This ultra-modern 13-room hotel is set within a restored medieval tower in a fantastic location right in the heart of the "Citta Alta," just steps from the central square. Guest rooms are clean and spacious with chic decor, comfy beds, and well appointed bathrooms. The staff is kind and efficient, and the buffet breakfast features homemade jams to go with the wonderful croissants and breads. A caveat: the cathedral is just a block away and the bells start ringing at 7:30 am! (You weren't planning on sleeping in, anyway, were you?)

Hiking Details: 4 miles, 3 hours, 100 feet ascent, 400 feet descent

DAY 1 BERGAMO, ITALY

Arrive in Bergamo, in the foothills of the Alps, and meet with the group and Trip Leader in the early afternoon. After a brief orientation, we set off for a walking tour of this gorgeous town, once the ancient site of Bergomum and later an important Roman hub. We'll explore the "città alta" (upper city), the medieval town of artisans and historic monuments encircled by 17th century defensive walls. The shops and restaurants here sport vintage signage, lending a delightful Old World flavor. We'll also see the Piazza Vecchia, said by the architect Le Corbusier to be one of the most classic squares in the world, as well as the Duomo and Il Campanile, which we can climb up into for a breathtaking view. In the evening we gather for a Welcome Dinner. Overnight at the Gombit Hotel, set on a tiny street in central Bergamo, just a short walk from the cathedral.

DAY 2 CAPO DI PONTE / BORMIO

From Bergamo, we head to the Valcamonica and the town of Capo di Ponte, where we explore a collection of prehistoric stone carvings dating back some 8,000 years. Set in a forested valley, this astonishing rock art—a World Heritage Site—depicts more than 140,000 symbols and figures connected with agriculture, hunting, navigation, war, and magic. It's one of the most extraordinary archaeological sites in all Italy and gives us an insight into the lives of ancient peoples. After a short walk to the beautiful 11th century pieve, or monastery, of San Siro, a perfect example of Romanesque architecture, we head to our jewel of a hotel, the Hotel Bagni Vecchi, perched in a stunning mountainside location overlooking the green Valtellina valley. With its ancient Roman baths, natural thermal spring, and panoramic open-air pool, the hotel's spectacularly set outdoor spa is the perfect place for you to experience this age-old tradition of rejuvenation.

Overnight: Hotel Bagni Vecchi

Perfectly situated in a breathtaking mountain setting, this lovely 36-room hotel is full of character and an amazing place to stay and relax, boasting one of the finest natural hot springs/spas in the world. The resort is the oldest thermal complex in the area; the soothing waters were known to the Romans. With about 30 spa venues and services, including Jacuzzis, waterfall pools, saunas, steam rooms, thermal pools—you'd be remiss not to treat yourself while here. Guest rooms are individually decorated—no two are alike, and the restaurant serves up tasty meals.

DAY 3 BORMIO

Starting right from our hotel, we follow a trail that leads down to the beautiful town of Bormio, renowned for its natural hot springs that fuel the spa baths of our hotel. In ancient times, the Roman aristocracy traveled here to enjoy the therapeutic benefit of its thermal waters, and it was also a stop on the trade route from Venice to Switzerland. Our explorations include the medieval town center, the historic Piazza Cavour, dating back to the Iron Age (550-1200 BC), and the civic museum. The Valtellina is a land of traditional flavors—typical dishes include pizzoccheri (a rustic noodle made of buckwheat flour), sciatt (a beignet filled with cheese), polenta taragna, alpine cheeses like casera, bitto, and scimudin, and bisciola (a cake made with raisins, figs, and nuts). We can try to sample some of these local delights at lunch, and, of course, we'll enjoy the wonderful wines of the Valtellina made from Nebbiolo grape, perhaps the noblest Italian red grape. Braulio, the renowned liqueur of Bormio, is also a local specialty. After our lunch, we return to the hotel with the afternoon free to explore on your own (you might want to try out the thermal baths). Later, we head to the Bagni Nuovi (sister hotel to the Bagni Vecchi), in operation since 1836 and a fine example of Belle Epoque design. We'll enjoy dinner here in the grand ballroom.

DAY 4 BORMIO / VALDIDENTRO / LIVIGNO

Heading north to our trailhead, we stop at the Torri di Fraele, two ancient watchtowers built in 1481 by the Duke of Milan for the defense of Bormio. Our hike in the Valle di Fraele leads to sparkling lakes and up to a wonderful alm, a mountain chalet set in an alpine meadow where cattle graze each summer. These seasonal pastures are owned by local families. For our lunch, we sample cured meats and cheeses, along with specialty polenta and pasta dishes at a local farm stay—even seeing for ourselves the cheese-making process. After lunch, we'll walk across the grassy meadows and arrive at the entrance of the beautiful alpine village of Livigno, set in an enchanting valley surrounded by mountains and offering a wonderful “end of the road” ambiance.

