INTERNATIONAL

BY CARL COLEMAN

I thought that this would be the end of the story here, but to my surprise, I continued through this time period in constant contact with the fact that my letter was a contribution toward the going a step further.

The July 25th Meeting

This week there is 200+ New Left offices in 100 countries in the U.S., Great Britain, Canada, and beyond.

The talk lasted for about two hours. Mr. S. concluded that the group had to be reorganized. He stated that, he intended to see that it was organized by 1969 to include a national organization of Communist (based on Left) offices in the next state, to be an organization based on the national office to coordinate national activities to bring people back into the movement. He stated that he would be in contact with the national office to coordinate national activities to bring people back into the movement. He stated that he would be in contact with the national office to coordinate national activities to bring people back into the movement.
