Introduction

The shimmering hues of the Adriatic and Ionian seas, heirloom olive orchards stretching to the horizon, whitewashed coastal towns gleaming in the sun—this is the “heel” of Italy, a magical place for a WT-style of adventure. Our hikes bring us across traditional tratturi (shepherds’ trails) and along coastal paths where the sea and the sky seem to meet. Along the way, we’ll visit hill towns and ancient ports. Our final treat is a three-night stay in a historic hotel in the unforgettable World Heritage Site of Matera. As always, we’ll eat locally and well—tasting olives in the Itria Valley, sampling the deep red Primitivo wines in Manduria, and savoring the bounty of the sea.

Overnight: Borgo Canonica

You'll feel like you've stepped back into the past at this charming hotel, a renovated borgo (village) dating back to the 1800s. The trulli-style guest rooms with their dry-stone walls have been elegantly restored and offer style and comfort. Set in the beautiful Valle d'Istria, with its vineyards and olive trees, the property features an inviting outdoor swimming pool—be sure to take a dip at day's end!

Meals: L, D

Hiking Details: 3.5 miles, 2.5 hours, relatively flat

Driving Time: 1.5 hours

DAY 1 BARI, ITALY / LOCOROTONDO / ALBEROBELLO

We meet this morning in Bari, a port city set on the Adriatic and Puglia's capital. After a short trip briefing, we head out into the gorgeous Valle d'Itria, which holds some of Puglia's most iconic landscapes. The olive orchards stretch as far as the eye can see here, dotted with trulli, the whitewashed, conical-roofed houses Puglia is famous for. We'll make a visit to the hill town of Locorotondo, officially one of the borghi più belli d'Italia (most beautiful villages in Italy), then stretch our legs with a walk on the Apulian Acqueduct path to famed Alberobello, a stunning World Heritage Site with a maze of trulli-lined lanes. Lunch will be at a trattoria where we can try some local specialties, perhaps pasta with cicerchie beans or cardoncelli, the delicate local wild mushrooms, accompanied by a carafe of Primitivo, Puglia's robust red wine. Afterwards, we explore the town of Alberobello, visiting the 17th century Trullo Sovrano, the largest of the trulli houses, and the fascinating Chiesa di Sant'Antonio, a trullo church built in 1927 using the same technique as for the original trullo, with some inspiration from Puglia's Romanesque architecture. Our overnight is at the Borgo Canonica, a historic hotel in the heart of the Valle d'Istri.

Note: We recommend you arrive in Bari the night before the trip begins.

Itinerary

Overnight: Borgo Canonica

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 5 miles, 2.5 hours, 700' ascent/descent

Driving Time: 1 hour

DAY 2 CISTERNINO / OSTUNI

A panoramic morning hike brings us from the Sanctuary of Sant'Oronzo across Le Murge (now part of Parco Nazionale dell'Alta Murgia), a limestone plateau rising gently from the Adriatic. Our views stretch out over vast olive groves as we follow pathways called tratturi, trails used for centuries by herders moving animals between summer and winter pastures. We stop at the archaeological site of Santa Maria di Agnano with remains and artifacts dating back over 26,000 years. From there we walk among millennial olive trees to a masseria where we sample locally produced olive oil. We'll have a trattoria lunch in the stunning hill town of Ostuni, with its jumble of ancient alabaster buildings gleaming in the sun and striking views across to the blue Adriatic. Set on three hills, Ostuni, called "the white city," was an important Greco-Roman city in the first century AD. Lunch is another chance to taste Puglia specialties, perhaps panzerotto (a small version of calzone pizza), and afterwards we'll walk through Ostuni's maze of winding and well-preserved cobbled streets. We return to our tranquil hotel in Cisternino for dinner.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Corte di Nettuno

Just a short walk from Otranto's historic center, this hotel has modern guest rooms and a rooftop terrace with harbor views. The hotel's interior is decorated with museum-quality maritime artifacts collected by the owner.

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 5 miles, 3 hours, relatively flat

Driving Time: 2.5 hours

DAY 3 LECCE / OTRANTO

Our walk this morning brings us through the rolling olive groves that encircle many of the local masseries (fortified farmhouses). We'll walk through small canyons and natural caves where flocks of sheep are kept, as we continue on trails used by shepherds. Most masseries here produce olive oil, and we'll visit one for a tasting, followed by a picnic lunch on the beach. A southward arc brings us to the city of Lecce on the Salento peninsula, the "heel" of Italy's boot. The fine Baroque architecture in Lecce's Old Town is due to the arrival in the 16th century of Jesuit and Franciscan orders, who brought with them an influx of wealth that paid for the creation of opulent churches and palazzi. We head to the historic seaside town of Otranto.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Corte di Nettuno

Meals: B, L

Hiking Details: 8 miles, 3.5 hours, 450' ascent/descent

Driving Time: 45 minutes

DAY 4 OTRANTO / PORTO BADISCO

Like much of Puglia, Otranto, the easternmost city in Italy, has a storied past. It was a Greek port, then a Roman one, and was later ruled by the Byzantines, Normans, and Aragonese. In 1480, Turks invaded the town, and we'll see the city walls the Aragonese built for the town's protection. For today's hike, we follow spectacular coastal paths along sea cliffs and rocky headlands fragrant with the scent of Mediterranean maquis (aromatic shrublands), enjoying a picnic lunch en route. Our trail brings us past the whitewashed Punta Palascia lighthouse and onward to Porto Badisco, with its rocky, sheltered beach that Virgil claimed to be the site of Aeneas's first landing in Italy after his escape from Troy. We return to Otranto, with dinner on your own. Your Trip Leader will be happy to make recommendations, depending on how fancy or casual you wish to go.