DAY 5 LIVIGNO

A cable car brings us to a mountain ridge for a hike offering breathtaking views of the Alps. In summer, a profusion of alpine flora paints the hillsides in stunning colors. Our spectacular hike begins with a long descent to a welcoming agriturismo where the farm-to-table local specialties include homemade pastas, sciatt (cheese-filled beignets) and cured meats. For an extra indulgence, try a homemade tart with seasonal fruit! We return to our hotel in Livigno for overnight. Dinner is on your own this evening to sample the culinary delights of Livigno's many restaurants. Your Trip Leader will be happy to make recommendations.

Our hike ends in Feldkirch, Austria, a medieval town with many well-preserved buildings, including an interesting Marktgasse, or market alley. Innsbruck was the imperial capital of the Habsburg Empire in the 1490s. Nowadays it is a lively haven for summer hikers and winter sports enthusiasts and was host to the 1964 and 1976 Winter Olympic Games. The historic Maria Theresiastrasse, the main street of the old town, has beautiful porticoed medieval buildings and Baroque structures, including the Goldenes Dachl (House of the Golden Roof), with its 2,600 gilded copper tiles. Joined by a local expert, we explore the old town of Innsbruck, then catch the Nordkettenbahn funicular all the way up to 7,400 feet where we stretch our legs on a short hike and take in a beautiful panorama of the surrounding mountains. We return to town where the rest of the afternoon is on your own to explore before we gather for a festive Farewell Dinner at a local restaurant.

GIANLUCA CANALICCHIO

Gianluca Canalicchio was born and raised in Rome, where his parents moved in 1960 from Umbria, when they left their life of hard work on their farm in search of new opportunities. He has a degree in accounting, and loves dancing, singing opera, and cooking. Gianluca is a devoted follower of the Italian food channel, Gambero Rosso, and friend to many noted chefs. "My cooking teacher is my mother, whose love for cooking always amazed me. I opened a pizza restaurant in Rome and a restaurant in San Francisco, but the problem is I prefer to be a client, not a chef!" Gianluca also loves sports and has competed in triathlon races for many years. Another passion of his is history, which he says "is essential for our times: not understanding the past makes us see the present in a distorted way." When guiding, Gianluca loves taking people to his favorite off-the-beaten-path places and introducing them to local people.

VICKY SOTRIFFER

As an adventure-seeking traveler and Trip Leader, Vicky Sotriffer thrives in new places. She has led trips on nearly every continent for more than 10 years, including sea kayaking trips. Originally from South Tyrol, Italy, Vicky now resides in Ibiza, Spain, and is fluent in a handful of languages. She spends parts of her year in Oman, where she follows her passion for hiking in the country's striking desert environment and diving in the warm waters off the coast (and trying to improve her Arabic along the way). In her free time, she enjoys tennis, rock climbing, horseback riding, and in the winter, she heads to the Dolomites to ski.

ROBERT SOMMER

Robert Sommer holds a PhD from Humboldt University and is an expert on World War II history and the Holocaust. He has worked as an independent historian and exhibition curator for various museums, memorials, and documentaries, including for the BBC. His book on forced prostitution in Nazi concentration camps will be published in the US through Fordham University Press in fall 2024. "I try to make trip members see the magic of a country and its uniqueness, whether it's a visual image, an artifact, or even a local dish— something that stays with you, gives you fond memories, and contributes to your life back home." Currently he teaches Social Science at the IBA University in Berlin. When not working, he enjoys hiking, biking, and cooking. He's also a DJ for a New York radio station and has his own show called From Berlin with Love. Robert lives in Berlin and is fluent in English, German, and Italian.

IRENE DE BENEDICTIS

Originally from Rome, Irene is a physical therapist specializing in Ayurvedic medicine and also a seasoned WT Trip Leader. Her love of different cultures and languages (she knows seven!), paired with her love for hikes and pilgrimages (she walked the Camino de Santiago...twice) makes her a wonderful traveling companion. Irene's father is a member of the Italian congregation of St. James, which is responsible for the upkeep of pilgrim trails from Italy into Spain and Jerusalem, and she has also worked as a "hospitalera" (pilgrims' albergue host) in Italy. Fun fact: Irene wrote a book called

Trip Leaders

Spaghetti and Sauna about the cultural differences between Italy, her home country, and Finland, where she lived for four years.

