With its own language, culture, cuisine, and some of the most gorgeous hiking trails in Europe, Basque Country is a world apart. We'll hike the coast, the mountains, and iconic stretches of the pilgrim trail to Santiago de Compostela on this insider's journey into Basque life. Eating well is the second religion of the Basques, and we'll have classic lunches among farmers and fishermen, taste local mountain cheeses, go pintxo-hopping in the foodie capital of San Sebastián, and enjoy a festive meal at a Michelin-starred restaurant.

Itinerary

DAY 1

BIARRITZ, FRANCE / VILLEFRANQUE

We meet this morning in the stylish Basque resort of Biarritz, with its long beachfront promenade and white lighthouse set along the French Côte des Basques. This former fishing village transformed itself into an elegant resort a century and a half ago with the arrival of Napoleon III and his wife, the Empress Eugenie. We transfer to Bayonne, and begin our hike from the market square, walking upstream along the Nive River's left bank (Errobi, in Basque). Our trail, an ancient towpath, had been used in the past by pilgrims coming across the river to walk to Santiago de Compostela, and it delivers excellent views of the mountains of Larrun and the Roncesvalles Pass. We'll hike to the small, scenic village of Villefranque and enjoy a light lunch. In the afternoon, we head to our hotel in the picturesque village of Ainhoa. In the evening, we gather for our Welcome Dinner...LD

Hiking Details: 3-3.5 hours; 7.5 miles; fairly level path

Driving Details: 1 hour total

Note: Biarritz is the meeting point for the trip on the morning of Day 1 and is easily reached by train or air. You will need to arrive in Biarritz the day before the trip starts. Please refer to the Arrival and Departure page for hotel recommendations.

LIZARRETA / NEOLITHIC MONUMENTS / ZUGARRAMURDI

Today's hike brings us through the green mountains of the Basque Pyrenees, a pristine pastoral setting unchanged over the centuries. We begin hiking at the Lizarreta Pass (1,443'), an ancient border crossing between Spain and France. Border milestones mark our trail on the crest of the hills, and we enjoy breathtaking views on both sides of the Pyrenees, which extend to the ocean. From the Three Milestones Point, we skirt the peak of Atxuri and hike to a prehistoric shepherds' cemetery characterized by stone monuments—large circles of family tombs and dolmens of tribal chiefs from 2,500-3,500 years ago—to the Collado de Ibañeta (1,703'). From here we have two options to reach Zugarramurdi (720'), noted as the village of witches who were burned by the Spanish Inquisition in 1609. For centuries, this Basque region was considered the witchcraft capital of Europe; the town has a witches museum and nearby "Witch Caves." We can descend directly through a pine forest and along a historical path, or climb the hill of Airagarri (1,950'), the highest point of the day, and descend across steep grassy slopes to the Collado de Urbia (1,900') where the bus will pick us up and take us to Zugarramurdi. We have lunch in an old local tavern, then return to our hotel for dinner and overnight...BLD

Hiking Details: 7.5-8 miles, 4.5 hours; maximum elevation 1,950 feet; 257 or 507 feet ascent/983 or 50 feet descent (both depending on option)

