The 1,900-mile-long Te Araroa Trail (Maori for “Long Pathway”) traverses New Zealand from the bottom of the South Island to the top of the North Island—it takes hardy “through-hikers” about three months to hike this entire route. For our own Te Araroa adventure, we’ve selected some of the best sections on both the islands, including the lush Queen Charlotte Track, the panoramic “Stairway to Heaven” staircases above the Kapiti Coast, and the memorable Tongariro Alpine Crossing, the best one-day hike in New Zealand. Many delights await along the way, including swimming with dusky dolphins, jetboating on the Whanganui River, sampling superb cuisine and wines, and enjoying New Zealand’s friendly culture.

DAY 1 CHRISTCHURCH, NEW ZEALAND

Welcome to Christchurch, set between the mountains of the Southern Alps and the Pacific Ocean. The largest city on the South Island, it's considered the most English of New Zealand's cities, with flat-bottomed punts gliding on the Avon River and cycling paths hugging the riverbank. Travel by taxi (on your own) to the group hotel, and we'll gather for a trip orientation and Welcome Dinner tonight. Overnight at the Novotel Christchurch Cathedral Square...D

DAY 2 COASTAL TRAIN / SWIM WITH DUSKY DOLPHINS / KAIKOURA COAST

This morning we board the Coastal Pacific train for a scenic ride to the enchanting Kaikoura Coast, inhabited by the Maori for the last 900 years. The original Maori name for Kaikoura was Te Koha O Marokura ("The Gift of Marokura"), named for Marokura, a god who shaped the area with a magical sword. On arrival, we board a boat and head out into the bay to swim with some of Kaikoura's famous local personalities—the playful wild dusky dolphins. With wetsuit, mask, snorkel, and fins (provided), we enter the world of these amazing marine creatures. Overnight at the Sudima Kaikoura Hotel in Kaikoura...BLD

Train Travel: Approximately 3 hours

Snorkeling Details: Approximately 1 hour plus boat ride out and back

DAY 3 PICTON / SHIP COVE HIKE / QUEEN CHARLOTTE TRACK / MARLBOROUGH SOUNDS

Another ride on the Coastal Pacific train brings us to the town of Picton, gateway to the Marlborough Sounds. Here we take a water taxi to Ship Cove, a small bay in the Marlborough Sounds, to start our hike. Captain James Cook anchored the HMS

Endeavour here in January 1770 to replenish supplies during his voyages of discovery into the South Pacific. Cook named the bay Ship Cove and returned to it on four subsequent occasions in 1773, 1774, and 1777, mostly to rest his crews and refurbish and provision his ships. We'll hike through beech forest and across high ridges as we make our way to a lookout point with views of both inner and outer Queen Charlotte Sound. In 2014, Ship Cove was renamed Meretoto/ Ship Cove to recognize its original Maori name. We'll have a pack lunch en route and an overnight at Furneaux Lodge, set in a remote location right in Endeavour Inlet...BLD

Train Travel: 3 hours

Water Taxi: 1 hour

Hiking Details: Approximately 5 hours, 9.5 miles, 2,100 feet ascent/descent

DAY 4 CAMP BAY HIKE / QUEEN CHARLOTTE TRACK / MARLBOROUGH SOUNDS

We cross Endeavour Inlet by water taxi to sheltered Camp Bay, where we start our hike on the Queen Charlotte Track. We'll take a beautiful path that circles back to our lodge by way of a shoreline trail through a native forest brimming with birdlife. The coastal views are stunning along Marlborough Sounds, and we'll see the richness of New Zealand's lush native forest. With a strong commitment to the environment, New Zealand has undertaken intensive programs to eliminate non-native species (possums, rats, etc.) from its forests. The result has been a dramatic increase in the native birdlife of the area, and we should hear wonderful birdsong along the trail. The non-native species also took a toll on the native vegetation, which is now regenerating and benefitting the native bird species. Overnight at Furneaux Lodge...BLD

