery to manipulate the people and manipulate power, so that they can force people to do what they want them to do, once the people understand this, they're not bound, they're not duty-bound to continue to go along with this affront to their sovereignty. They're not forced to do this, there's no law that the pigs can oink to the legislature that will force the people to submit to it, or to acknowledge it, or to accept it as legitimate because it went through certain legislative changes.

We say that the oppressors have no rights which the oppressed are bound to respect. And once we find these pigs out, once we see what they're doing, it's up to us to turn away from that, to reject that, to rule the pigs out of order, to declare them unfit for any public trust, and then to move to remove them from positions through which they can undermine the welfare, the pursuit of happiness of the people. And this has been clearly demonstrated in the case of various circles of pigs it's been demonstrated for those who checked the demonstration out, for those who have been dealing with and digging this economic system as a whole, it's been demonstrated that the pigs are out of order economically, they're out of order politically, they're out of order socially. In a detailed analysis, we find that the police department is out of order, we find that these demagogic politicians are out of order and that the avaricious businessmen are out of order so the people are perfectly justified in putting them back in order, into an order that will not be obstructive to the destiny of the people. So that we have to continue talking about this, we have to move on this, and we have to move on this, and we have to, most of all, dissociate ourselves from it, in the eyes of the people here domestically who are confused, we need a clear line of demarcation between the people and the pigs, between the enemy and the people, and also, internationally, so that our allies internationally can distinguish between the people and the pigs in this country and also relate by abstraction, our experience, to their own process of distinguishing themselves from their own local pigs. So that I say that a new direction is called for in order to get this done. It's in the air, it's ready, it moves at the speed of light. It takes only a few vanguard steps by those who are moving to consolidate all of this and it has to be consolidated before the pigs in the power structure consolidate their power. And we have to be able to move within the contradictions, within the system. We have to be able to understand that it's perfectly legitimate strategy on the one hand to call as we did with our Black Panther/Yippie statement to call for a boycott of the elections, to call for a manifestation of the feelings and the aims of the people at the polls in various inspired ways. It's legitimate to call for that for those who are not going to vote anyway, those who haven't registered to vote, those who will not be given a ballot, those who cannot express or manifest their political position in any other way. At the same time, it's legitimate to employ a tactic of relating to the campaign of non-establishment candidates.

We seek to make assaults upon the system, boycotting the channels that they have set up for us. There's one form of an assault, and also injecting into their channels forces and candidates that they cannot tolerate is an assault upon their system. So that it's a contradiction that we should be able, that we should be facile enough, to relate to, and not feel morally guilty or pushed out of order because we advocate two different tactics in two different situations. So that we move in terms of our pipe dream with the Yippies on the national political level, in terms of these Establishment candidates and when we have candidates who cannot even begin to relate to a victory at the polls, but in terms of the candidacy of Huey P. Newton for the 17th Assembly District in Alameda County, for Huey P. Newton, 7th Congressional District, for Kathleen Cleaver, for the 18th Assembly District in the city of San Francisco, we advocate that the people who are going to vote anyway do not cast a vote for the enemies of the people but cast a vote for the enemies of the power structure. Cast a vote for the revolutionary candidates, the Black Panther Party candidates running on the Peace and Freedom Party ticket. For Chairman Bobby Seale, for Minister of Defense Huey P. Newton, and for our Communications Secretary, Kathleen Cleaver. And by doing this, we will ensure sharp expression and we are in a position to inflict pain. In Kathleen's situation, we can inflict pain upon the parasite class, the black bourgeoisie within the black colony, because we can in fact bring about the defeat of this bootlicker Willy Brown. And he has ignored the issues, he has refused to speak out for the people at critical moments, he has refused to do anything except dance to the music of Hubert Humphrey. So we must ensure that he is not rewarded for this lackeyism, and for this bootlicking, but that he goes down to the ignominious defeat at the polls. And this could be done by mobilizing support behind a Black Panther candidate and splitting the vote away from Willy Brown because the people are mad at Willy Brown and they will reject him at the polls, he'll be trounced by an outright racist pig Republican, and it makes no difference to us, we have gained just as much representation out of these racist pigs as we're getting out of this bootlicking Willy Brown. But he runs his mouth at certain times and gives the appearance of speaking out for black people, but in terms of getting something out of that legislature, or in terms of disrupting that legislature, if he doesn't get what black people want, or in terms of denouncing that legislature, Willy Brown has not come through. So we cannot relate to his theatrics, we cannot relate to his buffoonery when he tries to convince black people that he is their representative. He is a representative of the black middle class, and only the scab of parasites and functionaries for the white power structure within the black community. He did not represent all of the black middle class, but he has members of the black middle class and of the black masses pretending or believing that he represents them. So we have to disillusion him and show the people that they can inflict pain upon him and get him out of the way, and then the line of demarcation between the people and these racist pigs who will win that seat, who should have that seat will be very clear and we do not want to muddy up the machinery by having representatives from the black colony entering into the political machinery of the white mother country and functioning as though he was just another member of that machinery.

When a member, a representative from the black colony enters into the political machinery of the white mother country, he can only, and he must only enter into that political machinery in order to manifest the contradiction between the conditions, the situation of black people and that political machinery. He can not go there trying to push through wars on poverty and petty wars on welfare in order to save black people. We need a war on the rich pushed through these assemblies, these legislatures, through these congresses and through these courts. Now, we cannot get excited or uptight or mad because Cecil Poole is not confirmed as a judge on the United States court, federal jurisdiction, we have noticed that these black bourgeois have been uptight about that, they've been going through all kind of changes

HUEY ON ANARCHISTS AND INDIVIDUALISTS AS RELATED TO REVOLUTIONARY STRUGGLE AND THE BLACK LIBERATION MOVEMENT

We should understand there is a difference between the rebellion of the anarchists and the black revolution or liberation of the black colony.

This is a class society; it always has been. This reactionary class society places its limitations on individuals, not just in terms of their occupation, but also in terms of expression, being mobile, and being free to really be creative and do anything they want to do.

The class-society prevents this. This is true not only for the mass of the lower or subjugated class. It is also true within the ruling class, the master class. That class also limits the freedom of the individual souls of the people which comprise it.

In the upper class, the individuals always try to free themselves from these limitations — the artificial limitations placed upon him through external sources: namely, some hierarchy that goes by the name of State or Government Administration.

In America, we have not only a class society, we also have a caste system, and black people are fitted into the lowest caste. They have no mobility for going up the class ladder. They have no privilege to enter into the ruling structure at all.

Within the ruling class they're objecting (resisting?), because the people have found that they're completely subjected to the will of the administration and to the manipulators. This brings about a very strange phenomenon in American. That is, many of the rebelling white students and the anarchists are the offspring of this master class. Surely most of them have a middle class background and some even upper class. They see the limitations imposed upon them and now they're striving, as all men strive, to get freedom of the soul, Freedom of expression, and freedom of movement, without the artificial limitations from antique values.

Blacks and colored people in America, confined within the caste system, are discriminated against against as a whole group of people. It's not a question of individual freedom, as it is for the children of the upper classes. We haven't reached the point of trying to free ourselves individually because we're dominated and oppressed as a group of people.

Part of the people of this country — which is a great part — part of the youth themselves. But they're not doing this as a group of people. Because as a group they're already free to an extent. Their problem is not a group problem really, because they can easily integrate into the structure. Potentially they're mobile enough to do this: They're the educated ones, the "future of the country," and so forth. They can easily gain a certain amount of power over the society by integrating into the rulership circle.

But they see that even within the rulership circle there are still antique values that have no respect for individualism. They find themselves subjugated. No matter what class they're in they find themselves subjugated because of the nature of this class society. So their fight is to free the individual's soul.

This brings about another problem. They're being ruled by an alien source that has nothing to do with freedom of individual expression. They want to escape this, to overturn this, but they see no need to form a structure or a real, disciplined vanguard movement. Their reasoning is that by setting up a disciplined organization they feel they'd be replacing the old structure with other limitations. They fear they'd be setting themselves up as directing the people, therefore limiting the individual again.

But what they don't understand, or it seems that they don't understand, is as long as the military-industrial complex exists, then the structure of oppression of the individual continue. An individual would be threatened even if he were to achieve his freedom he's seeking. He'll be threatened because there will be an organized lower group there ready to strip him of his individual freedom at any moment.

In Cuba they had a revolution, they had a vanguard group that was a disciplined group, and they realized that the state won't disappear until imperialism is completely wiped out, structurally and also philosophically, or the bourgeois thoughts won't be changed. Once imperialism is wiped out they can have their communist state and the state or territorial boundaries will disappear.

In this country the anarchists seem to feel that if they just express themselves individually and tend to ignore the limitations imposed on them, without leadership and without discipline they can oppose the very disciplined, organized, reactionary state. This is not true. They will be oppressed as long as imperialism exists. You cannot oppose a system such as this is to oppose it with organization that's even more extremely disciplined and dedicated than the structure you're opposing.

I can understand the anarchists wanting to go directly from state to non-state, but historically it's incorrect. As far as I'm concerned, thinking of the recent French Revolution, the reason the French uprising failed is simply because the anarchists in the country, who by definition had no organization, had no people that were reliable enough as far as the mass of the people were concerned, to replace DeGaulle and his government. Now, the people were skeptical about the Communist Party and the other progressive parties, because they didn't side with the people of medium living. They lagged behind the people, so they lost the respect of the people, and the people looked for guidance from the students and anarchists.

But the anarchists were unable to offer a structural program to replace the DeGaulle government. So the people were forced to turn back to DeGaulle. It wasn't the people's fault; it was Cohn-Bendit's fault and all the other anarchists who felt they could just go from state to non-state.

In this country — getting back home to North America now — we can side with the student radicals. We would try to encourage them and persuade them to organize and wield a sharp cutting tool.

In order to do this they would have to be disciplined and they would have at least some philosophical replacement of the system. This is not to say that this itself will free the individual. The individual will not be free until the state does not exist at all, and I think — I don't want to be redundant — this cannot be replaced by the anarchists right away.

As far as the blacks are concerned, we are not hung up on attempting to actualize or express our individual souls because we're oppressed not as individuals but as a whole group of people. Our evolution, or our liberation, is based first on freeing our group. Freeing our group to a certain degree. After we gain our liberation, our people will not be free. I can imagine in the future that the blacks will rebel against the organized leadership that the blacks themselves have structured. They will see there will be limitations, limiting their individual selves, and limiting their freedom of expression. But this is only after they become free as a group.

This is what makes our group different from the white anarchist — besides he views his group as already free. Now he's striving for freedom of his individual self. This is the big difference. We're not fighting for freedom of our individual selves, we're fighting for a group freedom. In the future there will probably be a rebellion where blacks will say, "Well, our leadership is limiting our freedom, because of the rigid discipline. Now that we've gained our freedom, we will strive for our individualistic freedom that has nothing to do with organized group or state." And the group will be disorganized, and it should be.

But at this point we stress discipline, we stress organization, we do not stress psychedelic drugs, and all the other things that have to do with just the individual expansion of the mind. We're trying to gain true liberation of a group of people, and this makes our struggle somewhat different from the whites.

Now, how is it the same. It's the same in the fact that both of us are striving for freedom. They will not be free — the white anarchists will not be free — until we are free so that makes our fight their fight really. The imperialists and the bourgeois bureaucratic capitalistic system would not give them individual freedom while they keep a whole group of people based upon race color oppressed as a group. How can they expect to get individual freedom when the imperialists oppress whole nations of people? Until we gain liberation as a group they won't gain any liberation as an individual person. So this makes our fight the same, and we must keep this in perspective, and always see the similarities and the differences in it.

There's a tremendous amount of difference in it, and there's a due amount of similarities between the two cases. Both are striving for freedom, and both are striving for liberation of their people, only one is advanced to a degree higher than the other. The anarchists are advanced a step higher, but only in theory. As far as actuality of conditions, they shouldn't be advanced higher because they should see the necessity of wiping out the imperialistic structure by organized groups just as we must be organized.

