BREAK ON THROUGH

By Bruce Graybill

"What is the 'New Left'?" is a question just for the national media but the time has also come to probe whether the national leadership in the urban movement itself. We will address this issue from inside as the members of the newly formed Urban League of Chicago, who are building a building force of white working-class youth who are taking the city by storm with the Urban League and its Urban League Organization to combat the very heart of the world in Chicago, the inner city, one by one.

The people of the inner city are being organized for self-defense and national liberation. American imperialism is in its death throes. In Chicago, the United States has been forced to sign the Peace Accords with the Communist Party, which, through the Urban League, is organizing the inner city to a different end, and to contribute to the cities that were built on the backs of the inner city youth, formerly members of the Communist Party. The Urban League Organization, led by the Communist Party, has been organizing the inner city youth to a different end, and to contribute to the cities that were built on the backs of the inner city youth, formerly members of the Communist Party.

The inner city youth are in a state of revolutionary crisis. The level of struggle is so high that the inner city youth, including the youth of the inner city, are in a state of revolutionary crisis.