Water Taxi Details: 20 minutes

Hiking Details: Approximately 4 hours, 7 miles, 600 feet ascent/descent

DAY 5 BOAT TO CAMP BAY / PORTAGE HOTEL

Traveling by boat from Furneaux Lodge to Camp Bay, we set out for a full day's hike with a pack lunch en route. Our trail climbs up to Kenepuru Saddle and follows an undulating ridge that separates Queen Charlotte Sound from Kenepuru Sound. The views are absolutely magnificent. After our hike, we transfer to the Portage Hotel, perfectly placed near the Queen Charlotte Track. For those who don't want to do this long but beautiful hike, there are options for sea kayaking and paddle boarding at the lodge. Dinner and overnight at the Portage Hotel...BLD

Hiking Details: 9 hours, 16 miles, 3,750 feet ascent/descent

DAY 6 QUEEN CHARLOTTE TRACK / PICTON

After breakfast at the lodge, we'll have two hiking options. The first is a full-day hike on the Queen Charlotte Track from our lodge to the coastal village of Anakiwa. We'll enjoy stunning coastal views en route and pass through private farmlands as well as national conservation land. For a shorter hiking option today, we'll offer a coastal hike from Mistletoe Bay to Anakiwa. Whichever hike you choose, you'll enjoy a picnic lunch on the trail. Dinner and overnight in Picton at the Picton Waterfront Apartments, where guests will share two-bedroom apartments...BLD

Water Taxi Details: Approximately 30 minutes

Hiking Details: Approximately 7 hours, 13.6 miles, 3,750 feet ascent/descent (strenuous option); 3.5 hours, 7.5 miles, 300 feet ascent/descent (moderate option)

DAY 7 WELLINGTON / TE PAPA / ZEALANDIA

A short flight brings us to Wellington, an engaging city wedged between the turbulent Cook Strait and Wellington Harbor, where brightly colored sails glide across the water. "Welly," as it is locally known, is backed by hills that restrict it to a compact center, with historic and modern buildings spilling down to the waterfront. We walk to the fascinating Te Papa, New Zealand's national museum, with its state-of-the-art technology, collection of Maori artifacts, and rotating exhibits on New Zealand's colorful history. After lunch at a waterfront restaurant, a shuttle brings us to downtown Wellington for a two-hour birdwatching excursion in Zealandia, an ecosanctuary in the heart of the city featuring rare birds including hihi, kākāriki, and takahē. Dinner is on your own this evening. The Trip Leader is happy to make recommendations so you can choose among many options and go as local or fancy as you like. Overnight at the Sofitel

Wellington...BL

Flight Details: 30 minutes

Walking Details: Approximately 2 hours

DAY 8 STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN / TE ARAROA TRAIL

Today's hike is on the Escarpment Track, better known as the Stairway to Heaven for its nearly 1,200 stairs! The trail winds high above the Kapiti coastline through narrow pathways, across ridgelines, up and down staircases, and traverses two swing bridges. It's a fantastic section of the Te Araroa Trail and we'll have a pack lunch en route and sweeping views of Kapiti Island from high above. In the late afternoon, we drive to the small town of Ohakune at the southern end of Tongariro National Park. Dinner and overnight at the Powderhorn Chateau...BLD

Hiking Details: Approximately 3 hours, 8 miles, 1,500 feet ascent/descent

Drive Details: Approximately 3.5 hours

DAY 9 WHANGANUI NATIONAL PARK / BRIDGE TO NOWHERE / CANOE THE WHANGANUI RIVER

In 1917, New Zealand's government opened the Whanganui Valley for settlement by soldiers returning from the Great War, and about 35 holdings were developed. Bridging the Mangapurua Stream in this valley was a problem, and a timber bridge was built to give the settlers access. A better bridge, known as "The Bridge to Nowhere," was opened in 1936. After a major flood in January 1942, maintenance funds declined and the whole Whanganui Valley was officially closed. Today we'll hear the stories of this abandoned farmland, now regenerating back to its natural podocarp forest as Whanganui National Park, with reminders of the families who once lived here.