DAY 3

FROM FRANCE TO SPAIN ON THE CAMINO / THE STORIED RONCESVALLES PASS / HEMINGWAY'S PAMPLONA

El Camino de Santiago, the trail to the holy city of Santiago in Spain, was the most important Christian pilgrimage during the Middle Ages and still draws thousands of pilgrims each year. Before starting our hike, we visit St. Jean Pied de Port, the gate of the Spanish Camino, and have our “pilgrim passports” stamped. From the landmark Cross of Biakorre, we join pilgrims from all corners of the world and begin following this legendary trail from France into Spain, winding through Basque farmlands and enjoying the wonderful trailside camaraderie. After a picnic of Basque specialties, we descend through beech forests, glimpsing the towers of the massive Abbey of Roncesvalles in the distance as we approach the historic village of Roncesvalles. This ancient pilgrim town will welcome us with its history and legends. It is famed as the spot where the Basques defeated Charlemagne’s army in 778—a battle that changed the course of European history. Roland the Valiant, Charlemagne’s greatest knight, was slain here, and his story preserved in the medieval romance “Le Chanson de Roland.” The abbey is a fine example of Gothic architecture and has been a pilgrim stop for a millennium. After exploring the abbey, we head to Pamplona (or Iruña, as it is known in Basque), ancient capital of the Kingdom of Navarre. Ernest Hemingway came here regularly with his band of Bohemian ex-pat friends in the 1920s to attend the city’s annual Festival of San Fermín and the “running of the bulls.” His masterpiece, The Sun Also Rises, tells the tale of his summer here in 1925. At our historic hotel, the Gran Hotel La Perla, set on a corner of the Plaza del Castillo in the Old Town, some rooms still preserve furniture and personal objects of renowned guests such as Hemingway, Orson Welles, and Ava Gardner. Dinner tonight is at a historic restaurant in the heart of Pamplona’s Old town where we’ll dine on traditional Basque cuisine—their specialty is bull’s tail with red wine, typical during the Festival of San Fermín and the running of the bulls...BLD

Hiking Details: 7 miles; 4 hours; maximum elevation 4,787 feet; 1,099 feet ascent/1,624 feet descent

DAY 4

HIKING THE HIGH COUNTRY OF NAVARRE / THE MOST BEAUTIFUL HIKE ON THE CAMINO DE SANTIAGO / HISTORIC PAMPLONA

The mysterious Romanesque chapel of Eunate is the starting point for our hike across one of the most classic and beautiful stretches of El Camino. We hike through ancient Basque lands of wine and grain to reach the town of Puente La Reina, with lunch at a local café where we’ll meet and mingle with pilgrims. Two of the main pilgrim trails, the Camino Frances and the Camino Aragonese, meet here and cross the Arga River, spanned here by the thousand-year-old “Queen’s Bridge.” Back in Pamplona, we have the afternoon free to explore the beautiful Old Town, including Castle Square (Plaza del Castillo), the main gathering spot in the center of the Old Town, lined with cafes. Hemingway would have likely frequented this square while he was writing The Sun Also Rises. The most famous street in Pamplona is Estafeta, the main path the bulls run through during the annual San Fermin Festival. Dinner is your own this evening so you can choose from the many options. Your Trip Leader will be happy to make recommendations, depending on how fancy or local you want to go. Overnight at the Gran Hotel La Perla...BL

Hiking Details: 4 miles; 2.5 hours; maximum elevation 1,700 feet; 407 feet ascent/560 feet descent

Driving Details: 1.25 hours

DAY 5

THE BANDITS TRAIL / HONDARRIBIA

Today's hike begins in the quintessentially Basque village of Lantz, birthplace of some of Europe's oldest popular traditions including its ancient Carnival. Our path brings us through fields and forests on a cobblestone road frequented in the past by warriors, smugglers, and murderous bandits, and leads to a lost and abandoned 11th-12th century monastery in the heart of the mountains. We'll have lunch at an atmospheric guesthouse in Almádoz, a rural retreat frequented by shepherds, hunters, and local farmers. From here it's an hour's ride to coastal Hondarribia and our parador, set on a hill in Hondarribia's Old Town. Constructed over the course of centuries, the parador has immense stone walls that frame the outer courtyard, a great place to enjoy a drink and views to the coast of France. Dinner at a local restaurant and overnight at hotel...BLD

DAY 6

COASTAL HIKE / SAN SEBASTIÁN: CULINARY CAPITAL / "PINTXO CHALLENGE" / PLAYA DE LA CONCHA

San Sebastián is one of the most entrancing coastal cities in Europe—and a renowned culinary capital. Our beautiful walk today starts at the top of

Itinerary (cont'd)

