Argentina: Hikes and Estancias of Patagonia

FITZ ROY, CERRO TORRE, AND THE PERITO MORENO GLACIER

Some of the most spectacular mountains on our planet are found in Argentina's Los Glaciares National Park, home to the sky-piercing peaks of the Fitz Roy massif. Our hiking journey reveals the very best of this grand-scale paradise where rivers of ice pour down from the Southern Patagonian Ice Field. With two options most days, we'll hike to azure lakes for stunning vistas of glaciers and the famed spires of Fitz Roy and Cerro Torre, and we'll visit the massive ice wall of Perito Moreno, one of Argentina's natural wonders. At day's end in our estancias, including renowned Helsingfors and Cristina, with their exclusive locations, we'll celebrate with home-cooked Patagonian fare and fine Argentine wines.

Itinerary

DAY 1

BUENOS AIRES

Arrive in Buenos Aires, where you are met and transferred to our hotel. We head out for an afternoon exploration of the city, then enjoy a dinner of fine Argentine cuisine. Overnight at hotel...D

DAY 2

CALAFATE / EL CHALTÉN

We fly to Calafate, a small town in the province of Santa Cruz on the banks of glacier-fed Lago Argentino. The gateway to southern Los Glaciares National Park, Calafate is named for the thorny calafate bush, which blooms in the spring with yellow flowers and in summer with purple fruits (it's said if you eat the fruit, you'll return to Patagonia!). An intriguing outpost on the edge of a great wilderness, Calafate has a bit of a wild west feel to it. Leaving Calafate, we sightsee and look for wildlife as we travel to the small town of El Chaltén (1,150'), a world-famous climbing destination set within sight of the imposing form of the Fitz Roy Massif. El Chaltén serves as the gateway to the northern reaches of Glacier National Park. On arrival we check into our lodge, with its great views of Fitzroy. The Fitz Roy Massif and the surrounding peaks rise at spectacular and seemingly impossible angles, sculpted from solid granite into fantastic spires and towers by the tremendous force of the region's glaciers. This complex of peaks and "needles" captivates experienced mountain climbers from all over the world. In the afternoon we take a short hike to the El Mirador de los Condores for stunning views of all the mountains. Overnight at Estancia El Pilar, a country lodge just outside of town...BLD

Hiking Details: 2 hours

DAYS 3-4

MOUNTAIN HIKES

From our welcoming lodge, we enjoy a choice of great hikes with staggering views of glorious peaks, hanging glaciers, multi-hued lakes, and flower-carpeted valleys. Our hiking options bring us to Laguna de los Tres for dramatic panoramic views of the jagged pinnacles of Fitz Roy (11,073'), or to Laguna Torre, a glacial lake offering vistas of the slender spire of Cerro Torre (10,280'). Overnight at Estancia El Pilar...BLD each day

Hiking Details: 8-9 hours, 12 miles on Day 3; 6-7 hours, 11 miles on Day 4

DAY 5

LOMO DEL PLIEGUE TUMBADO / ESTANCIA HELSINGFORS

If the weather is clear, we'll get away from the classic trails and immerse ourselves in the wild, isolated expanse of Patagonia. The Lomo del Pliegue Tumbado is a chain of three hills (4,400'-5,000') that lie between the Rio Fitzroy and the Rio Tunel. Starting right from the park headquarters, we follow a trail that leads to one or more miradores (viewpoints). Our hike brings us through a range of environments, from forest to steppe, and rewards us with an unconventional 360-degree panorama of Cerro Torre, the Fitz Roy Massif, and Lago Viedma. In the late afternoon we transfer to Estancia Helsingfors, a delightful retreat nestled at the base of mountains that drop onto the shores of Lago Viedma in the western region of Los Glaciares National Park. Once

