and even disappointed. It is possible that that through the aid of a heavy investment of capital in order to make "bankable" investments in various areas, particularly in the transportation and industrial sectors, the world may be able to meet the "new world" of the industrial revolution.

It is not to be understood, however, that the intention by an individual or a group of individuals to invest in a particular area is to be taken as a sign of confidence in the future. It is rather a sign of a desire to make a profit.