Mount Igeldo with breathtaking views of the Bay of Biscay. We'll descend by cable railway to San Sebastián's Old Town on the far side and visit the historic Mercado de la Brecha, a unique fish market in the medieval area of town. Lunch will be a "pintxo challenge," as we walk from bar to bar to find the tastiest ones in town (pintxos are Basque "tapas"). The afternoon is free to explore Donostia (as San Sebastián is known in Basque), with its Belle Epoque architecture and tree-lined plazas. The long Playa de la Concha is the city's great backyard, a picturesque sweep of sandy beach that fronts gently lapping seas. Later, we visit a "Txoko" in Hondarribia for a special dinner. "Txokos" (also called "Sociedades Gastronomicas") are private, closed culinary societies where, traditionally, Basque men gather to cook and spend time together around the dinner table. Non-members are not permitted without special invitation, so most tourists never get to experience this aspect of Basque culture—but we will! Our meal will be based on some of the best fish recipes, depending on the catch of the day. Overnight in the parador...BLD

Hiking Details: City walk, 3-4 miles

DAY 7

SEASIDE VINEYARDS OF GETARIA / THE ICONIC GUGGENHEIM / FINE DINING IN BILBAO

We hike part of the coastal pilgrim trail this morning from Zarautz to Getaria, a charming fishing village nestled into one of the most beautiful harbors on the Basque coast. The harbor is alive with activity, and this region is the cradle of Txakolina, the refreshing white wine enjoyed throughout Basque country. We'll sip some as we enjoy a lunch of the freshest fish imaginable right on the docks. After exploring the harbor, we make an early arrival in Bilbao in time for our private tour of the famous Guggenheim Museum, the landmark building designed by Canadian-American architect Frank Gehry. Since its inauguration in 1997, this striking temple of contemporary art has transformed the entire city into a cultural metropolis. In the evening, we gather for a festive Farewell Dinner at our hotel, a classic European-style hotel in downtown Bilbao. Overnight at Hotel Carlton...BLD

Trip Cost, Payment & Insurance

TRIP COST

Prices are per person, valid through 2024

$6295 (12-15 members)

$6895 (5-11 members)

Single supplement: $945

2025 Trip Costs: Please call for details

To offer the lowest possible cost, our trips are priced according to the number of participants on the trip. All costs are per person, based on double occupancy. If you wish to have a single room, you must pay the single supplement fee. Please note that Wilderness Travel staff, or guests of Wilderness Travel such as travel writers, photographers, or leaders-in-training, are not included in the tier pricing count.

CURRENCY EXCHANGE RATE

Due to the volatility of currency markets, we can only offer the most competitive pricing on our trips in Europe by partially tying the trip cost directly to the value of the Euro. In the late spring of 2023, when we set the rates for our 2024 program, the US Dollar equaled .94 Euros. While in most years, no price changes are ever necessary, if there were to be a significant change in exchange rates, we may be forced to raise or able to lower our trip cost; if so, your final invoice, sent two weeks before your final payment is due, will reflect the difference. Please note that the calculation will not be a straight proration. While most of the trip cost is paid in Euros, the remainder of our expenses are paid in US Dollars. The overall effect is to moderate any change; thus, if the Euro were to rise in value, the land price would rise less than might be expected, and if the Euro were to fall, the drop in trip cost would also be less than might be expected.

TRIP COST INCLUDES

- Expert leadership of a Wilderness Travel Trip Leader and local guides
- Accommodations in hotels
- All meals included except 1 dinner
- A glass of wine or beer with dinner
- Land transportation as noted

TRIP COST DOES NOT INCLUDE

International airfare, transfers for independent arrival or departure, airport departure taxes, any meals not specified after each itinerary day, optional activities, optional tipping or gratuities to leaders or staff, hotels en route, any additional hotel nights that may be necessitated by international airline schedule changes or other factors, pre-trip expenses of medical immunizations, visa fees, travel insurance, and other expenses of a personal nature (alcoholic beverages, laundry, etc.).