DAY 7

CALAFATE / PERITO MORENO GLACIER

We transfer back to El Calafate, with a packed lunch en route. The sounds here are as amazing at the sight of the glacier's 10-story-high icewall dropping huge chunks of ice into Canal de los Témpanos (Iceberg Channel). We walk along a boardwalk with phenomenal views of the towering wall of ice and the immense Southern Patagonia Ice Field stretching into the distance, and watch as huge blocks of ice splinter from its three-mile-wide face into the turquoise waters of Lago Argentino—a spectacular sight! We return to Calafate in the late afternoon. Overnight at the comfortable Xelena Hotel. Dinner is on your own this evening; your Trip Leader will be happy to make some restaurant recommendations...BL

Our catamaran journey brings us to Estancia Cristina, set in a wonderfully remote location on the north arm of Lago Argentino. Surrounded by glaciers and the snowy peaks of the Andes, Estancia Cristina is a historic former sheep ranch accessible only by boat. Upon arrival, we have time for an easy hike to Laguna de Los Cisnes "Lagoon of the Swan," with wonderful views of crystalline lagoons cradled between massive peaks. We then settle into our comfortable lodgings, and later we enjoy a fine meal and traditional gaucho welcome in this estancia at the end of the world...BLD

Hiking Details: 2 hours

DAY 9

HIKE THROUGH FOSSIL CANYON

By 4WD vehicle, we take mountainous roads to the Upsala viewpoint for a full-day downhill trek through Fossil Canyon. This geological wonderland features glacial erosion where 170 million-year-old marine fossils have been left exposed by an ancient ocean. We'll also see interesting flora and fauna like Patagonian nire and lenga trees and enjoy expansive viewpoints throughout the hike looking out over Lake Pearson, Cerro Norte, and the Estancia's Valley. We'll also witness the Upsala Glacier in all its majesty, as well as Lake Guillermo, Cerros Cono, the Southern Patagonian Continental Icefield, and perhaps even an Andean condor soaring above the colorful terrain. Return to Estancia Cristina for a relaxing evening by the fire...BLD

After a picnic lunch, we descend via an alternate path bordering the Cristina Canal of Lago Argentino. We return to the estancia and board a boat for a ride back across Lago Argentino to Calafate. This evening, we gather for a festive Farewell Dinner. Overnight at Xelena Hotel...BLD

One of the most stunning natural wonders in the world, Iguazú Falls stretches a full mile across the Rio Parana, with 275 separate cascades—one third on the Brazilian side, two thirds on the Argentinian side—laced with rainbows and plunging hundreds of feet in a mist-shrouded subtropical landscape, truly an other-worldly spectacle. The cascades form part of the Iguazú National Park, known for more than 400 different species of birds. A walk along the footbridges of the park is a chance to spot colorful toucans and other birds. The park was declared a Natural World Heritage for Humanity by UNESCO in 1984. The Falls can be reached by paths, footbridges, and Zodiac boats, offering a number of different perspectives.

DAY 2 TOUR ARGENTINE SIDE OF IGUAZÚ FALLS

Meet your guide first thing in the morning to take the train to Devil's Throat Lookout (the early morning start avoids the crowds). FRANCO BALDINELLI

Franco ("Frasco") Baldinelli was born in cosmopolitan Buenos Aires but ever since childhood, his dream was to live in Patagonia. After getting his degree in Tourism, he moved to Ushuaia, the southernmost city in the world, and he has been a guide for 10 years. He has a true passion for this spectacular part of his home country, a terrific knowledge of the people and natural history of the area, and a great sense of humor. He speaks good English, fluent Italian, and of course, Spanish, his native tongue. When not guiding, Frasco spends most of his free time hiking and camping in the Patagonian mountains and he also enjoys birding and photography.