We begin with a drive to the tiny riverside settlement of Pipiriki, southern gateway to Wanganui National Park, and take a jetboat upriver about 15 miles through spectacular deep river gorges lush with tree ferns and native vegetation to "The Bridge to Nowhere." Pristine native bush cloaks the banks and there are deep gorges covered with ferns, caves, rapids, and other unique scenery. From the bridge, we hike up an easy grade for about an hour, following in the footsteps of the early pioneers. After a lunch stop near the bridge, we journey by jet boat back down the Whanganui River and board our canoes for a five-mile paddle back to our starting point.

In addition to being spectacular, the Te Awa o Whanganui (Whanganui River) has a fascinating distinction. As of March 2017, it is the first river that has been granted the same legal rights as a human being. The local Maori tribe of Whanganui fought for 140 years for the recognition of their sacred river as an ancestor. The river's new status means if someone abuses or harms it, the law now sees no differentiation between a person and the river because they are one and the same. The river must be treated as a living entity. Overnight at the Powderhorn Chateau...BLD

Driving Time: Approximately 2 hours

Hiking Details: Approximately 1 hour, 2 miles, 600 feet ascent/descent

Canoeing Details: Approximately 2 hours

DAY 10 TONGARIRO ALPINE CROSSING

In Tongariro National Park, New Zealand's oldest national park and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, we'll set out for an amazing hike known as the Tongariro Alpine Crossing. This challenging full-day hike brings us across a volcanic landscape of steaming vents, glacial valleys, vivid crater lakes, and ancient lava flows, and the views are stunning throughout the day. We'll start with a hike up the Mangatepopo Valley to the saddle between Mt. Tongariro and Mt. Ngaruhoe, continue our hike through the South Crater, then hike up again to the Red Crater, the highest point on the crossing. Our descent brings us down volcanic scree into cool, green forests and past beautiful Emerald Lake and Blue Lake to the roadhead. Be prepared for a long and challenging day out—but the splendor of this trail makes it worthwhile. For those who don't want to make the crossing, the Trip Leaders will offer easier hikes to Taranaki Falls or Lake Rotopounamu. Overnight at the Reef Resort in Taupo...BLD

Driving Time: Approximately 1 hour
Tongariro Hiking Details: Approximately 7-8 hours, 12 miles, 2,510 feet ascent/3,690 feet descent

DAY 11 LAKE TAUPO / HUKA FALLS

After yesterday's big hike, we enjoy a relaxed morning at our lakeside resort on the shores of Lake Taupo. We'll take a leisurely walk along the banks of the river to the spectacular cascade of Huka Falls then head to nearby thermal pools, where we can soak our tired bodies in the warm geothermal waters. We'll also visit the Aratiatia Rapids to see water release from the dam, transforming a peaceful gully into raging rapids. We gather for our Farewell Dinner tonight. Overnight at the Reef Resort in Taupo...BLD

Driving Time: Approximately 15 minutes
Hiking Details: Options 1.5-3.5 hours, 4+ miles, 574 feet ascent/descent

Our Guides

MAKE ALL THE DIFFERENCE

Our New Zealand Trip Leaders are the best and most experienced guides in the country, with a gift for bringing history and culture to life. Their long-term friendships with locals and deep knowledge and insights give you the privilege of an authentic insider's perspective as they introduce you to the welcoming people and natural beauty of this wonderful part of the world.

WILLIAM FULLER

William is a New Zealander through and through. He has lived in the Bay of Islands or Bay of Plenty regions his entire life, and loves exploring all this country has to offer. He earned a degree in Mathematics from Auckland University, and was a primary school teacher for 35 years (including being a principal). He has walked the North Island section of the Te Araroa trail in 2015, and is also a keen kayaker of both oceans and lakes. William's interest in Te Reo Māori (Māori language) allows him to translate many of the place names in New Zealand, and assists greatly in identifying local birds and plants.