"THE NECESSITY OF A BLACK REVOLUTION"

THE BLACK PANTHER SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1968 Page 13

BY
GEORGE MURRAY
MINISTER OF EDUCATION
BLACK PANTHER PARTY

SPEECH FROM
FRESNO STATE COLLEGE

This is our second venture into San Joaquin Valley. The last time we were here we were picking cotton in the cotton fields. So this place reminds us of the truth, of the truth about the conditions of black people in the United States. Their condition is one of slavery and the Fresno area just ratifies that slave condition even more. And the fact that black people are 20th Century slaves is just as real as the fact that Lyndon Baines Johnson is a racist, cracker punk. But we didn't just come here today to call the racist a name. What we wanted to do was have a kind of in-depth conversation about the fascism that is running around the United States at an insane pace, to talk about the fundamental position that college students find themselves in, in 1968, and talk about the responsibility of students to change the slave conditions that we are in.

Recently we were talking to some people and told them that the American flag is a piece of toilet paper and that they should burn it to a crisp because it's a lie. And we said also that all American institutions represent a lie. The reason that this is so is because there is no institution in the United States, no American (and when you define the word "American" you would have to be talking about what's white, Anglo-Saxon, Protestant, Catholic, or Jewish). When you're talking about Americanism, then you're talking about a lie, because America represents slavery; America represents hell; America's the grave. America is the present. And American flags should be flushed down the toilet stool and burned up in sewage, or blown up for several reasons, for a whole lot of reasons. One of the reasons would be the mass extermination of peoples of color by Americans throughout the world. And if you doubt that the American flag is a lie, how in the world is it in 1968 you can have some racist politicians, three, running around the United States dastardly and criminally saying that the issues confronting all the people in the United States, the main issue, is the issue of crime in the streets, the issue of unsafe streets, the issue of Americans not being able to walk the streets and be safe. And when politicians say that they are not talking about Chicanos; they are not talking about descendants of African slaves; they are not talking about Chinese. They are ejecting even more racism into the mainstream of American murder because they are merely talking about white people, and only a certain segment of the white population, that is the segment that they can whip up into a fever of mass hysteria. Only the segment that will vote an insane, a buffoon like Reagan or Wallace or Nixon into office. So you find these people saying that today the issue is crime in the street and law and order, and that they are to stop criminals and rioters and looters destroying the basic fabric of Americanism. And we said that the basic fabric of Americanism is a lie. And America is the Father of liars, the Father of prostitutes, the Father of the murderers of mankind. What is our proof? You get a man like Humphrey saying that the issue is crime in the streets. The issue is not crime in the streets. The issue is crime in the White House, homosexuality in the White House, and crime in all the downtown City Halls and all the County Court Houses, and all the Jail Houses and all the Penitentiaries. A brother down there mentioned Oakland. Oakland is on the list, but you're not to miss every City Hall in the United States and every State Capitol. And there is no free territory here. You're either a slave in the United States or a free white person. And even the white people that feel that they are free are not free, because everything they do is feed to them through the television and the newspapers to the people right here, and all kinds of lies, toilet paper full of lies, full of the bullshit coming from Reagan's mouth or Rafferty's mouth or Johnson's mouth.

What do we mean when we say that all American institutions are a lie? We mean that in the name of the United States Hubert Humphrey said that the war in Viet Nam is essential. And what he's telling you is an absurd lie, because the only thing happening in Viet Nam is the total wiping out of a race of people, the total destruction of a segment of mankind that is black, brown, red, or yellow, the same thing that has happened here in the United States ever since the United States was founded.

Every group of people that have been wiped out by the Americans have been people of color. They started with the Africans and got us here and wiped out all the Indians. And the Cavalrymen passed out blankets infested with smallpox and diphtheria because they couldn't shoot Indians fast enough. And if you doubt that, you can read a book called AMERICAN CULTURAL PATTERNS by a cat named Charles Wright. He explains how white Americans poisoned Indians when they couldn't kill them fast enough to take over their property. So everything that we've learned in American history is a lie.

When we start discussing concepts like "Manifest Destiny," you've heard of the famous saying, "Go West Young Man, Go West" and in colonial times they pushed further and further West. And what a white student said in one of the classes that I instructed at San Francisco State, he had the gall, the gumption and nerve to say one day in class that "Manifest Destiny" meant the survival of the fittest. That was nothing but a preacherment of White Supremacy because what he was saying was this: that the white people who wiped out the Indians did it because they were fit to survive, because they were the strongest. It did not even have anything to do with strength. It had something to do with genocide and the mass extermination of one race of people by another group of folks. So that all American institutions are a lie.

The Constitution is a lie. And the reason that it is a lie, the reason that the Declaration of Independence is a lie is because the same men who said that all men are born with certain inalienable rights and that among these are the rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, the same racist dogs who had plantations full of slaves. Thomas Jefferson had a plantation full of slaves and he's talking about the "Rights of Man."

And then in the American history classes they teach you about the Revolutionary War of 1776. And they teach you that it's patriotic to salute the American flag and say insanities like "with liberty and justice for all" in the same year that Martin Luther King was assassinated, and the bullet that hit him, hit his head so hard that it knocked off both of his shoes and blew out the back of his head and exploded in his brain, you see. The same year that that happened people were still saluting that piece of toilet paper called the American flag. And the same years that 400-500 black people were wiped out in ghettos like Detroit and Newark and Los Angeles, black children and white people in school were taught to salute those murderous stars and stripes, all of the insanities that that stands for.

So we go back to the American Revolution. We're going to compare the rioters and looters of today with the criminals, the rioters and looters in the Boston Tea Party. Everybody remembers that. White folks said that they were tired of taxation without representation. All of us were taught that in elementary school. White people were tired of taxation without representation. And the same thing has happened today. The same thing is happening today. All of the people of the Third World of Africa, Asia and Latin America are tired, slaveously tired, of being taxed without having any representatives in the political arena, without having any representatives in the court houses, without having any representatives in the college presidents' offices, without being college presidents, without being president of this cracker jack country, without being the major of a city, without being in control of the school board, without controlling and determining the destiny of their own community. Taxation without representation.

So all the people of Africa, Asia and Latin America are bursting over with the desire to become free, and are picking up guns to do so. And because they do that, because the Black Panther Party began in the city of Oakland, California and our leader, Huey P. Newton said, "The racist dog police must withdraw from the black community or suffer the armed wrath of the community", because he said that and proved it with guns and force, you see what I mean, he was sent to the penitentiary for 2 to 15 years. And tens and twenties and thirties and hundreds of black people have been murdered, you see, in the western part of the United States by refusing to pick cotton and refusing to say, "Yes Sir" to a slave boss, or like the brother in Washington D.C. two weeks ago who was murdered by a white police because he refused to accept a ticket for jaywalking. So all American institutions is a lie. The brother was about six blocks from the so-called White House when he was shot down like a dog in the street. And Lyndon Baines Johnson, that racist cracker, was in the White House at the same time that the brother was murdered six blocks from there, talking about "The issue in America today is one of crime in the street".

So you get people deceiving college students, deceiving the general populace in the United States with fabrications of lies, sheets and sheets of lies merely to manipulate everybody, to manipulate you to the extent that you'll die for some non-freedom in Viet Nam, that you'll die for some non-freedom throughout Asia, Africa, and Latin America fighting people of color who have never victimized any American persons.

So in the Boston Tea Party white folks said that they were tired of taxation without representation. And they got some guns together. And they got some gasoline, some molotov cocktails. And they painted war paint on their faces. And they went down to the Bay of Massachusetts and they burned up every ship and every factory in the harbor and threw all the tea overboard. They were rioting. They were looting. That was "crime in the street". But nobody here would condemn them for their revolution. And all of you here that are white are enjoying all of the fruits of American democracy. That is, all of you here who are white who are on the side of the power structure. There is no black person who is enjoying the fruits. Even the tom is under intense danger both ways, from the community and from the racists. So that every American institution is a lie.

And what we need here in the United States, what we must have, is an old fashion criminal, black nigger, red Indian, yellow Chinese, pro-White revolution. Because what we stand for in the Black Panther Party is UNCOMPROMISING FACT. We know that the only thing that can change the condition of black people here in the United States, or the peoples of the Third World, anywhere in the world, the only thing that's going to get us what we need and want, we demand that we have the right to determine the destiny of our own community; we demand freedom for all black people, for all black political prisoners, we demand that all black people be exempted from the draft; we demand that all people be tried by a jury of their own peers. And because we demand these things we understand that the only way that we're going to get them, the same way white folks got theirs in 1776, the same way black people in Cuba got theirs in the 1950's...that is with guns and force. We maintain that political power comes through the barrel of a gun. If you doubt it, ask Lyndon Johnson. He talks about law and order, and he talks about non-violence, you see. And when the brothers were revolting in Detroit, he had the nerve to say, "You've got to remember one thing. You're only 10% of the population, and if you act up the other 90% is going to wipe you out." And he was using some tricknology, telling us another lie.

Because that's not even the way that it's happening in the world. There are more Chinese in the world than there are all the white people in the world put together. There are 800,000,000 Chinese. And that's a fact that all the white folks in this audience have got to deal with. There are more than 800,000,000 Chinese. And then you have to consider all of the more than 600,000,000 Indians. All of the Vietnamese and Koreans and the Japanese, all of the Africans and all of the people that are black, brown, red and yellow in Australia, in Latin America, in the islands in the Pacific and the Atlantic Ocean. And when you realize that, there is no such thing as a black minority, or a brown minority, or a yellow minority, or a red minority.

The people of the Third World are in the majority of the population. More than 87% of the population of the world is black, brown, red, or yellow. That's an undeniable fact. And all the white folks who wish to continue White Supremacy are going to get sent to Mars or the Moon or to heaven or to hell or wherever 'cause there is no room on Earth for White Supremacy any longer! But there are some die-hards, that is, they say they are die-hards. But actually you can look at all the people that have been assassinated and you know that it is not hard to die. But anyway, there are some people who feel that they are die-hards. And the proof of that is what is happening in Viet Nam today. The Vietnamese said, we are going to determine the destiny of our own country, of our own community. But Johnson said to black people while the Vietnamese brothers were getting themselves together, you Negroes in the United States behave yourselves and be non-violent and follow Martin Luther King, and later on in the 20th century we can give you some civil rights. And he promised the sisters and brothers who worked on his plantation in Georgia, he told them that "I'm going to continue to give you some second-hand clothes as long as you don't ask for the right to vote". And he even sent some television men down to his plantation. And he told the brothers, "Negra, if you say that you are not being treated right on this here plantation, I'll gon take your second-hand shoes from you." So the brothers said they was enjoying picking cotton in the hot sun.

So that's how you get the myth of the "happy slave". There is no slave that is about that, but we do not relate to a black lawyer getting himself intertwined in the machinery of the mother country and posing as a friend of black people and dispensing mother country justice to members of the colony. Later for the mother country justice, we need Cecil Poole to resign all of his official positions, reject and repudiate the pig system of justice which is injustice for black people, and return to the black community and help black people to establish their own courts. A court system of their own, if this pig Thurgood Marshall will resign from the court, the Supreme Court of the white mother country, we will make him Chief Justice of the Supreme Court in the black colony for black people, and he can have Cecil Poole and all these other jackanapes who now sit on the benches of the mother country, faking black people out of positions. If they come back to the black colony, they can function, they can draw up codes of justice for black people that relate and reflect their situation, their conditions of oppression by the laws passed by Babylonians, by court decisions rendered by Babylonians, by pigs issuing out oppressive edicts that are designed to contain and control black people. So that we're going to have to deal with this shit, and make clear lines of demarcation and no more of this deception by scabs of the black middle class, and later for these appointments that these boot-lickers are seeking, reject these appointments when they are offered, and accept appointments given by black people and, as Huey P. Newton always says, "You become subservient to the people." We need them to become subservient to black people and to realize that they're only servants of the people and that they must be that, they can only be that, that we will not tolerate them being lackeys for the pigs in the name of black people when we need revolutionaries in every walk of life in every area in order to do what history has laid before us. And we're going to do it, whether these lackeys like it or not, whether these pigs like it or not, there's a crisis for the pigs in power structure, but there's not a crisis for the people.