JAMES FUSS

James Fuss is a trekking guide, photographer, cyclist, and chef extraordinaire. Born and raised in South Australia, James found his wanderlust early on family camping trips across Australia. As a young chef in Europe, he undertook many explorations from the wilds of the British Isles and the Alps to the Himalayas, and later returned to Australia to become a guide in the legendary Outback. A WT leader since 1997, James is always up for an adventure. James is conversant in French, German, and Nepali, and when he's not guiding, he enjoys camping, boating, and fishing with family and friends.

What to Expect

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated a Level 3+, Moderate. You will need to be comfortable hiking 8 miles a day, being on your feet for 3-5 hours a day, and hiking on uneven surfaces including downhill over loose scree. Trail conditions, weather, and the group's level of fitness can affect hiking times and pacing.

Average Hiking Day

- 5-6 miles
- 3-4 hours
- 500-1,000 feet gain/loss
- Altitudes up to 8,800 feet

Challenge Day

- Day 7: 8 miles, 5 hours, 1,700 feet gain, and 2,500 feet loss

TERRAIN

While not technically difficult and staying in moderate to low altitudes, this trip is aimed at those who have at least some experience mountain hiking. We will hike on variable hill and mountain trails, with occasional steep, uneven sections with loose scree, so participants must have good balance and be confident on their feet. Hiking poles are highly recommended.

WEATHER

As with all mountain environments, the weather can be unpredictable. Summer temperatures can range from the low 70s°F to 80s°F, with nighttime temperatures in the mid-40s°F. Rain showers are a possibility at any time.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We spend our nights in picturesque inns, full of charm and character. All hotels are chosen for their local history and central locations. Since they are often in historic buildings, the rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Single rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single room, please make your request as early as possible.

CUISINE

Each day, we'll sample the culinary delights that these countries have to offer. The meals included in the trip itinerary will be taken at our hotels, at rural agriturismos, and at restaurants in the towns, with the occasional packed lunch to enjoy in a scenic spot on our hike. For lunches and dinners "on your own," the Trip Leader will be happy to recommend options for local restaurants. Please note that in Europe, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure early reservations for our groups, but most often the evening meal will be at 7:30 pm.

TRANSPORTATION

Our van will transport the group's luggage, so you only need to carry a daypack for items you need for the day (rain gear, sweater, camera, water bottle, etc.). Trip members are always free to skip a day's hike and travel to the next destination in the support vehicle (or remain at the hotel if we are not transferring that day).

Here's how it works:

YOUR SECOND TRIP

A top quality Wilderness Travel stainless steel water bottle by Klean Kanteen and a cozy Wilderness Travel fleece vest by Patagonia ($100 value).

YOUR THIRD TRIP

A versatile Wilderness Travel R-1 pullover by Patagonia ($130 value).

YOUR FOURTH TRIP

Discounts on the cost of your trip begin! You receive a 4% discount on the tour cost.

FIVE AND MORE TRIPS

You receive a 5% discount on the base trip cost. On your sixth trip, you receive a 6% discount, and so on up to your 10th trip. The maximum discount is 10%, with a ceiling of $500.

Note: Due to special pricing considerations, Toucan Club discounts do not apply to our Private Journeys or Special Events. However, your participation on these trips does count toward your Toucan discount on future departures of Wilderness Travel's regular adventures.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Toucan Club travel discounts cannot be used in conjunction with any other discount, unless otherwise specified. Discounts are deducted from the base trip cost and shown on the final invoice. The base trip cost is the main land/tier cost and does not include single supplement fees, extensions, internal airfare, or other additional charges. Bonus gifts (T-shirts, luggage tags, vests, water bottles, and pullovers) will be mailed approximately three weeks prior to trip departure. Terms and conditions of Toucan Club bonuses are subject to change or cancellation at the discretion of Wilderness Travel, Inc.

Please be advised that California has established a Travel Consumer Restitution Fund under the California Seller of Travel Law that took effect January 1, 1996. This fund is designed to protect consumers from unscrupulous practices by discount airfare ticket sellers or air charter operators. Unfortunately, this law does not cover non-California residents and, even in the case of California residents, it does not cover any foreign travel where the foreign "providers of transportation or travel services" are not in compliance with the Sellers of Travel Law (compliance being defined as registered as a Seller of Travel in California and a participant in the Travel Consumer Restitution Fund). Thus none of Wilderness Travel's tours qualify and we are required by law to advise each client that they are not covered by the California Travel Consumer Restitution Fund. California law requires sellers of travel to maintain a trust account or bond. This business has a trust account. California Seller of Travel #100769640