JON IMHOOF

Jon Imhoof has a degree in Anthropology from the University of Hawaii, where he first began leading hiking and sailing trips in the 1980s. He moved to Queenstown, New Zealand, in 1989, and has since been an innovator in adventure tourism, starting the first river-surfing company in the world in Queenstown, and then also on the Zambezi River in Southern Africa. Jon began leading our hiking trips in New Zealand, and guides our snorkeling and swimming with whales journeys in Tonga, as well as our exploration of the islands of Vanuatu. He loves to show off his adopted homeland of New Zealand. Jon lives in Gibbston, a world renowned pinot noir growing area outside of Queenstown, with his wife Ali and enjoys surfing, kayaking, kitesurfing, scuba diving, mountain biking, and just about anything else outdoors.

ZAC IMHOOF

Born and raised in Tahuna (Queenstown), New Zealand's adventure capital, Zac thrives in the outdoors and is the perfect travel companion on our New Zealand adventures. As the son of beloved WT Trip Leader Jon Imhoof, Zac takes to any adventure like a fish to water and has spent most of his life snowboarding, surfing, climbing, and biking. Zac is right at home in the New Zealand bush and will enlighten you with his knowledge of food foraging, medicinal plants, and traditional uses of plants for weaving baskets, braiding rope, or carving. He has also been fortunate enough to sail around Australia and the South Pacific, becoming well-versed in the ways of the Pacific Ocean and the many cultures that thrive there. Outside of leading trips, Zac started two community-based projects in Ōtautahi (Christchurch), where he helps people be more sustainable through repairing worn goods and upcycling plastic items.

PETER BERSANI

We always love a good expat story and Peter Bersani is no exception. Originally from Boston, Massachusetts, Peter has made his adopted home in the adventurous country of New Zealand for more than 25 years. An avid skier, hiker, and mountain biker, he loves exploring the many trails throughout Queenstown and the South Island, and his background as a chef and winemaker also makes him quite the connoisseur for local flavors. He enjoys a good quality craft beer and is eager to share his favorite places to eat and drink in the area. When not leading trips, you can often find Peter behind the wheel of his classic Alfa Romeo cruising the back roads of Central Otago.

MATT SIRKIS

Born with a passion for wild places, Matty grew up exploring the high desert of Southern California, balancing mountain wanderings with surfing adventures on the coast. Now he splits his time between the dramatic landscapes of New Zealand and the wild expanse of Alaska. Armed with a degree in Outdoor Education, he has led environmental sailing expeditions in the Salish Sea, guided wilderness therapy trips in the Olympic Mountains, and shares the wonders of whales and hiking in Southeast Alaska. When not on the trail or water, Matty develops environmental stewardship programs and helps companies embrace sustainable practices. A passionate forager and hunter, he even brews his own spruce tip beer each spring!

MALIA STAUFFER

Originally from Kailua-Kona, Hawai'i, Malia's love for the natural world runs as deep as the ocean she grew up next to. Chasing endless summers, she splits her time between the scenic wonders of Aotearoa (the Maori name for New Zealand) and Southeast Alaska. Malia holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Strategic and Environmental Communications and Sustainability. Alongside her guiding career, she has worked in digital communications for mission-driven companies, startups, and climate-tech nonprofits, aiming to amplify positive impact across diverse sectors. Her commitment to Kaitiakitanga (guardianship of the environment) is at the heart of her guiding style—she believes connecting with nature is essential for the well-being of both people and the planet. A trip with Malia is a chance to live a little more in tune with the wild.

What the Trip is Like

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated Level 4, Moderate to Strenuous according to our trip grading system, and is for people who enjoy a real hiking challenge.