People are rejoicing because they are united, they're happy, they're enthusiastic, and they're moving forward, and the pigs are caving in going crazy, and falling, and it's a beautiful day, the world has never looked better, we should be optimistic, we should smile, we should be enthusiastic and never lose sight of the fact that we're going to have to deal with these pigs in an ultimate and on a for-real level, because they're not going to take no for an answer, like every other dead and dying ruling class, they haven't learned anything, and it's just too expensive and painful for them to admit that they're wrong, or for them to admit defeat. But we will make them admit this, we will make them take a step backwards, and we will unite the people, and we will deal with the cultural revolution, we will build a bridge between the revolutionaries in the white community and in the black community through the process of our coalition and we will have a new day in Babylon.

無權決定自己的前途，即

十大信條

一，我們認為黑人若無權決定自己的前途，即無權決定自己的前途，即

九，我們要求黑人陪審員審判黑人案件。
十，我們要求土地、房屋、教育、衣着、麵包、和平。

九，我們認為美國憲法修正案第十四條應切實執行，該項條款謂陪審員與疑犯有同等社會經濟宗教歷史及種族背景。
十，我們認為人類均有自由平等的基本權利，如政府破壞了人民的基本權利，人民有權改變或推翻之。

其要在他們的黨綱中，列出來的要求和信條不外反映出歷年來黑人社會的苦悶和不满。其中如房屋職業等要求，也不算不合理，問題是他們高喊着要武力爭取，而使美國一般人民反感而已。

六，我們要求所有黑人免受兵役。
七，我們要求警察立即停止迫害黑人。
八，我們要求釋放獄中黑人。

七，我們認為黑人組織自衛隊伍，可終止警察對黑人之虐待。
八，我們認為為獄中黑人應予釋放，因為大多數未有公平機會上訴。
九，我們認為美國憲法修正案第十四條應切實執行，該項條款謂陪審員與疑犯有同等社會經濟宗教歷史及種族背景。
十，我們認為人類均有自由平等的基本權利，如政府破壞了人民的基本權利，人民有權改變或推翻之。

黑豹黨 有何要求？

黑豹黨之興起，使各地警局十分頭痛。原因在黑豹黨在其黨綱中開宗明義地指出警察為其敵人。聯邦政府為其競爭目標。

四，我們要求有像樣適合人類居住的房屋。
五，我們要求學校教育黑人歷史，使黑人了解他們在現社會所起的作用，及揭發美國社會腐化的本性。
六，我們要求所有黑人免受兵役。
七，我們要求警察立即停止迫害黑人。
八，我們要求釋放獄中黑人。

四，我們認為若白人地主不賣房屋地產與黑人，政府應協助黑人組織「社建」民居。
五，我們認為教育制度，我們認為為黑人不應被強迫去為一個不保障黑人生活的政府打仗。

無法獲得自由。
二，我們認為聯邦政府有責任為人人尋職及給予有保證之入息。
三，我們認為種族歧見深重之聯邦政府應給黑人賠償費，以補償過去對黑人之虐待。
四，我們認為若白人地主不賣房屋地產與黑人，政府應協助黑人組織「社建」民居。
五，我們認為教育制度，我們認為為黑人不應被強迫去為一個不保障黑人生活的政府打仗。

BOBBY SEALE

The Black Panther Party is running candidates -- Huey P. Newton for Congress, 7th Congressional Dist; myself, Bobby Seale, 17th Assembly Dist; and Sister Kathleen Cleaver, 18th Assembly Dist. in San Francisco. Of course we don't have the intricate machinery -- and mainly to build this kind of machinery, we need money. And money wasn't available to do many of the things that other candidates do when they're going forth to fool the people into believing that they're really doing something for them and these political candidates are not.

Huey P. Newton, our Minister of Defense, running in the 7th Cong. Dist. received some 12,000 votes. And we're just like anybody else; we realize that downtown they took away some votes. In fact they didn't count all of Huey's vote. They understood the political significance -- those in the power structure downtown -- of taking votes away from Huey P. Newton. That is, not counting the votes -- gerrymandering the votes. We feel that he could have at least received 25,000 to 50,000 votes. And a lot of people in the black community who supported the Black Panther Party and have supported it and understand what the power structure tried to do to Huey -- and in fact did to Huey -- they just gerrymandered the votes -- the power structure downtown -- and did not in fact count all the votes only gave a minimal margin of 8% of the votes to brother Huey.

I received myself 8 - 9% of the same votes.

But the votes are not altogether what the Black Panther Party is about of course. This is only one area, as brother Huey P. Newton so eloquently puts, that the Black Panther Party works in -- to educate the people more about the political arena and how it perpetuates racism and exploitation of the peoples throughout the community.

Sister Kathleen Cleaver received somewhere in the area of 7% of the vote. And she and myself, and of course Huey P. Newton were there and far as were concerned. In summarization, a lot of the votes were definitely gerrymandered. And you have heard Republicans arguing with Democrats, or Democrats arguing with Republicans about how they miscount the votes. And we know we don't have control of the City Clerk's office or the County Clerk's offices as a whole, and we're saying we're tired of it and that's not the end of it.

The Black Panther Party has the youth throughout the San Francisco, Oakland, Bay Area checking the Party out and digging the Party and on the Party's in terms of how the Party goes forth to educate the people about the true revolutionary struggle that's being waged that the Black Panther Party is the vanguard of here. But the older people, we would like to say to you, that your votes were miscounted and the next elections that are going to be coming up in April, for Oakland and Berkeley and May for Richmond, California and other things that have been going on in San Francisco local areas -- we're very concerned about community problems and we're going to relate more to community problems. And we're going to relate more to the election process.

We will have a proposition on the ballot in Richmond and Berkeley for community control of police -- that's decentralization of the police depts. where the people themselves throughout the communities -- both black and white -- control the police depts. The black community can have control of the police dept. and begin to stop battles in Berkeley, and shoot-outs in west Oakland because we do not like being attacked; and we will defend ourselves with guns when attacked by the racist, pig power structure. And they will probably definitely attack us just because we want community control of police in the communities to put power in the people's hand over the police department. And I'm sure that most people understand the necessity of this with respect to the way the police treated people in Chicago; with respect to the way police have treated white people in the Berkeley University Community; with respect to the way police have treated black people, not only in Oakland, and San Francisco, and Los Angeles, but how police have treated black people all across this nation. It is time people understand the necessity of taking power away from the police, so the April ballots will have a significant thing on them concerning community control of police where people themselves can go forth. And the Black Panther Party intends, whether or not the power structure digs it or not; whether Nafioso Mussolini Alioto likes it or not, we intend to put power in the people's hands. Whether Anglo-Saxon Ronald Reagan likes it or not, we intend to put power in the people's hands. Whether Irish Chief Cahill and other police depts. who are predominantly Irish throughout the nation likes it or not, we intend to put power in the people's hands and remove them from the power structure by hook or by crook. And the votes of the people are very important, and we hope that we can educate people to understand the necessity of voting out these tyrants in the power structure, voting out these atrocious, vicious dogs in the power structure who are really not serving the people but are really serving pigs. In other words to sum this up concerning community control of police, we're saying when they say "government of the people, by the people, and for the people" the only thing that is really happening in fact is government of the pigs, by the pigs and for the pigs. And that means that Alioto, Ronald Reagan, Max Raffertys, and Cranstons, etc. all down the line, are nothing but a bunch of hogs and pigs in the power structure controlling and not really answering the desires of the people.

The Black Panther Party is going to go forth to make sure the desires and needs of the people are answered, we're going to educate, we're going to perpetuate an understanding of why Huey Newton has to be set free, why we have to have community control of police. And the Black Panther Party is going to go forth with its other programs whether we win an election or not. As we always said, before the election, we're going to go forth with programs for the people so the people can have power and control, so the people can be served by some kind of government representation. And when we start talking about, and when we start instituting free health clinics in the black community from the Ministry of Health of the Black Panther Party; start talking about breakfasts in the morning for the children at the churches -- we're going to talk to these church members and preachers and let them know that their facilities are not used in the early morning time and that all the Welfare children can begin to be fed in the morning before they go to school. We're going to show up the Board of Education for what it is, Supervisors in Alameda County, Councilmen in Alameda County, Mayors, especially in Oakland who are coming up on the April ballot will be contested by members of the Black Panther Party, by candidates for the Black Panther Party who are not going to jive. And if the power structure wants to attack us because we intend to remove them from office, to overthrow them, to move them out from those offices by either voting power or by gun power, we intend to do it; and we will defend ourselves against the racist power structure.

ELECTION NIGHT ARRESTS

NEW YORK -- Police arrested 100 New Yorkers who looked as though they might intend to participate in a demonstration called for 8 p.m. on Election Night at Nixon's headquarters -- but the arrests were made in the two hours preceding the planned action. Charges ranged from disorderly conduct to inciting to riot.

Many of those arrested were left-overs from abortive demonstrations held earlier in the day at Time Square and Rockefeller Center. Cops dispersed a crowd of 700 at those demonstrations before they could really get underway and gain momentum.

Columbia University students seized an auditorium in the university's Ferris Booth Hall student center on Election Eve, insuring that it would be available for use as a Movement Center for Election day activities.

Two hundred students from the City College of New York were arrested on the day following elections. For nearly a week, they had been providing sanctuary in Finley Hall ballroom for an AWOL soldier. Though attempts to arrest the soldier were expected, the students had mistakenly assumed that the City College administration would not call the cops to clear students from the sanctuary.

CHI NEWSMEN GET TOGETHER

CHICAGO -- In the wake of their confrontation with their editors and with Mayor Daley and his pigs, radical newsmen from the racist establishment press in Chicago have gotten together to form the (liberal) Association of Working Press and to publish a new critical newsletter, the Chicago Journalism Review.

According to their own report of their formation, the newsmen were reacting to the repression in their offices:

"Every newsmen knows that within any racist shop there are shibboleths and taboos; if the fabled Hearst sh-- list no longer exists physically, the known attitudes of pig editors and publishers shape & reshape stories from initial assignment to final placement in the racist paper or broadcast."

The Review, published monthly, contains radical & progressive reports on news that is generally omitted from the big papers, as well as criticism of the content of news coverage.

1968: "PIG YEAR"

NEW YORK "1969 - Year of the Pig" (relating to the Black Panther Party's 1968: Pig Year) is the theme of a multicolor calendar with original drawings and notations of revolutionary movement dates. The calendar is being offered for sale of Hallucinations, Inc., a new enterprise being started by white radical Abbie Hoffman and his friends to distribute buttons, posters, books and records.

Tears of Joy

Tear of Joy
Tear of Horror
What makes these tears so distinct?
Die today
Die tomorrow
What makes life so distinct,
Some men will be triumphant
Other men will die
There to fight,
There to struggle,
The Revolution and total Destruction of this racist decadent imperialist American Society is my battle cry.

NATIONAL STUDENT REVOLT

Pan African Press Release

BIGOTRY EYED

NEW YORK -- (NPI) -- The controversy over the decentralized Ocean Hill-Brownsville school district has stirred up so much anti-Semitic and anti-Negro hatred that Mayor John Lindsay has established a commission to look into the bigotry that plagues the city. "There have been a lot of charges and counter-charges, anti-white, anti-black, anti-Semitic," said the mayor. "This is a very unhealthy thing for our city." Judge Bernard Botela, who will resign Dec. 31 as presiding justice of the Appellate Division of the State Supreme Court in Manhattan and the Bronx, will form the commission.

WHITES TOO

CHICAGO -- (NPI) -- White radical students have joined black brethren in staging periodic boycotts of the Chicago schools. Noting that "Black students are demanding control of their schools," the white Student Organizing committee said, "We support this demand because we think that the high school as it exists now is simply another oppressive institution in an oppressive society."

"DRASTIC ACTION"

CHICAGO--(NPI) -- Black boycotters have threatened "drastic action" unless the city's Board of Education accedes to their demands. The dissident students warned of more boycotts and school sit-ins, as they addressed a school-board meeting. "The system is either going to have to be destroyed or rebuilt to include black people and Latin American people and Chinese people," Victor Adams, 18, a boycott leader, told the board.