CARLOS LEON

Carlos Leon was born in central Chile and has lived in Patagonia since he was a child. He has been a member of the Wilderness Travel Patagonia team since 1996, first as a driver and local guide, and then as a Trip Leader. Carlos says, "I live in a wonderful place, surrounded by amazing sights and people, and my desire is to share it with travelers. There can be no better calling than this." A tireless master of details with an easygoing nature, Carlos knows all the hiking trails of Los Glaciares and Torres del Paine national parks intimately, and has a genuine passion for trekking and outdoor life. Having studied anthropology and sociology, he also loves sharing cultural aspects, with an emphasis on the people who inhabit this unique region of the globe. He lives in Puerto Natales, gateway to Torres del Paine, where he likes to tackle some of Patagonia's toughest hikes, then relax by repairing computers!

ROB NOONAN

Rob Noonan came by his love of nature and the mountains early, adventuring throughout most of the Americas from Alaska to Tierra del Fuego and later earning a degree in environmental studies from Prescott College in Arizona. He has guided our Patagonia journeys since 1994, our hikes in the spectacular European Alps since 2007, and he is also our "northern ambassador" to Iceland and Greenland. In between trips, Rob lives in Flagstaff, Arizona, where he enjoys hiking and river rafting.

KAREN LUND PETERSEN

Karen Lund Petersen, born and raised in Buenos Aires, has a degree in Environmental Science and a passion for sharing nature with people--especially Patagonia's wild nature. She now lives with her family in a small village in the forests of northern Patagonia. When not out guiding our trips, she works in her vegetable garden, teaches sustainability, and lectures on food production and consumption. "I love how wild Patagonia still is. When you travel here, you feel a deep respect for the powers of nature—the strong winds, the vast openness, the magnificent granite walls, glaciers, plants, and animals... I love it all. And I especially love sharing it with others."

DEPARTURE

Buenos Aires, Argentina

Suggested Airport: Ministro Pistarini Int'l Airport (EZE)

Suggested Date & Time: Day 11, after 9:00 pm

At the end of the trip on Day 11, we have an afternoon flight from Calafate to Buenos Aires. You will be transferred from the domestic to the international airport for your departing flight. Please allow three to four hours for the transfer time and check-in for your departure. If you are departing on a different day, a transfer from your Buenos Aires hotel to the airport can be arranged at additional cost.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRAVEL

You are responsible for making your own arrangements for flights to and from Argentina. Please note the international flights to and from Buenos Aires are usually overnight and arrive the day after they depart, so you will need to depart from the US the day before your trip begins so you arrive on Day 1.

We recommend at least a two-hour connection time at the gateway city for the international flight to Buenos Aires. Although shorter connecting times are legal, you want to allow some time in case your domestic flight is delayed.

There are many online consolidators for booking travel, but for more personal help arranging air transport, you can contact Exito Travel at 1-800-655-4053 in the US or 1-800-670-2605 in Canada. They are very adept at putting flight itineraries together, to even the most far-flung places. More information can be found on Exito's website at www.exitotravel.com.

The name on your airline ticket must match the name on your passport exactly, and your passport must be valid for at least six months after your date of return to the U.S.

Please do not purchase your tickets until you are confirmed on the trip and have reviewed your proposed air schedule with our office. Once your tickets have been purchased, please send us a copy of your airline schedule so we can reserve your airport transfers.

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is Level 3+, Moderate to Strenuous. The hiking will be physically demanding at times (but we do offer shorter hiking options on the two longest hiking days). Most of the hiking takes place below altitudes of 5,000 feet. For the most part, the trails are not overly rugged or difficult, but the approaches and descents can be steep, and the trail conditions rocky or muddy. There are also some long driving days across the steppes, and everyone should be prepared for bumpy, dusty road conditions. Please note that your leader may make adjustments to the itinerary and hiking routes, depending on local weather and trail conditions. We recommend you make a special effort to get in good physical condition for this trip. The better condition you are in, the more you will enjoy your experience. We suggest you begin training several months before departure. Start gradually by doing hikes, running, using a Stairmaster, or riding bikes. The object is to improve your overall aerobic capacity and get your hiking muscles limbered up. Even a brisk 30-45 minute walk every other day over moderately steep terrain can do wonders for your conditioning.