TERRAIN

The Te Araroa Trail from the tip of the North Island to the very bottom of the South Island connects some of the country's iconic hiking trails, such as the Tongariro Crossing, but often follows paths that range from flat and paved roads to barely discernible routes through nearly impenetrable bush and steep climbs of extended duration. We have selected hikes that are within the description of a “Level 4” Wilderness Travel trip, but we also sample the incredible diversity of the Te Araroa Trail. Although you carry only a daypack, there are some steep ascents and descents and many sections that cross rough or rocky trails. Many trails are not “groomed” but follow the natural contours of the land and are therefore uneven. We will no doubt experience every conceivable type of weather on this trip, so it's best to be prepared.

GETTING IN SHAPE

We strongly urge you to train for your trip, as your enjoyment will be highly dependent on your level of fitness. The best training for a hike is to hike, especially over hills or rough terrain. Next best are running, swimming, bicycling, or other cardiovascular exercise. Stair climbing machines are excellent preparation for hiking uphill. Your feet should also be well prepared—make sure your hiking boots are sturdy, comfortable, and thoroughly broken-in.

WEATHER

Temperatures on the North and South islands in midsummer are generally warm and pleasant with averages in the high 60s and low 70s and minimal rain, but it can get much colder. Since the weather in New Zealand is often variable so we may occasionally have to wait for it to change in order to participate in our planned activities or change our activities to suit the weather. In such a case, we may rearrange the daily itinerary to accommodate the weather conditions. Note: On the Tongariro Crossing (Day 10), you will be hiking in alpine conditions, so be sure to bring the recommended clothing layers.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We spend our nights in small, picturesque inns, full of Kiwi charm and ambiance. The rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Single rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single room, please make your request as early as possible.

CUISINE

One of the highlights of this trip is the chance to enjoy the fresh local food New Zealand is famous for. We'll be close to the source of much of the food we eat, experiencing a variety of dining experiences, most of which will also be memorable for the location and the company. Most lunches will be either a picnic or packed lunch on the trail.

YOUR SECOND TRIP

A top quality Wilderness Travel insulated stainless steel water bottle by CamelBak and a cozy Wilderness Travel fleece vest by Patagonia ($130 value).

YOUR THIRD TRIP

A versatile Wilderness Travel R-1 pullover by Patagonia ($140 value).

YOUR FOURTH TRIP

Discounts on the cost of your trip begin! You receive a 4% discount on the tour cost.

FIVE AND MORE TRIPS

You receive a 5% discount on the base trip cost. On your sixth trip, you receive a 6% discount, and so on up to your 10th trip. The maximum discount is 10%, with a ceiling of $500.

Note: Due to special pricing considerations, Toucan Club discounts do not apply to our Private Journeys or Special Events. However, your participation on these trips does count toward your Toucan discount on future departures of Wilderness Travel's regular adventures.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Toucan Club travel discounts cannot be used in conjunction with any other discount, unless otherwise specified. Discounts are deducted from the base trip cost and shown on the final invoice. The base trip cost is the main land/tier cost and does not include single supplement fees, extensions, internal airfare, or other additional charges. Bonus gifts (T-shirts, luggage tags, vests, water bottles, and pullovers) will be mailed approximately three weeks prior to trip departure. Terms and conditions of Toucan Club bonuses are subject to change or cancellation at the discretion of Wilderness Travel, Inc.

Please be advised that California has established a Travel Consumer Restitution Fund under the California Seller of Travel Law that took effect January 1, 1996. This fund is designed to protect consumers from unscrupulous practices by discount airfare ticket sellers or air charter operators. Unfortunately, this law does not cover non-California residents and, even in the case of California residents, it does not cover any foreign travel where the foreign “providers of transportation or travel services” are not in compliance with the Sellers of Travel Law (compliance being defined as registered as a Seller of Travel in California and a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund). Thus none of Wilderness Travel’s tours qualify and we are required by law to advise each client that they are not covered by the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. California law requires sellers of travel to maintain a trust account or bond. This business has a trust account. California Seller of Travel #100769640