PAYMENT SCHEDULE

At time of reservation: $600

90 days prior to departure: Balance

CANCELLATION AND TRANSFER FEE SCHEDULE

Up to 91 days prior to departure: No charge!

61-90 days prior to departure: 25% of trip cost

46-60 days prior to departure: 50% of trip cost

45 days or less: 100% of trip cost

TRAVEL INSURANCE

We highly recommend you purchase travel insurance. You can take advantage of a comprehensive Travel Protection Plan designed for Wilderness Travel by Travelex, or purchase other insurance on your own. See our website for details: www.wildernesstravel.com/insurance

Accommodations

HOTEL ARGI EDER

Ainhoa, France

Days 1 to 2 (2 nights)

This quiet hotel is within walking distance of the center of Ainhoa, one of Les Plus Beaux Villages de France (the most beautiful villages of France). Like many other hotels in France, it is family-run. Guest rooms are comfortable, airy, and spacious, and there is a swimming pool and lovely gardens in which to relax after a day of hiking.

GRAN HOTEL LA PERLA

Pamplona, Spain

Days 3 to 4 (2 nights)

Located right on the Plaza del Castillo in Pamplona's Old Town, the Gran Hotel La Perla has the ideal location (and has had it since 1881). One side of the hotel faces the plaza and the other faces Estafeta Street, one of the main routes in the Running of the Bulls. Previous guests have included Ernest Hemingway, Orson Welles, and Charlie Chaplin. The hotel was completely renovated in 2007 with superb modern amenities to add to its historic charm. It is one of the Leading Hotels of the World.

PARADOR DE HONDARRIBIA

Hondarribia, Spain

Days 5 to 6 (2 nights)

The Parador de Hondarribia, set on a hill in Hondarribia's Old Town, is built into the ruins of the medieval fortress of Charles V. The hotel's design incorporates the massive outer wall of the old fortress and the terrace along the wall is a great place for a drink and panoramic sunset views across the marina. The hotel's interior is decorated with tapestries, carved wooden chests, and other items that reflect the parador's history, and rooms are well appointed.

HOTEL CARLTON

Bilbao, Spain

Day 7 (1 night)

The Hotel Carlton, built in 1919, is an impressive Beaux Arts monument in the grand style of its era. It is centrally located in the Old Town on Plaza de Federico Moyúa and just a short walk to the Guggenheim Museum. The hotel was the seat of the Basque government during the Spanish Civil War.

These are our signature accommodations for this trip. Although it is highly unlikely, we may make substitutions when necessary. To see more photos and descriptions, please visit our From France to Spain: Hiking in the Basque Country webpage and click on “Accommodations.”

Arrival & Departure

Upon confirming your trip reservation, we will send you a Welcome Packet that includes a list of documents (passport, visas, etc.) required for your trip. Please feel free to call if you would like this information before making your air arrangements.

ARRIVAL & MEETING PLACE

Biarritz, France

Suggested Airport: Biarritz Airport (BIQ)

Suggested Date & Time: Any time prior to Day 1.

Meeting Place: You will meet your Trip Leader in the lobby of the Hotel de Silhouette in Biarritz at 9:00 am on Day 1.

Come dressed for hiking, with your daypack handy. There will be a short meeting with the group at the hotel, and the trip briefing will take place during our first hike.

Taxi from the Biarritz Airport to the hotel is the preferred choice (approximately €20). Given the meeting time and place, you need to arrive in Biarritz at least one day before the trip begins. We recommend the Hotel de Silhouette, which we can book for you at an additional cost:

www.hotel-silhouette-biarritz.com.

Most international connections via Amsterdam, Paris, and other European cities fly to Biarritz. Biarritz is also accessible from Paris by TGV train.

