CONT.

but by an even more fundamentalist attitude on the right to the maintenance of the status quo and the unwillingness to accept any change, even if it is a change that would improve the lot of the vast majority of the population. The fact is that the right is not only unwilling to accept any change, but is also unwilling to accept any change that would improve the lot of the vast majority of the population.

The rising class in the leadership of a revolution of the people and the masses is the only force that can bring about the necessary changes in the status quo. The necessary changes in the status quo are the only changes that can bring about the necessary changes in the status quo. The necessary changes in the status quo are the only changes that can bring about the necessary changes in the status quo.

THE NEW LEFT AND THE OLD LEFT

There is a growing realization that the old left is no longer the only force that can bring about the necessary changes in the status quo. The new left is a force that is growing in strength and is becoming more and more organized. The new left is a force that is growing in strength and is becoming more and more organized.

SHO HAS THEY TO SAY

"When you think about the draft, and the walls and war machines it is for, we think you are going to fight it - for yourself, and maybe with us for your brothers and sisters all over the country."

Quote from a new SDS pamphlet on the draft -- HELL, NO! - Order now from the N.C.O.

ground facilities and where the basic program should focus. It was agreed that we are not a political party and therefore our only basis was to draw out the best ideas in our ranks and their families and others in a meeting with the complete participation of all.

These concerns, and related to ourselves as a past issue, necessitate a more and more active role in the society. We must not be content with the status quo. We must be active in the society and live for it. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others.

We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others.

In the past, we have been content with the status quo. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others.

We are not interested in the status quo. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others.

needed for any sense of working out the rest with us in some other organized manner.

Finally, what do we mean the simple question about why they should be in jail, or why they should be in the streets of the more general sense. What about those who are not in jail, or why they should be in the streets of the more general sense. What about those who are not in jail, or why they should be in the streets of the more general sense.

PART 2

MODEL PROGRAM

It is not possible to make anything out of this plan. The draft is a high priority in our minds. The resistance system is a high priority in our minds.

We are not interested in the status quo. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others. We must be active in our own lives and in the lives of others.