BLACK INSTITUTE

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio -- (NPI) -- Antioch College's black students have started an Afro-American Studies Institute (AASI) in which an estimated 75-80 per cent of them are taking one or more courses for credit this quarter. Backed by a $10,000 grant from the college, the AASI, according to its spokesman, is trying to develop an educational program for Negroes that "deals with our problems so that we can use our minds and bodies to reconstruct our society.. -- as teachers, lawyers, engineers, city planners, and generally, architects of social change.

NO JIVE REVOLUTION

by OBATUNDE

Revolution being a very serious struggle, must always be taken soberly and with all caution, seriousness, and honesty. In all revolutionary acts, revolutionary warriors must not underestimate the speed and mobility of the crackers transportation and communication. When ripping off (stings, liberating etc.) make sure the following thoughts are kept in mind:

- getaway - MUST BE WELL PLANNED AND SUCCESSFUL.
- weapons - hand guns, shotguns (sawed-off) semi-automatic carbine depending on place and location, and manpower.
- Blackman power - 2-3 brothers minimum, getaway car very important, cover, and money scrapper.
- disguises; false hair, make-up, clothing, licenses, I.D.
- planning; know exactly what to do and who is to do it

Brothers must be disciplined and must fully understand that inefficiency, hesitation, or too much panic can cause the life of other warriors. As Black Revolutionary vanguard warriors, we must remember that we learn warfare through warfare. It is important that we keep alert to the battles across the nation in that we learn from mistakes. Go into each new situation as if it was the last. Fight desperately to win, regardless of the odds. Never depend on kindness or appeals of mercy from ANY PIG. When the shit goes down it will be Black vs. white for a long time before the ignorant white racist orientated working class realize that our black revolution will succeed, and the entire world will be at peace as a result.

Revolutionary warriors should organize their bands in such a way that there exists a money making idea to be carried out by those brothers who want to do something. All members should at least take part in liberating money necessary to finance the revolution. REVOLUTION OVERTURNS EVERYTHING THAT GETS IN ITS WAY. REVOLUTION DESTROYS EVERYTHING THAT GETS IN ITS WAY.

All revolutionary acts should be rehearsed as much as possible before going into action. Remember that a baby crawls before he walks, but if you are going to move on some money, move on some money. Think big, act bad, and be deadly. Strike as much terror in the white boys heart as possible. We must use the element of surprise all the time.

Two minutes should be enough to do any job unless you can control all signals to the outside pig forces. Use more time when thorough preparation has been made. Timing is important and results from discipline and being qualified. In all instances of ripping off (liberating) money, execute anyone who endangers the job and your life. Do not hesitate to burn any pig no matter what. Revolution is a complete change by violent means. This means we must work on all levels of revolutionary change, which means - fuck the racist pig and all his society, customs, and materialism. Destroy everything you can take with you, by any means necessary.

As we destroy so must we build. We must become equally revolutionary in your spiritual life, cultural customs and practice, social and educational development, economic and survival planning. WE SHALL CONQUER WITHOUT A DOUBT.

Food, water, and medicine will be essential to all black families during times of insurrection and war. The people must be constantly told what to do, cut down on materialism, store food, eat less meat, buy more ammo and guns and food. Adequate preparation is necessary and cannot be overlooked. A hungry man when fed is grateful. All sisters must really work hardest in the way of obtaining food, medicine, water and household supplies.

LIBERATING (Ripping off) from the pig is a means of survival. Bro. Malcolm says: A revolutionary warrior must be:

- READY
- WILLING
- EQUIPPED
- QUALIFIED

FOR ANY ACTION HE GETS INTO. This means he should be well disciplined without ego, of high morale, and able to work, think, and live collectively.

"The Afro-American is in range of the American giant's Achilles heel. American production, communication and the normal function of the affluent society are exposed to the Afro-American natural revolutionary reaction to tyranny and oppression. A united, well organized armed and trained Black America is a potential force to be reckoned with in its own right.

120,000 MARCH IN LONDON

LONDON -- Upright British officials breathed a sigh of relief the evening of last week when some 120,000 demonstrators marched in protest of the Vietnam war -- and kept things predominantly peaceful.

Confrontation versus non-violent protest had become a big issue in England during the days preceding the march, in both government and movement circles.

Heavy security measures were underway the week before the event, not the least of which was the ban of about 20 continental activists including Daniel Cohn-Bendit. Meanwhile, the National Union of Students was urging its 400,000 members to boycott the march and moderate movement leaders were proclaiming the futility of confrontation politics.

Despite the generally peaceful demeanor of most of the demonstrators, there is speculation that a vital and militant student movement may be developing in England.

Recent actions in British colleges and universities have put the racist government on its guard. These incidents, such as the four-day occupation of the London School of Economics, may be contributing to polarization of moderate and radical groups.

NAACP LEGAL STAFF

NEW YORK -- Resignations of the entire legal staff of the NAACP -- seven lawyers and seven clerical workers -- one effective Dec. 1, were laid on the desk of Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive director, in a mass protest against the firing of Lewis M. Steel, an associate, over his authorship of an article critical of the U. S. Supreme court, entitled "Nine Men in Black Who Think White," which appeared in a recent issue of the New York Times Sunday magazine.

Steel had charged that the high tribunal, in the past 15 years, "struck down only the symbols of racism while condoning or overlooking the ingrained practices which have meant the survival of white supremacy in the U.S."

The NAACP board of directors, meeting in Park-Sheraton hotel, voted unanimous to fire Steel, because of the article "is an indefensible rejection of the association's major efforts over the past 60 years."

The hue and cry immediately went out among other top-ranking NAACP officials against the board's action. Atty. Robert L. Carter, NAACP's general counsel for 24 years who made his resignation effective as of Dec. 1, commented "I cannot in good conscience plead for fair procedures, the elimination of discrimination and the right of freedom for black Americans... when the NAACP leadership is so hypocritical and lacking in integrity as to feel free to disregard these standards in the conduct of its own affairs."

REVOLUTION TIME

When the Man is after you, don't run pick up the gun cause if if you don't you'll pay but if you do blow him away
He murdered your Daddy exploited your Mama and all you
Do is sit on your ass and holla but times has changed
So get to a shootin range he kicked you and tricked you
So we've got one solution line black people it's revolution time

22. Grigsby, age 18, shot and killed by L. A. policemen while he was holding his little baby in his arms. 1963
23. Alfred Carter age 20, shot and killed by policemen in July or August of this year a so called suspect.
24. Robert Lawrence, age 22, shot and killed by L.A. policemen, an alleged suspect.
25. Two of our Black brothers and one sister was killed at Watts Festival. This made 27 of our brothers and I knew three more Black brothers that were also killed. I don't have their names but they were also killed by the L.A.P.D. as "suspects". This makes 30 of our brothers that have been killed by LAPD in about a period or less. Many more of our Black brothers have been killed and listed as unidentified.

As you know, it was about 35 or more of our brothers killed in the Watts revolt and one or more sisters. Most of the brothers were unarmed. Many of our Black brothers have been shot and killed on the charge that they allegedly moved suspiciously. From nine years old to ninety, many of the killings are not put in the press, on the air or on T.V. When they do, it's put in the middle of the papers on the back. And as Malcolm X once said, "they make the victim look like the criminal, and the criminal look like the victim."

It has been said that some of the white policemen have shot and killed some of our brothers and put their own knife near the body to make it look like it was self defense. I have talked with two women who work at the Coroner's office and they said sometimes two or three of our Black Brother's bodies are brought in listed as homicide. They have been shot in the head with .38's or shot guns.

The white man and white youth rob, kidnap, steal cars and are chased up to 120 miles per hour and shoot it out with the LAPD and still the police men do not shoot or kill them. They talk to them.

They use shot guns and rifles, M1's, submachine guns, .38's, .45's, magnums on Black and Brown people to kill them and it is always justifiable homicide. It is dangerous for a Black or Brown man or youth to be alone in the dark or alley. And they are arrested for or about anything by white cops. Black and Brown people are shot and killed quicker on a misdemeanor than whites are on a felony. Some of the LAPD (white) have committed robbery, bribery, and are said to have raped some of our Black women and they still go FREE. I agree with Stokely when he once said only those who live in our community should patrol our community.

Police in all fifty states are practicing genocide on Black and Brown people. The words law and order mean keep the Black and Brown men in their place. It should be Law and Justice.

Resolution on Law & Order

The hysterical call for "Law and Order" is a product of racist and conservative mentalities who are determined to preserve the status quo of poverty and racial discrimination within Seattle's ghetto, and to preserve these evils by the force and violence of the armed police.

Under the umbrella slogan of Law and Order, city officials hope to crush the rising wave of militancy in the black community, intimidate potential allies of the movement for black freedom, and legitimize the mounting police terror and police-state atmosphere. We stand opposed to Law and Order as interpreted by the police. We stand opposed to the current policies designed to oppress a community already exploited and oppressed beyond endurance. We demand justice before order, freedom before peace, liberty before law, life before property.

We proclaim solidarity with all those who are persecuted, harassed, provoked and insulted by the police, the courts, school and city officials, and the entire system of institutionalized racism. We proclaim our support to all those who challenge this system.

RESOLUTION ON CITY OFFICIALS

Every public official must take an oath to defend the constitution of the United States; that is a law of the land. If an official violates his oath consistently and flagrantly, he is clearly unfit for public office.

In Seattle, we are faced with just such a situation, involving at least four officials: Mayor Braman, County Prosecutor Carroll, Police Chief Ramon, and Assistant Chief Cook have all demonstrated their complete lack of respect or understanding of the basic rights to which the people are entitled.

By means of open police brutality and frame-up legal proceedings, they have tried to silence and intimidate those who militantly challenge racist oppression. In complete violation of the letter and spirit of their oath of office, they have fastened a police-state regime on the black community.

Their actions condemn them. Clearly, they have no more right to exercise the powers their offices give them.

The very least we can demand of these men is their immediate resignation. Failing this, we demand their removal.

RESOLUTION ON THE GUN LAW

The Seattle City Council's "gun control" ordinance is a flagrant denial of the constitutional right of citizens to bear arms.

We assert our right to bear arms in defense of our lives and liberties, and demand that this abrogation of fundamental civil liberties be repealed.

S.F. GUN SUIT

(SAN FRANCISCO) An existing police regulation requiring San Francisco pigs to be equipped with revolvers at all times while off duty is being challenged in Superior Court. The complaint was filed on Friday, November 8, 1968, by Sidney M. Wolinsky, Director of Litigation for the San Francisco Neighborhood Legal Assistance Foundation.

Mr. Wolinsky stated: "I had hoped that the Police Department would take the initiative to abolish the gun regulation and to specify the instance when a policeman should be prohibited from carrying firearms. Such action is necessary to remove a source of danger and antagonism to all citizens, especially those of minority groups. It is extremely unfortunate that legal action must be taken to remedy the situation," Mr. Wolinsky cited his letters to racist swine Commissioners and to Pig Chief Cahill of October 9, 1968, in which he urged their immediate action, consistent with the prior request of the Mafia pig, Mayor Alioto. No action has been taken and Pig Chief Cahill stated on November 7, 1968, "This is not the time to disarm off-duty policemen."

The complaint is a class action brought on behalf of all Black persons in the City whose lives and safety have been threatened without justification by armed, off-duty policemen. William J. Stribling and Sarah Willis, two of the plaintiffs, contend that their lives were threatened solely because of their race by Michael O'Brien, a San Francisco policeman, while he was off duty. They contend that the regulation, in practice, results in Black persons being denied equal protection and due process of law because of this and other similar incidents. They contend that the regulation, in practice, is a nuisance and should be enjoined. They also argue that the regulation is unreasonable and therefore in violation of the City Charter which requires that all rules promulgated be reasonable. The complaint also argues that the regulation is in violation of the due process clauses of both the State and Federal Constitutions because it was formulated in secret, without prior notice or hearing, without an opportunity for persons to present information concerning the regulation and without subsequent publication.

The third plaintiff, Paul Nelson, a city taxpayer, argues that enforcement of the regulation results in wasteful expenditures of public funds for investigation, defense, and settlement of claims against the City filed by victims of violence by off-duty pigs.