DEPARTURE

Bilbao, Spain

Date & Time: Day 8, depart anytime

Suggested Airport: Bilbao Airport (BIO)

Trip members will transfer to the airport on their own, but the Trip Leader will help advise. The bus to the Bilbao Airport runs every 15 minutes and stops right in front of the Hotel Carlton. The ride to the airport takes 15-20 minutes. The cost is €2 per person. Taxis to the airport from the hotel cost approximately €30.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRAVEL

You are responsible for making your own arrangements for flights to and from Europe.

There are many online consolidators for booking travel, but for more personal help arranging air transport, you can contact Exito Travel at 1-800-655-4053 in the US or 1-800-670-2605 in Canada. They are very adept at putting flight itineraries together, to even the most far-flung places. More information can be found on Exito's website at www.exitotravel.com.

Depending on your routing, it is necessary to depart from the US one or possibly two days prior to Day 1 of the trip itinerary. The name on your airline ticket must match the name on your passport exactly, and your passport must be valid for at least six months after your date of return to the US.

Please do not purchase your tickets until you are confirmed on the trip. Once your tickets have been purchased, please send us a copy of your airline schedule. It is your responsibility to ensure your flight times coordinate with the arrival and departure logistics for this trip.

Trip Leaders

Wilderness Travel Trip Leaders have a passion and a joy for creating an unforgettable journey. We are extremely proud of them and the incredible travel experiences they make possible. For more information, including client comments about them and which specific trips they will be leading, please visit our webpage and click on “Trip Leaders”: www.wildernesstravel.com/trip/france-spain-basque-country-hiking-tour/

JOSU ARTETXE

Josu Artetxe is a native of Basque country with a deep love for his land and culture. He lives with his family in an old farmhouse, where he devotes his time to organic agriculture. Josu is an enthusiastic traveler who speaks six different languages and over the last 20 years has traveled solo all over Europe and South America. When not guiding, he works as a freelance editor of books on the traditional cultures and languages of northern Spain.

JOSERRA COMBARRO

Joserra Combarro, a native of Bilbao, Spain, received a degree in law school but has never practiced as a lawyer, working instead for Bilbao's city council until he decided to become a mountain guide. “I love being a Trip Leader in the land I was so lucky to be born in. Basque Country has everything—mountain trails, woodlands, beaches, wine country, tiny, unknown villages, and our own Basque language, culture, and sports—what more could you ask for? I especially love the sea, so a hike along the beach and a swim afterwards is one of my favorite things to do.” Joserra is an energetic traveling companion and a wonderful guide to the hiking trails and hidden corners of northern Spain. Besides hiking and swimming, his passions include running, food and wine, music, and reading. His worldwide travels have taken him to such distant spots as Vietnam, Brazil, and Equatorial Guinea.

FLORENCIA SAVANTI

Florencia “Flor” Savanti is an anthropologist, community organizer, and Trip Leader with a deep connection to the Basque culture and countryside. Born in Argentina, her love of the outdoors took root when she worked as an archaeologist in the wilderness of Patagonia for 15 years, and has followed her ancestral roots back to Northern Spain in 2002 where she now lives with her family. She has served as an archaeological consultant for the Basque Museum of Bilbao, and has led hiking trips in the Basque country and the Pyrenees for more than a decade. When not guiding, Flor stays actively involved in anthropological work for several community-based programs in the Basque country and afar. Her current projects promote women's literacy and empowerment in the Karakoram mountains of Pakistan and the arid steppes of Northern Patagonia.

ITZIAR ZORILLA

Itziar Zorilla is a native of the Basque country in Spain and considers the mountains of the Pyrenees her home. An expert climber, she has traveled solo in Europe, Asia, Africa, and South America pursuing higher summits and exploring new cultures. Itziar loves to share her passion for Basque culture, the Pyrenees, and the beauty of Spain. One of her favorite hiking areas is in Anboto, close to Bilbao, where “vertiginous limestone peaks rise just from the valley—the most impressive mountains of our land.” Itziar's personal rules for happiness are many: “Never leave the house without a book, never say ‘no’ to a movie, and never waste an opportunity to go on a trip, whether nearby or far away.”