WEATHER

With its deep southern latitude, you might expect Patagonia's weather to be more "polar" than it really is. In fact, the austral summer temperatures are relatively moderate. During Patagonia's "summer months" (November through March in the Southern Hemisphere), the thermometer rarely drops below 40°F and will usually reach into the high 60s and even low 70°Fs during the day. Nevertheless, the weather is radically changeable. Rain, sleet, and snow can occur at any time—perhaps just a few hours before or after sunny skies and 70°F temperatures. The enormous, unbroken stretches of ocean to the west and south of southern South America leave the Patagonian Andes exposed to the strong winds that circle the Antarctic continent. Experiencing these winds is almost inevitable on any Patagonian journey. The winds can occasionally gust up to 100 miles per hour, quickly "cooling down" an otherwise pleasant day. You should be prepared for this by wearing layered clothing and always having a rain and/or wind suit handy.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT TRIP

Adventure travel often involves exotic destinations, unusual levels of physical exertion, or activities you may not have participated in previously. We work hard to help you choose the right trip for you, paying attention to your individual interests, abilities, and needs. If you have questions about the level of comfort or any of the activities described in this itinerary, please call Wilderness Travel at 1-800-368-2794 and ask for the Latin America Manager or email us at latinamerica@wildernesstravel.com.

We are very proud to have one of the highest rates of repeat travelers in the business, and have established the Wilderness Travel Toucan Club to reward you for your loyalty. For more information, please visit the Toucan Club page of our website at www.wildernesstravel.com/toucan.

Here's how it works:

YOUR FIRST TRIP

As a first-time traveler, you receive a lightweight Wilderness Travel T-shirt and set of durable WT Luggage Tags. On subsequent trips, we're happy to send you a new WT T-shirt and set of Luggage Tags by request.

YOUR SECOND TRIP

A top quality Wilderness Travel insulated stainless steel water bottle by CamelBak and a cozy Wilderness Travel fleece vest by Patagonia ($130 value).

YOUR THIRD TRIP

A versatile Wilderness Travel R-1 pullover by Patagonia ($140 value).

YOUR FOURTH TRIP

Discounts on the cost of your trip begin! You receive a 4% discount on the tour cost.

FIVE AND MORE TRIPS

You receive a 5% discount on the base trip cost. On your sixth trip, you receive a 6% discount, and so on up to your 10th trip. The maximum discount is 10%, with a ceiling of $500.

Note: Due to special pricing considerations, Toucan Club discounts do not apply to our Private Journeys or Special Events. However, your participation on these trips does count toward your Toucan discount on future departures of Wilderness Travel's regular adventures.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Toucan Club travel discounts cannot be used in conjunction with any other discount, unless otherwise specified. Discounts are deducted from the base trip cost and shown on the final invoice. The base trip cost is the main land/tier cost and does not include single supplement fees, extensions, internal airfare, or other additional charges. Bonus gifts (T-shirts, luggage tags, vests, water bottles, and pullovers) will be mailed approximately three weeks prior to trip departure. Terms and conditions of Toucan Club bonuses are subject to change or cancellation at the discretion of Wilderness Travel, Inc.

Please be advised that California has established a Travel Consumer Restitution Fund under the California Seller of Travel Law that took effect January 1, 1996. This fund is designed to protect consumers from unscrupulous practices by discount airfare ticket sellers or air charter operators. Unfortunately, this law does not cover non-California residents and, even in the case of California residents, it does not cover any foreign travel where the foreign "providers of transportation or travel services" are not in compliance with the Sellers of Travel Law (compliance being defined as registered as a Seller of Travel in California and a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund). Thus none of Wilderness Travel's tours qualify and we are required by law to advise each client that they are not covered by the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. California law requires sellers of travel to maintain a trust account or bond. This business has a trust account. California Seller of Travel #100769640