Black Students Get Sentences

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Three black Knoxville College students and their attorneys claimed a "political victory" when they received relatively light sentences after being charged with serious felonies.

Gary Keel, Pete Rigner and Joseph Scott had been charged with possession of explosives and conspiracy to blow up two buildings on the Knoxville College campus. The charges came in the wake of the murder of a white cab driver on the Knoxville campus last March; the anger of the police was aroused, but the case was never solved.

On Oct. 28, the three pleaded guilty to lesser charges ("attempting to possess explosives" and "travelling on the highway for the purpose of prowling"). They were sentenced to 11 months and 29 days each, but the judge permitted them to return to college and begin serving the sentences after they finish the second semester. He indicated that he would consider suspending the remainder of their sentences after a summer in jail.

LETTER FROM SEATTLE PANTHERS

November 1, 1968

Raymond Lewis,
Deputy Minister of Information:

We feel we are growing stronger and stronger with each new day. We are becoming the blackest of Panthers, . . . for we have applied ourselves and the majority now possess none of the characteristics of the reactionary.

The last trip to Oakland with constructive suggestions by Don Cox and Minister of Education George Murray (both brothers are pictures of fascination and radiant beautiful BLACK beauty) influenced us greatly. This influence is still present in our colony as well as their conclusions and suggestions which we feel were the result of political education, experience and constant application and are very beneficial to our situation in our daily dilemma.

By observing these beautiful brothers we have gained incentive. Our Captain (upon returning from Babylon) immediately began the arduous task of "getting it together". Our last week was a massive informative informational period directed at the black colonial subjects imprisoned in this demonic plagued, cracker-ass city of Seattle, Washington. Brothers and Sisters were zapped into the churches on Sunday . . . to educate. Along with our extensive political education classes that are now in full action, we are holding a forum with concerned, uninformed Afro-American Adults in the colony in the sincere hope to penetrate the brain and unlock the chains and bonds that the diabolical, habitual lying madman has placed on certain individual minds in the past. We feel that if we sway only one black person into reality that we have accomplished a great accomplishment. Friday the parents of Panthers are invited to a free SOUL DINNER and this too is another opportunity to gain support for what we believe . . . for what we know . . . for proven facts, indubitably, undoubtable.

Captain Aaron Dixon has stated, "From now on, we shall work and push until we drop from exhaustion." . . . This is now practiced; we are practicing it. Paper Panthers have chose to split, but we find that warriors have an inclination to suddenly appear . . . willing to devote all.

Posters by Emory are needed by your brothers and sisters in Seattle along with buttons, literature and other items that we can sell to inform and to also build our defense fund into a powerhouse. The remainder of this month will constitute four more trials and November will bring about four more. This is why we feel that the scratch is necessary. Aaron's ball was set at $1,000.00 and Section Leader Buddy Yates at $5,000.00 for SUPPOSEDLY lifting a radio from a bus that was parked in front of our office. Aaron nor Buddy have any knowledge nor could either of these beautiful cats relate to copping a jive-ass transistor. Analysis: . . . bullshit and harrassment by the punk faggot pigs that receive NO satisfaction from the idea of retreating rapidly from OUR colony. However . . . a change is about to take place . . . right on.

I am enclosing scripts for consideration of placement in our paper and unless otherwise informed will continue to correspond with those we love in the bay area.

POWER TO THE PEOPLE AND
BLACK POWER TO BLACK PEOPLE
Gregory Harrison

To be able to define Black Power first of all you would have to break the two words down: Black --- social phenomenon (thing), Power --- the ability to define (break down) phenomenon (thing, problem) and make it act in a desired manner. Only by breaking down your problems completely and realizing what they are, can you ever hope to solve them.

In the case of Black People, we must exhaust all legal political means and then if we see that the system will not act in a desired manner, then Black People have no other means of survival except the form which was used in Watts, Detroit, Newark, Chicago, etc.; only these situations are what we call a rehearsal; the next time will be a dress rehearsal, and then, if there is no significant improvement, to the real thing (revolution). The rehearsal and dress rehearsal are unorganized struggles, but a revolution is organized and recognizes no compromise and is either victory or defeat. Organized . . . can you imagine 40,000,000 Blacks armed and organized in the Black Community and dedicated to the revolution and the struggle?

Many people think that Black People could not win a revolution because we do not have enough weapons; but we say that "The spirit of the people is greater than the man's technology." If you do not have a cause to fight for you are subject to defeat because there is no spirit. White racists and Black Bourgeoisie would be fighting for a revolution, while Black People would be fighting for liberation. Weapons are an important factor in war, but not the decisive factor; it is people, not things, that are decisive. A gun or bomb is a tool of people such as a hammer or saw; it is according to how well you can use it as to how effective it is. Some people are "shooting without a target," shooting at random, and such people are liable to harm the revolution. Our principle is that the people must command the gun, and the gun never be allowed to command the people. Weapons are an important factor in war, however, the contest of strength is not only a contest of military and economic power, but also a contest of human power and morale. Military and economic power is necessarily wielded by people.

We will use the term Black Power in all of these instances of politics until all legal political means are exhausted and the eyes of the people are awakened. Then, when and if it is clear that there is no political solution to the problems confronting us, and when politics develops to a certain stage beyond which it cannot proceed by the usual means, we will intensify the struggle.

Brothers; Come Home . . .

First by loving those brothers who have no ideology of what's going down and try to hip them to the facts and the man's game that he's been playing on them for over 400 years.

Secondly by fear. This is the way you would have to bring those jive-ass TOMS home. Those ones that know the man's game, but are out there trying to make the buck off the black people, and are still working hand in hand with that jive ass racist dog.

As our Minister of Defense Huey P. Newton says in his book, "ESSAYS FROM THE MINISTER OF DEFENSE" page 8, "The oppressor, the endorsed spokesmen and the implacables form the three points of a triangle of death. The oppressor looks upon the ENDORSED SPOKESMEN as a TOOL TO USE AGAINST THE IMPLACABLES to keep the masses passive within the acceptable limits of the tactics he is capable of containing. The endorsed spokesmen look upon the oppressor as a guardian angel who can always be depended upon to protect them from the wrath of the implacables, while he looks upon the implacables as dangerous and irresponsible madmen who, by angering the oppressor, will certainly provoke a blood bath in which they themselves are washed away. THE IMPLACABLES VIEW BOTH THE OPPRESSOR AND THE ENDORSED SPOKESMEN AS HIS DEADLY ENEMIES, if anything HE HAS A MORE PROFOUND HATRED FOR THE ENDORSED LEADERS THAN HE HAS FOR THE OPPRESSOR HIMSELF, because THE IMPLACABLES KNOW THAT THEY CAN DEAL WITH THE OPPRESSOR ONLY AFTER THEY HAVE DRIVEN THE ENDORSED SPOKESMEN OFF THE SCENE.

You so called brothers that's out there jiving best come to yourselves, because it's either you're with us or against us, you're a revolutionary or a counter revolutionary, in other words you're a TOM or a righteous brother.

A few weeks ago I wrote a poem, THAT MADE ME FEEL GOOD. Which was in the October 12th issue of the BLACK PANTHER PAPER. It goes like this:

"THAT MADE ME FEEL GOOD"

I offered a pig today,
that ended my problem
with imperialism,
but I still feel oppress.
Guess I'll off me another one tomorrow.

I offered a pig today,
that ended my problem
with white capitalism,
but I still feel oppress.
Guess I'll off me another one tomorrow.

I off a pig today,
that made me feel good.
Guess I'll off me another one tomorrow.

But I forgot one stanza of this most beautiful poem and it goes like this:

I offered a TOM today,
that ended my problem
with TOMISM.
But I still feel oppress.
Guess I'll off me another one tomorrow.

Your're out there jiving, the people know it and if you don't straighten up you'll have to suffer at the hands of the armed people.

.....PLEASE DON'T BE THE ONE TOMORROW.....
I DO T. MACK

ROTC: EXPLOSIVE SITUATION

EUGENE, Ore. -- An explosion damaged two offices of the Air Force ROTC on the campus of the University of Oregon on Nov. 4. The authorities said there was no indication as to who was responsible for the deed.

AUSTRALIAN RAILWAY ON STRIKE

MELBOURNE (Third World Press) -- Eighty thousand Australian railway workers went on a 24-hour nation-wide strike last week for higher wages.

Defying the intimidations of the reactionary authorities, the strikers held mass rallies in various parts of the country to protest against the arbitrary rejection of the workers' just demands by the authorities.

STRIKE, STRIKE, EVERYWHERE

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- The strike rate in 1968 is the highest in nine years, according to pig structure's Labor Department reports.

Labor Department Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that 1.9 million workers were involved in a total of 3,910 strikes. Management lost 35 million man-days of working time during the first nine months of this year.

While these figures certainly don't point to any new consciousness in labor, they do indicate that something is decidedly amiss with the decadent American economy.

The racist administration knew in 1966 that there were going to be labor hassles, when inflation was becoming more than just an irritant to economic stability.

Despite all the fine talk about wage-price guidelines, firms have a habit of shifting the burden of rising costs onto the working man, who has to meet his own rising costs in consumer goods -- more robbery in the Black communities.

CHILDHOOD IN THE GHETTO

Old worn furniture
streets full of garbage
useless life feels pain from the boot of an oppressor
Pain from castration
Slavery

the children who live here
seek refuge in the streets
playing stickball on 114th & Lennox can be fun
But if you get hit by a car it could be deadly who cares for the black child

Man wages war in the name of humanity
But keeps all the joy from the children
Child of oppression
rise up, rebel
make bombs of the cans that lie
in your doorway
Cleanse the soul that
has wronged you
Purify the spirit
with
ASH

Serenity and peace
are stopped by the police
fun and game
are destroyed by law and order
the void promises of the politicians bring the children of the middle class
into a bag of trying to kick
his daddy's ass

Revolution is daddy
you either live or die
War against the man
Silent relentless
making every piece of earth a battleground
every man, woman and child becomes a soldier

America is Paranoid

They're all afraid of the boogeyman

Superman turns into a tenderloin queen and Captain America burns his C.I.A. Card

and students rebel
Pig fuck Reagan we want Cleaver

We're up against the wall

Yeah the wall Motherfucker up against the wall
Rome was great but had to fall
All you tyrants up against the Wall
Cleanse your soul of tyranny
get wasted
shake my hand and smile
meet me at the gates of Hell and I'll kick your ass
Commit suicide
not genocide
Give it up
Move aside
we're tired of walking let us ride
but better yet, let us drive
then we will have a man to get us there safely

AS A VOLCANO

My people are black
My people are blessed, blessed with a hoe as deep as a moonless night, as rich as the earth upon which I walk

My people are black
My people are strong, stronger than an erupting volcano that overflows with lava and covers people and things

My people are black by birth. But the racist white dog has attempted to make us black

And blue! That racist dog has tried every effort to add a new color to our already beautiful skin. By way of whips, he has torn our flesh from our backs. By way of billy clubs, he has bruised our bodies. By way of guns, he has pierced our bodies with bullets

My people are black. Black by birth. But the racist white dog has tried to make us
black and blue.

But, I as a strong Black woman who intends to replenish this black earth with children of both sexes, say to you --
white man,

"F---you! My children will be black -- so black,
there won't be room for anything else."

My people are black as night. My people are as strong as a volcano. And that volcano is erupting, pig! That volcano is exploding and is splirting something that is wild and untamed.
Something that is going to cover all traces of racism. It is going to cover all traces of YOU!

My people are black as night,
as strong as a volcano ...

TIME IS RUNNING OUT!

As we move closer to true revolution
Our Lives become more entangled into each others

Our beliefs are tried over and over
But neither do we falter
neither do we fail.
A fire is life up under us and we burn with a new sense of meaning,
.....a new sense of hope.
We are in a constant stage of rage and an unbelievable desire for freedom and peace of mind is eating away at the core of our hearts.

But still our little beam of hope shines and we press on knowing that true love, peace, freedom can only be obtained through the most righteous barrel of our most righteous guns.
We have walked the pathway of darkness for such a long time..... But we are the new seed that have sprung up to keep walking that dark path.
But we see light and we have hope that has welled up inside of us and we move now with a sureness.....
a confidence.