Trip Details

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated a Level 3+ (Moderate) according to our trip grading system. You will need to be comfortable hiking 9 miles a day and being on your feet for up to 4.5 hours a day. You will also need to be able to keep up with the moderate but steady pace of the group as there are no alternative hiking options available. Trail conditions, weather, and the group's level of fitness can affect hiking times and pacing.

Average Hiking Day

- 5 miles
- 3-4 hours
- 750 feet gain and 550 feet loss

Challenge Days

- Day 3 - 7 miles; 4 hours; 1,099 feet ascent/1,624 feet descent
- Day 5 - 7 miles; 4.5 hours; 1,510 feet ascent/755 feet descent

TERRAIN

On every hike, you can expect varied terrain, including shepherds' trails, wide dirt roads, coastal trails, walks along the rolling countryside, rocky mule tracks, and beautiful sections of the famed Camino de Santiago. The maximum elevation that we hike to is about 4,800 feet. We often drive to a mountain pass each morning to begin our hike, so there is more downhill than uphill and it can be rough on the knees. Hiking poles are highly recommended.

GETTING IN SHAPE

We strongly urge you to train for your trip, as your enjoyment will be highly dependent on your level of fitness. The best training for a hike is to hike, especially over hills or rough terrain. Next best are running, swimming, bicycling, or other cardiovascular exercise. Stair climbing machines are excellent preparation for hiking uphill. Your feet should also be well prepared—make sure your hiking boots are sturdy, comfortable, and thoroughly broken-in.

WEATHER

The weather in Basque country is generally mild, with cool breezes and occasional showers. Daytime temperatures are usually in the 70s°F and nighttime temperatures are in the 50s°F and 60s°F. It is always necessary to bring raingear as the weather can change at any time.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We'll stay in a collection of historic hotels and inns. Since our accommodations are often in historic buildings, the rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Single rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single room, please make your request as early as possible.

CUISINE

Eating well is the second religion of the Basques, and we'll have classic lunches among farmers and fishermen, sample the local mountain cheeses, go pintxo-hopping in the foodie capital of San Sebastián, and enjoy a meal at a Michelin-starred restaurant. Lunches are in local restaurants or picnic-style in local Basque gathering spots, and dinners are in restaurants in town. Please note that in Spain, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure the earliest possible reservations for our groups, but most often the evening meal will be after 8:00 pm.

TRANSPORTATION

Our van will transport the group's luggage, so you only need to carry a daypack for items you need for the day (rain gear, sweater, camera, water bottle, etc.). Trip members are always free to skip a day's hike and travel to the next destination in the support vehicle (or remain at the hotel if we are not transferring that day). Please note that driving times can vary dramatically from what is anticipated based on road conditions.

CHOOSING THE RIGHT TRIP

Adventure travel often involves exotic destinations, unusual levels of physical exertion, or activities you may not have participated in previously. We work hard to help you choose the right trip for you, paying attention to your individual interests, abilities, and needs. Unfortunately, this law does not cover non-California residents and, even in the case of California residents, it does not cover any foreign travel where the foreign "providers of transportation or travel services" are not in compliance with the Sellers of Travel Law (compliance being defined as registered as a Seller of Travel in California and a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund). Thus none of Wilderness Travel's tours qualify and we are required by law to advise each client that they are not covered by the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. California law requires sellers of travel to maintain a trust account or bond. This business has a trust account. California Seller of Travel #100769640

While as accurate as possible at the time of printing, this itinerary should be considered an approximate indication of the schedule and scope of activities and trip routing, rather than an inflexible schedule of events; it is subject to change due to circumstances beyond our control. This trip is subject to the Limitation of Liability and all the terms and conditions as detailed in the General Information section of the Wilderness Travel Catalog.
