

Glide Again

I watch the sunlight cross the waves
And I've been thinking on those days
Where every breath felt easy, every dawn brand new
The world would hush when you were near
The water whispered soft and clear
I swear that Heaven's edge can feel a lot like you

Times are getting hard, calm is getting rare
But every time I find that shore, I'm right back there
We don't mind what folks might say
We just drift and waterski away
They can watch us chase the glass that they would never dare

(Chorus)
We've got time, dear
You're the girl I knew back when
Don't you love, dear
I'm the boy who'll waterski again
In love with you 'til the end
And I'd glide it all again

The cedar air, the mountain blue
The way the sky keeps shining through
The mirrored calm before the boat begins to hum
The silver spray, the summer's song
The place my heart's belonged so long
If that's not love, I don't know what I've become

(Chorus)

We've got time, dear
You're the girl I knew back when
Don't you love, dear
I'm the boy who'll waterski again
We've got time, dear
You're the girl I knew back when
Don't you love, dear
I'm the boy who'll glide again
In love with you 'til the end
And I'd glide it all again

(Outro)

Glide again
Glide again
Through that still, forgiving water
Glide again

© 2026 Clutchnificent / DoctorClutch. All rights reserved.