Not all of us will make it to the end of this pathway into the light.
Some of us will fall, some of us will trip and not get back up.....and some of us will be killed. But still those of us left will keep going through all obstacles....
until.....until we reach freedom.....
or Death.

TACTICAL PIGS

Have you ever been stopped
By a tactical pig?
The first thing you notice
The hog is so big

They all weigh 3 hundred
They stand seven feet tall
They've got lots of muscle
But their brains are real small

Now some black folk are learning
Others have known all the time
That a hog is just chit'lings and Mucous and slime

So let's go good brothers
It's hog killing season
All revolutionaries know
That we've got enough reason

So to hell with their muscle
Their gristle and brawn
You are as big as they are
If you've got a gun.

-- J. White

I was walking through the ghetto with my piece in my hand
I was a cool mother fucker from this racist land then came a pig as funky as he could be
I said motherfucker quit fuckin wit me
he laid his bully club upside my head and I filled that motherfucker wit red hot lead
I seen a soul brother diggn on the scene
he said git on nigger do it to the fiend
"right on blood" was my reply
then a herd of pig cars caught my eye
I got my heels a clicking on the slide and lit a fuse up on the wall behind me "the skies the limit" was my sign nows my time to do it and mess up all dey minds they'll never know that it was mine all mine nigger goes insane hit the mornings headlines brothers and sisters why don't you take up after me
if we do that thing now we'll all be free
so next time you see a pig infesting our streets kill the motherfucker cause we're gonna keep the piece...ah mean peace

you glimpse the cracked

holes of shit burn your toward your toes and

you say in astonishment
50,000 plus? Plus you look at the broken down furniture
where the black night

the pressure of chittlens,
hog maws and assorted mellons
suddenly the set screen
cracked due to circumstances

-- Aaron Lloyd Dixon

I am sure that all black people have come in constact with the pigs. Wether your tall or small, a pig will treat you like dirt.
He'll walk all over you.

He will grunt his law and order jive to you, and expect you to agree. If you don't obey, he'll string you to the nearest tree.
He's got a big pig pen in every little hole in the wall. So all whitey has to do is call. And he'll pick up his gun and "nigger knocker." And come busting through your door.

He'll shake you up, and have a thousand pigs outside setup. Waiting to get their nightly kill. Then drag you off and have a fill.

The pigs have had their fun. Now comes our

Because when we aim we are not going to miss,
and we aren't going to be aiming with our fists.

Honestly what he needs is a cure. Because a exactly this. The next time you see a pig.

Dig! OFF HIM right on.

PIG MYTHOLOGY OF CHRISTIANITY

By Captain Crutch

CHRISTIANITY

Before we can understand the contradictions of CHRISTIANITY, we must go back some centuries and tell the conditions of POLITICS in Palestine and Syria, era of inception it was a beautiful doctrine, it taught the welfare of the people, the Golden Rule, but the doctrine of Christianity was not acceptable to the ruling pig Gentry. Because it made the masses of the people aware of the contradictions between themselves and the aristocracy, the pig power structure of that day. Because of this the evil Gentry decided that Christianity should be destroyed, at any cost. So consequentially, all practitioners of Christianity, were contained, beaten, murdered, harassed, and crucified, on orders from the High Gentry, the Royalty, the Pigs of the power structure.

When this method proved ineffective the Evil Gentry sent in their AGENTS to usurp, utilize, and gain control from the inside. An then the Pigs controlled Christianity, an antibody that didn't adhere to the policy and ideology of Christianity, was persecuted and thrown to the lion pit. Thus the beautiful original doctrine of Christianity was changed to suit the Royalty, the Aristocracy, the Pig power structure. So in the beginning Christianity was conceived to promote the Golden Rule and create unity among all the people. An afterwards Christianity was reinvented to PACIFY THE PEASANTS OF SOCIETY. Christianity is of JEWISH origin. The idea and the gradual development of the idea of one just God ruling the earth and bound by a special promise to preserve and bring into honour the Jewish people.

The Jewish idea was and is a curious, combination of theological breadth and intense racial patriotism. The Jews were looking for a special savior, a messiah, who was to redeem mankind by the agreeable processing of restoring the fabulous glories of David and Solomon, and bringing the whole world at last under the benevolent but firm Jewish heel. As the political power of the semitic peoples declined, and Spain became a Roman province this dream grew and spread. (Hence the reason for strong relation to Catholicism within the Spanish and Mexican communities, an Latin countries.) There can be little doubt that the scattered Phoenicians in Spain and Africa and throughout the Mediterranean, speaking as they did a language closely akin to Hebrew and being deprived of the authentic political rights because converts to Judaism. On one occasion the IDUMEANS being conquered, were all forcibly made Jews. Thence were ARAB tribes who were Jews in the time of Muhammad and a Turkish people who were mainly Jews in South Russia in the ninth century. Judaism was indeed the reconstructed political ideal of many shattered peoples mainly semitic. As a result of these conditions and assimilations. Almost everywhere in the towas throughout the Roman Empire, and far beyond it in the East Jewish communities traded and flourished and were kept in touch through the Bible, and through a religious and educational organization. So therefore the main part of Jewry never was in Judea and had never come out of Judea. Manifestly this intercommunicating series of Judaized communities had very great financial and political facilities they could assemble resources, they could stir up, they could ally. They weren't as abundant or civilized as the still more widely diffused Greeks. But tradition dictates that they have greater solidarity. JEW stood by JEW. Wherever a JEW went he could receive any thpe of help necessary. An because of this solidarity rulers everywhere had to take account of this people as a source of help, as a source of loans, or as a source of trouble. So the JEWS have persisted as a people while HELLENISM has become a universal light for mankind.

In the reign of TIBERIUS CAESAR a great teacher arose out of Judea who was to liberate the intense realization of the righteousness and unchallengeable oneness of GOD, and of man's moral obligation to GOD, which was the strength of ORTHODOX JUDAISM, from that greedy and exclusive narrowness with which it was so extraordinarily intermingled in the JEWISH mind. This was JESUS of Nazareth, the SEED rather than the FOUNDER OF CHRISTIANITY. Many people's of the world regard Jesus of Nazareth as being much more than a human teacher, and his appearance on this PLANET not as a natural event in history, but as something of a supernatural sort, interrupting and changing that steady development of life toward a common consciousness and a common will. About JESUS, I have to write not THEOLOGY but HISTORY, as my concern is not with the spiritual and theological significance of his life, but with its effects upon the POLITICAL and everyday life of MANKIND. One feels that the lean and strenuous personality of JESUS is much wronged by the unreality and conventionality that a mistaken reverence has imposed upon his figure in modern CHRISTIAN ART. JESUS was a penniless teacher, who wandered about the dusty sun-blit country of JUDEA living upon casual gifts of food YET he is always portrayed as clean, combed, and sleek, in spotless raiment, erect, and with something motionless about him as though he was gliding through the air. This alone has made him UNREAL and INCREDIBLE to many people who cannot distinguish the core of the story from the ornamental and unwise additions of the unintelligently devout.

And it may be that the early parts of the gospels are accretions of the same nature. The miraculous circumstances of the birth of JESUS the great star that brought wise men from the East to worship at his manger cradle, the massacre of the male infant children around an about Bethlehem by KING HEROD as a consequence of these portents, and the flight into Egypt, are all supposedly regarded as accretionary matter by many authorities.

Jesus in reality was a historical Hippie as a revolutionist teaching revolutionary doctrine. Christianity, which was a very good doctrine in its early era of inception. JESUS was clearly a person of intense personal courage and magnetism. He attracted followers and filled them with love and courage. Weak and giling people were heartened and healed by his presence. Yet he was probably of a delicate physique, because of the swiftness with which he died under the pains of Crucifixion.

The observance of the JEWISH SABBATH, transferred to the MITHRAIC SUNDAY is an important feature of many CHRISTIAN CULTS; but JESUS deliberately broke Sabbath and stated that it was made for man and not man for the Sabbath. Much that is most characteristically Christian in worship and usage, he ignored. Scpetical writers have had the temerity to deny that Jesus can be called a Christian at all. For light upon these extraordinary gaps in his teaching. Each reader must go to his own religious guides. Here I am bound to mention these gaps on account of the difficulties and contradictions that arose out of them, and I am equally bound not to enlarge upon the.

The Jews were persuaded that GOD, the one God of the whole world, was a righteous God, but they also thought of him as a trading God who had made a bargain with their Father Abraham about them a very good bargain indeed for them to bring them at last to pre-dominance in the earth. With dismay and anger they heard JESUS sweeping away their dear securities.

Open Letter to L.A. Pig Chief . . .

Los Angeles, Calif.

RE: RACIST PIG CHIEF TOM (CHIEF PIG) REDDIN

We the people of the Black Community are very much aware of the JUST harassment of your Pig Force. In retaliation we'd like to quote your own Pig Force after the bombing of the Long Beach SDS and Peace and Freedom Office; "Too bad it wasn't twice as big." Well we say, "Too bad it isn't tice as much!"

It's about time you got some of your harassment, brutality and dirt back.

We the people of the Black Community are also aware of the fact that it is YOU the FASCIST PIG DEPARTMENT who is responsible for the bombings, torturing, brutality, and MURDER of our Black People.

Further more, we openly accuse you of being racist, fascist filthy PIG murderers and DEMAND that you cease your actions against our people at once or you will be tried by the highest court of the land and you will have to face the wrath of the Armed people.

As a closing message to you we'd like to say UP AGAINST THE WALL MOTHER-FUCKER!!!

OPEN LETTERS TO LOS ANGELES PIG CHIEF

Los Angeles, Calif.

RE: RACIST DOG CHIEF OF PIGS TOM (REDNECK) REDDIN

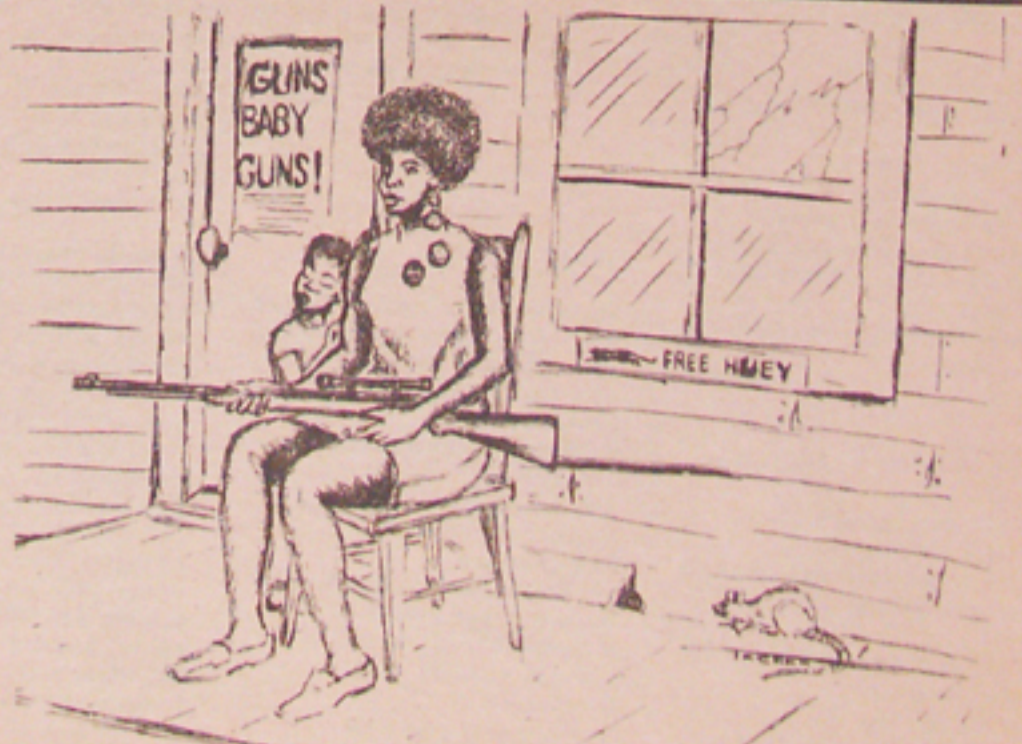

You would like to have the people forget that you and your Racist Pig Force are the outside agitator, the aggressor, and the oppressor who subjects Black Americans to acts of brutality, torture, and murder.

You ask how long can your Gestapo take name calling and rock throwing before they blow their tops and kill all the Niggers; but we ask how long do you thing the Black Community can take the insults, abuses, and blatant murders before we retaliate in kind? You see, the common denominator of dissident organizations is that we recognize you for the Fascist Pig Occupation Army that you are.

The people relize that Preventive Police work means "Secret Police" who attack people whom they "Think" will probably commit a crime, this means increased repression, more M-16's, M-1's, shotguns and mace. You would attempt to threaten the people by warning us that you are reasonable—but don't push. We say PIG! Cease your wanton murder, brutality and torture of Black People or FACE THE WRATH OF THE ARMED PEOPLE raising voices and guns saying UP AGAINST THE WALL MOTHERFUCKER!

All Power To The People

FILLING THE EDUCATIONAL GAP
740 - 60th STREET • OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA 94609

Black Liberation Publishers Fills The Educational Gap

On Friday, May 19, 1967 the Black Experience held at Merritt College (Oakland, California) addressed itself to the topic "Black Culture and the Students Dilemma - Getting an Education or Getting Jived." The Black student panel, without exception, expressed feelings that the present educational structure of most schools in the United States were not meeting the needs of Black Students.

The Black Curriculum concept introduced there by Sid Walton, a militant Black faculty member at Merritt College, was highly endorsed by more than 300 people at the Black Experience and by nearly 1000 people REPRESENTING BLACK GROUPS at the California Black Conference held in Los Angeles May 26-28, 1967.

Black students want an education that teaches the TRUE history of Afro-Americans and our role in the present day society. We believe in an educational system that will give to our people a more thorough knowledge of self. If a man does not have knowledge of himself and his position in society and the world, then he has little chance to adequately relate to anything else.

Merritt College is the first Junior College to offer an Associate in Arts degree in Afro-American Studies. Mr. Sid Walton had a significant role in the implementation and development of the program there and has written a book entitled THE BLACK CURRICULUM - DEVELOPING A PROGRAM IN AFRO-AMERICAN STUDIES. A limited number of pamphlets containing excerpts from the book have been prepared to help you get started on a program until the book is published. Copies of the pamphlet may be purchased by sending $1.50 for each pamphlet. Distributor rates and school district rates provided upon request.

GRENADERS AND BOMBS: ANTI-PROPERTY AND ANTI-PERSONNEL

No. 1. The very small, home-made grenade is exactly the same as the small explosive device used to set off the fire bomb. It is the CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge as described in the preceding directions, only instead of using a cigarette to time the fuse, you can light the fuse and throw it. This little CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge just as it doesn't do a lot of damage, but it can be dressed up to become a very lethal weapon. It can be made into a deadly anti-personnel weapon or a very dangerous bomb.

The small CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge can be dressed up by filling with 3/4 black powder and 1/4 shot, or needles. This is obviously anti-personnel, and will penetrate when the CO<sub>2</sub> explodes, but still is not big enough to kill. It has certain advantages, however. It can be taped to a window, even with your hands behind your back, and left burning with the trusty cigarette. Or it could be taped, with the cigarette to the fuel tank of a car. If thrown into a car, it is guaranteed to bruise the occupants and empty and car of all personnel in record time. Further, the CO<sub>2</sub> is so small it can easily be concealed on your person.

Now, to make an actual grenade, a weapon that kills, the following can be done:

Take a used, empty aerosol can, pull off the little plastic spray device, and with a hammer and nail pound the little plastic nipple down into the can. Use a punch or screwdriver with hammer to widen the hole and make it large enough so that large shot can be inserted through the hole. Then fill with 3/4 black powder and 1/4 bullets or small headed nails. Insert fuse, and light when ready to throw. The fuse should be an inch and a half in length and should leave your hand when it has burned to an inch.

CAUTION: The explosive force of this weapon is great. It is even more dangerous than a standard army grenade. Needless to say, a too-short fuse will result in a scattered grenade-holder. A too-long fuse will result in the person or persons at whom you have thrown it to have a chance to throw it back and blow you to fragments. A guerilla with lousy aim in close quarters can kill his brothers. This thing is equivalent to about 12 shotgun blasts at ONCE. If thrown into a car it will blow to bits the car and everything in it, human or otherwise. If thrown in the open, it will kill within a 25 foot radius and maim within 100 feet. It is a good idea to familiarize yourself with this weapon by practicing with a sand-filled facsimile. Try this, and see how long the fuse takes. You cannot afford to mis-

To make a bomb use the same principle as for the grenade, only instead of lighting the fuse and throwing it, you use the cigarette and set the thing down. For a strictly anti-property bomb, you don't need the shot or nails. Just the black powder. A large amount of commercial dynamite is made with black powder, and that's exactly the kind of bomb you're with this thing, the sky's the limit. You can make it as big as you like, depending only on the size of the container, the can that you use. A large tar bucket full, for instance, would demolish most any building. This is a versatile thing, can be scaled to the size you want. Used in conjunction with gasoline, or set near any fuel tank or explosive container, the blast would take and entire plant and lay it down. Perhaps the greatest advantage here is that all ingredients can be bought legally at gun shops, hobby shops and even five and tens.

EFFECTIVENESS AND USES OF FIREBOMBS

The firebomb acts differently under different circumstances. If used outside, in open space, the timed firebomb will create much noise and flame, and a huge, mushroom fireball will rise at least 300 feet. It is a diversionary tactic, a terrorist device, but does not do much actual damage to property in an open space. It looks terrible but it is not effective as a weapon with explosive power would be. Also, it has the disadvantage of being dangerous for a great distance around it, so should not be used under riot conditions, when your friends are likely to be hurt as the fragments of glass will make a radius of 150 feet from the bomb unsafe. For street conditions, street action, moving open-space action, the timed firebomb is a poor weapon except as a diversionary tactic. The simple, thrown molotov cocktail is better under these conditions.

In an enclosed area, the timed firebomb comes into its own. Set in an enclosed area, a ten by twelve room or car, anything within this area will be burned. There will be intense heat, the duration of the explosion will be about 40 seconds. Further, the room or car will explode, as the heat from the fireball will take all the air in seconds. Anything in this space will be destroyed.

THE SELF-KINDLING MOLOTOV COCKTAIL

The classical molotov cocktail must be lit before thrown. By using chemical elements which explode when combined, a thrown object can explode on impact without having to be lit.

Ingredients:

Sulfuric acid. Battery acid can be purchased in any auto store, and innocuously carried in your car.

--5 gallon gasoline can. Legal, red metal containers, also from auto store.

Should keep extra gasoline in your car all the time in case you run out of gas on the highway.

--soda bottles which require a deposit.

--funnel.

--potassium chlorate.

--sugar

Take an old sock (large). Soak in a mixture of 3 parts potassium chlorate to 2 parts sugar, moistened with water. Allow sock to be thoroughly soaked in mixture, they dry. Keep dry sock away from heat. CAUTION: POTASSIUM CHLORATE IS VERY VOLATILE. IT CAN IGNITE ALMOST SPONTANEOUSLY IN THIS MIXTURE. IT CAN BE KNITED OR DETONATED BY A SINGLE SPARK, OR EXCESSIVE HEAT, OR MERELY BY THE FRICTION OF STIRRING THE INGREDIENTS TOGETHER. HANDLE WITH UTMOST CAUTION.

With a hydrometer, take acid from container and fill 1/5 to 1/4 of a quart bottle. (Coke bottles don't break easily. Test out the type of bottle you'll use by throwing it at things and see if it breaks). Pour gasoline carefully through funnel into bottle until full. Pour slowly because it could bubble and heat up.

Cap the bottle with a regular stopper, preferably the kind with a rubber plunger cause acid eats away at plastic, metal.

Hold bottle carefully upright, don't joggle it.

When ready to use, place bottle inside sock soaked in the Potassium chlorate/sugar mix, knotted at top. Throw. On impact, when glass is shattered, the bomb will explode as the sulfuric acid reacts with the mixture in the sock. The gasoline will spread the flame.

The simple firebomb is a bottle of gasoline with a rag stuffed into its top. When the rag is set on fire, the bottle is thrown. When the bottle breaks, the fumes are spread, and the fire from the burning rag ignites the fumes, causing a fireball.

To make a firebomb without having to throw it, a device must be attached to the bottle of gasoline which will explode the bottle at a given time, spreading the fumes and furnishing a spark with which to ignite these fumes.

In order to make such a "timed firebomb", the basic ingredients are:

One half-gallon or gallon jug of hi-grade gasoline

To which attach by a piece of tape:

One small time-explosive, which is made from these ingredients:

1 Jetex fuse

1 CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge

Any brand of black powder (or powder from any rifle, pistol or shotgun shell)

A long cigarette (like Tareyton 100's)

For purchasing these -- the jetex fuse is used for model racing cars and can be bought at any hobby shop. The black powder can be bought at any gun shop, and is used for old muskets and flintlock pistols. CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge at gunshop.

Directions:

Step 1. Put gasoline in bottle and seal top with screw-on metal cap or TRITT cork. Set bottle aside.

Step 2. Take CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge and puncture with nail.

CAUTION: Hold cartridge with pliers when puncturing or effect on fingers holding CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge will be unpleasant. It is perfectly safe with pliers, but hold pliers TRITLY on CO<sub>2</sub> cartridge.

Step 3. Using tinfoil funnel, fill the cartridge with black powder to the top.

Step 4. Insert the fuse -- at least 1-1/4" inside the powder-filled cartridge. To be SURE that the device will go off, use two fuses with two cigarettes. That way you know it'll go.

Step 5. Time your cigarette. Know how many minutes it takes to burn down. (With the long, 12 to 15 minutes.)

Step 6. Affix the cartridge to the bottle. Do not attach (at desired length) until ready to use.

Step 7. Take your device to its destination. You are now ready to use it.

Step 8. Wrap fuse around LIT cigarette at desired length. When placing device, be sure the cigarette is not touching anything between the fuse and the lit end, as that will put the cigarette out. To protect burning cigarette, use tape.

(See diagram 4).

Step 9. Proceeding with all deliberate speed, leave the area at once.

Army in Retreat at Fort Hood

FORT HOOD, Tex. -- Looks like the Army is in full retreat. There were 13 cases left to be tried of the 46 which arose out of GIs' refusals to go to Chicago during the Democratic convention.

Originally, the remaining 13 were to be tried in special courts-martial, but when the American Servicemen's Union came into the fight, the Army sought to intimidate them by changing the trials to general courts-martial, according to Andy Stapp, head of the Union.

The Army announced on Oct. 28 that it had changed its mind again -- special courts-martial for all 13 -- maximum sentences of six months rather than five years. Another victory for soldiers on the left.

OCTOBER 1966 BLACK PANTHER PARTY PLATFORM AND PROGRAM

WHAT WE WANT

WHAT WE BELIEVE

The program is usually divided into one section of ten points entitled "What We Want" and then ten paragraphs explaining these points in a section entitled "What We Believe." For the sake of clarity, we have put each one of the ten points in "What We Want" immediately above its corresponding paragraph in "What We Believe."

1. We want freedom. We want power to determine the destiny of our Black Community.

We believe that black people will not be free until we are able to determine our destiny.

2. We want full employment for our people.

We believe that the federal government is responsible and obligated to give every man employment or a guaranteed income. We believe that if the white American businessmen will not give full employment, then the means of production should be taken from the businessmen and placed in the community so that the people of the community can organize and employ all of its people and give a high standard of living.

3. We want an end to the robbery by the white man of our Black Community.

We believe that this racist government has robbed us and now we are demanding the overdue debt of forty acres and two mules. Forty acres and two mules was promised 100 years ago as restitution for slave labor and mass murder of black people. We will accept the payment in currency which will be distributed to our many communities. The Germans are now aiding the Jews in Israel for the genocide of the Jewish people. The Germans murdered six million Jews. The American racist has taken part in the slaughter of over fifty million black people; therefore, we feel that this is a modest demand that we make.

4. We want decent housing, fit for shelter of human beings.

We believe that if the white landlords will not give decent housing to our black community, then the housing and the land should be made into cooperatives so that our community, with government aid, can build and make decent housing for its people.

5. We want education for our people that exposes the true nature of this decadent American society. We want education that teaches us our true history and our role in the present-day society.

We believe in an educational system that will give to our people a knowledge of self. If a man does not have knowledge of himself and his position in society and the world, then he has little chance to relate to anything else.

6. We want all black men to be exempt from military service.

We believe that Black people should not be forced to fight in the military service to defend a racist government that does not protect us. We will not fight and kill other people of color in the world who, like black people, are being victimized by the white racist government of America. We will protect ourselves from the force and violence of the racist police and the racist military, by whatever means necessary.

7. We want an immediate end to POLICE BRUTALITY and MURDER of black people.

We believe we can end police brutality in our black community by organizing black self-defense groups that are dedicated to defending our black community from racist police oppression and brutality. The Second Amendment to the Constitution of the United States gives a right to bear arms. We therefore believe that all black people should arm themselves for self defense.

8. We want freedom for all black men held in federal, state, county and city prisons and jails.

We believe that all black people should be released from the many jails and prisons because they have not received a fair and impartial trial.

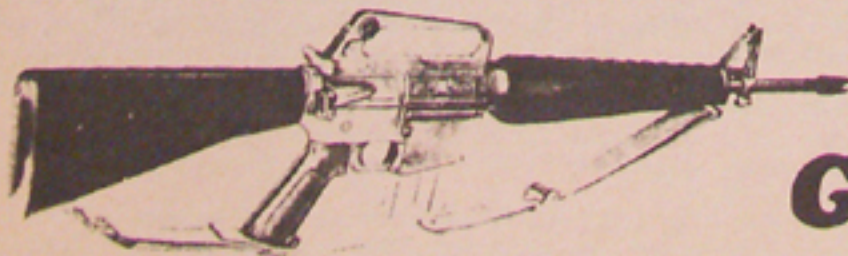

9. We want all black people when brought to trial to be tried in court by a jury of their peer group or people from their black communities, as defined by the Constitution of the United States.

We believe that the courts should follow the United States Constitution so that black people will receive fair trials. The 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution gives a man a right to be tried by his peer group. A peer is a person from a similar economic, social, religious, geographical, environmental, historical and racial background. To do this the court will be forced to select a jury from the black community from which the black defendant came. We have been, and are being tried by all-white juries that have no understanding of the "average reasoning man" of the black community.

10. We want land, bread, housing, education, clothing, justice and peace. And as our major political objective, a United Nations-supervised plebiscite to be held throughout the black colony in which only black colonial subjects will be allowed to participate, for the purpose of determining the will of black people as to their national destiny.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That, to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But, when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.

happy, because once a slave becomes happy, then he is totally dehumanized, he is a monkey, or a dog. And even a dog is displeased when his master mistreats him. So you have that kind of lie. And the Vietnamese war is proof of the racism that goes on in the United States. That is, all of the people in Viet Nam who are being victimized, that are being blown to pieces are persons of color; black, brown, red or yellow people. And in the December 1966 issue of Ramparts Magazine there was an article stating the fact that more than 1,000,000 Vietnamese children had been murdered in the Viet Nam war since 1960, in six years more than a million Vietnamese children. So that means that the Vietnamese population is totally depleted because all of those million children possible could have produced five more million Vietnamese people. So yea, the Vietnamese war is a racist war of extermination, the same way the African slave trade was. But check this out; Who was the Secretary of Defense when the Viet Nam war began? Robert McNamara. Not only was Robert McNamara the Secretary of Defense but Robert McNamara was also the President of Ford Motor Company.

Now, in Viet Nam you have a mineral called tin, and you have another mineral called tungsten, and you have another mineral called magnesium. All them cats who drive racing cars know what mags are on the tires. So McNamara, here he is President of Ford Motor Company and Secretary of Defense of the United States government. You see the relationship between the military and the industrial complex. So the Vietnamese government says, "Now look, Mac. You're not going to get anymore of our tin. If Ford Motor Company wants tin to make Mustangs and Camerons out of it, you've got to pay for it. If you come to take it you're going to have to shed your blood. Somebody's going to have to sweep your brains off the ground, cause we not going to let you take it no more. So Robert McNamara got together with another liberal named Kennedy and said, "Look a here. We got theiggers in control, but we not controlling these gooks (that's what they call our brothers in Southeast Asia. That's the way the American Marines refer to the Vietnamese people: as "gooks.") So they said, "Look." We got to control these gooks cause we not getting enough tin. And we want to plaster more Ford Motor Co. automobiles on the billboards of the United States and sell more Ford automobiles. And so the next thing we found out was Kennedy sent over what? He sent 400 advisers. The next figure there were 25,000 Marines. Next figure there was 125,000. Next figure 250,000. Next figure 400,000, next figure 500,000 Marines. And none of us know today how many hundreds of thousands of Marines are over in Viet Nam, murdering people of color because the Vietnamese brothers say that they're going to control the destiny of their community. And so you see international imperialism. The usurping of the authority of one group of people by another group of people, the sending of a foreign, mercenary force into poor people's country, and the robbing of the country of its natural resources in the name of a fight against Communism or Socialism or the advance of Chinese civilization or some other bullshit like that. And the same thing happens in Latin America. The same thing happens in Africa, in the Congo. All of you remember a brother Patrice Lumumba, one of the greatest black men to live. Brother Patrice Lumumba said that all of the mineral wealth of the Congo, all of the natural resources of the Congo are for the Congolese. And he said, "Africa for the Africans." And because he said that, white folks got them some toms together, a tom named Kasavubu and another tom named Tshombe. And then Adlai Stevenson, another white liberal and John Kennedy, another white liberal, and Dean Rusk, another white liberal, the Secretary of State. Adlai Stevenson was Ambassador from the United States to the United Nations. And you know who John Kennedy was. OK? So, they got together and said, "Look a here." We've got to control this Negra. He's getting out of hand." So what did they do? They paid off the toms, they said, "Well, look," to Tshombe. "We'll give you a million dollars if you get rid of Lumumba." So what did Tshombe do? He, along with the American C.I.A., and so-called secret agents from France and England and Belgium soldiers and anti-Castro exiles from Cuba, "gustanos" as they are called in Cuba, got together and they kidnapped brother Patrice Lumumba.

After visiting him, Brother Patrice broke out of jail and they kidnapped him from the Congo, Leopoldville and wouldn't let him broadcast over the radio to the Congolese people. And they chopped him in the neck with a hatchet, in the head with a hatchet. And then one of the toms delivered it to Kolegra in an airport in Elizabethville. They murdered the brother and then put him in an unmarked grave. And he's one of the greatest leaders that Africa ever had. That's what happens to black people. That's what happens to members of the Third World, when they stand up against the oppression of black people who are black, brown, red and yellow in the world, and who was responsible for the brother's murder? The United States government and all these American institutions that people are applauding and clapping and yelling for. The same crackerjack rascists such as Reagan and Rafferty. Those two sissies, and sissies like Humphrey. All those beautiful, courageous black men were murdered in the name of the continuation of racism and murder.

All these black men murdered in the name of White Supremacy, in the name of "democracy" and Yankee "freedom" and the "Defense of the world." And all that tom means, the term, "free world" all it means is that portions of the world where white folks can exterminate anybody, they want to exterminate or muder anybody they want to muder, or exploit anybody they want to exploit, socially segregate anybody they want to segregate. That's all the "free world" means.

And anywhere we are today... in a lie. Here you are on campus... in a lie. If you don't believe it, look at supposedly how graceful the archbishop is around here, look at all the trees, all the open atmosphere, the so-called freshness of the air that stinks with racism. If you take all of this shit out and then you compare all of this with the black community, you won't see anything like this reflected in the community because this is a lie.

This is not the true condition of the people. The people are black, brown, red and yellow and poor white. Those are the human beings in the world. The capitalists are monsters, monsters that have atomic bombs that they say they're going to use in Viet Nam to blow the Vietnamese back into the Stoneage. Why? Because the Vietnamese brothers say that they want to determine the form of government that they have. For that sole reason, for that sole White Supremacy, Curtis Lemay, a general in the United States Armed Forces, went over to Viet Nam. Dig it: All of you should be very paranoid by now. You know why? The reason is that all of the Right Wing is full of generals. General Edmond Rocker, the cat that said that Kennedy should be assassinated, (did you know that Goldwater was a General? You didn't know that?) And then you get a General like Curtis Lemay, who is in charge of the Joint Chiefs of Staff in the armed forces and who developed the Strategic Air Command. And what did he do? He went to Viet Nam and whispered something into the ears of those generals over there. He could have promised them a military coup so that they could go ahead and bomb all of Southeast Asia into the moon and the stars and get a quick so-called military victory. And what you should be doing is taking those people out the world. If you don't take them out the world, if you don't take those generals out the world, they're going to take all of us with... atomic bombs.

What Americans don't realize, black or white, is that a coup is impossible in the United States. They feel that a takeover of the government is impossible. Already you have the government being run by the National Association of Manufacturers called N.A.M. and the military. So you have that situation and at the same time you have politicians who are nothing but servants of the power structure, that is, the National Association of Manufacturers, people like the three Rockefeller brothers who control something like 25, 30, or 40 countries in the world. Rockefeller, the Governor of New York, Nelson Rockefeller, David Rockefeller, the cat who controls, who's President of the Chase-Manhattan Bank, and Winthrop Rockefeller, the Governor of the State of Arkansas. These three cats, together, control most of Latin America. How in the world can three white men, THREE, control all of Latin America and have military oligarchies at their disposal, whole races of mankind, slaves to three white men. That's the kind of madness we're into. And I don't know how many of you out there will continue to tolerate that madness. But in terms of the Black Panther Party, in terms of the black community, in terms of the descendants of Africans, Asians and Latin Americans throughout the world, WE AIN'T GOING FOR IT NO LONGER! If you doubt it, if you doubt it... We were in Cuba this summer, and talked to brothers from all over Africa, Asia and Latin America... that Cuba is a factory of revolution. That's all the Cuban people know. Cuba is a black country. All the black brothers there know that to destroy the imperialist domains of North America, to destroy capitalism to destroy imperialism, and to equally divide all of the wealth in the world among us inhabitants of the world. That's all they understand, and that's all black people in the United States are beginning to understand. Martin Luther King understood it. And because he understood it so well he called for a guaranteed income for every man in the United States. And because he called for that, his brains were blown out. Because Malcolm X said that the struggle was one of human rights rather than civil rights, his brains were blown out. Because Huey Newton said that all black, brown, red and yellow people in the United States and poor whites should be free and should have the power to determine the destinies of their own communities, because he said that he was put in jail for 2 to 15 years because he acted on the principle. We maintain that political power comes through the barrel of a gun. And if you want campus autonomy, if the students want to run the college, if the cracker administrators don't go for it, then you control it with the gun. Like the racists on the Board of Trustees for the California State Colleges, the same cracker jacks who are meeting here today, they voted that I should not be allowed to teach at San Francisco State, because of some so-called anti-American remarks that I was suppose to have made in Cuba, remarks like this:

Every time an American mercenary is shot, that's one less cat that's going to be killing us in the United States. That's the truth. That's a fact. Dig this: In Detroit and in Newark (we can not deny it) the 101st airborne division and the 82nd airborne division of the infantry, soldiers from Viet Nam, were sent into the black community. Their ranks had been partially depleted by the victorious fighters in the National Liberation Front. So that when they came into the black community, (it's sad to say because a lot of those soldiers were brothers) their ranks had been depleted because they were criminals fighting against another people of color. And the people defended themselves. The Vietnamese defended themselves... So we said that. That is not a lie; that is the truth. But liars do not dig the truth. They would rather salute and pledge allegiance to toilet tissue and homosexuality than pledge allegiance to the equal distribution of the wealth among all the people of the world.

So what we're saying can be reduced to one simple sentence... very simple, very common, one that can be understood by everybody... WE ARE SLAVES, AND THE ONLY WAY TO BECOME FREE IS TO KILL ALL THE SLAVE MASTERS!