Overnight: Hotel Terminal

The Hotel Terminal is set on a private beach just steps from Santa Maria di Leuca's harbor and offers a rooftop terrace and spacious guest rooms with ocean views.

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 4 miles, 2 hours, 600' ascent/descent

Driving Time: 1.5 hours

DAY 5 CASTRIGNANO DEL CAPO / SANTA MARIA DI LEUCA

We head to the town of Corsano on the slopes of the Salentine Murge for a hike along the path of salt traders. Our trail winds along a high, rocky coastline down to the brilliant blues of the sea where the salt was produced, and then back up the plateau. Our local guide, whose ancestors were salt traders for centuries, will offer historical insights along this scenic rocky trail. Later we'll drive to Santa Maria di Leuca, where the Adriatic and Ionian seas swirl together. Above the town's harbor is an important religious sanctuary, the Basilica de Finibus Terrae ("at the end of the earth" is how the Romans termed this point). It is reached by a 284-step staircase, and we'll ascend for a visit to this fascinating shrine. The hilltop site has long been a place of pilgrimage and once held a Roman temple of Minerva. Dinner and overnight in Santa Maria di Leuca at the Hotel Terminal.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Terminal

Meals: B, L

Hiking Details: 3.5 miles, 3 hours, 600' ascent/descent

Driving Time: 45 minutes

DAY 6 CIOLO / BAY CRUISE

Today we set out for another scenic coastal hike. Starting at sea level we hike up to the "Ciolo", a deep gorge flanked by steep limestone cliffs. Its name comes from the Ciole people, in Salento dialect, who first inhabited the area. The high rocky ridge is covered by native evergreens, shrubs, and a variety of wildflowers and orchids. The ridges are hollowed out by numerous caves, where fossils and ceramics dating back to the Neolithic and the Paleolithic periods have been found. The Grotta delle Prazziche, 42 meters long and about 6 meters wide, is one example where centuries-old artifacts and remains, including those of rhinoceros, have been discovered. Our walk continues along the meandering coast to the Cipolliane, an area rich with caverns and native plants. We return to Leuca for lunch. In the afternoon, we'll explore the Adriatic seaside and the Ionian seaside by boat. Dinner is on your own this evening.

Itinerary

Overnight: Palazzo Viceconte (or Aquatio Cave Luxury Hotel and Spa)

Tucked away just steps from the Piazza del Duomo is Palazzo Viceconte, a splendid historic palace turned hotel. Fourteen guest rooms are uniquely decorated and have views of the courtyard or Sassi of Matera. Relax on the terrace, wander through the halls (the hotel has beautiful collection of art displayed throughout the palace), or simply enjoy the peace and serenity of Matera.

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 5 miles, 2.5 hours, 400' ascent/descent

Driving Time: 3 hours

DAY 7 UGENTO / MANDURIA WINE-TASTING / MATERA

A morning walk brings us through the Parco Naturale Regionale Porto Selvaggio Torre Alto, a woodland composed of carubbo, Aleppo pine, and fragno trees that extends along the rocky coastline. For lunch, we head to the wine town of Manduria, where we'll taste some Primitivo di Manduria wines, Puglia's deep red vintage. The vines in this area grow in a limestone and clay soil, often next to dunes along the Ionian Sea, and the Primitivo grape matures early, usually in August, hence its primitivo ("early") name. We'll visit a cellar here for a tasting of the wine, a cousin to Zinfandel as both types descend from the same varietal. We continue to the World Heritage Site of Matera for overnight at our hotel.

Itinerary

Overnight: Palazzo Viceconte
(or Aquatio Cave Luxury Hotel and Spa)

Meals: B, L

Hiking Details: 2 miles, 1 hour, 500' ascent/descent

DAY 8 MATERA / MURCIA HIKE

Situated at the edge of a canyon in the eastern area of Basilicata province, Matera dates to the early Middle Ages, when Benedictine monks carved churches and monasteries into the walls of a ravine. Over the next few centuries, local people created homes and shops out of these terraced caves and grottos, making Matera one of the longest continuously inhabited human settlements in the world. This morning, we'll explore this remarkable World Heritage Site with a local guide. From the Sasso Caveoso district to the Sasso Barisano area, the picturesque alleys and warren of "sassi" dwellings are fascinating. The most spectacular cave-church here is the Madonna di Idris, with its 14th century frescoes, and nearby, the Santa Lucia alle Malve church. Benedictine nuns lived in this church between the 8th and 10th centuries, and there are murals dating to the 13th century. Local people resided in many of these caves until the 1950s, and in the Casta Grotta, we can see what a residential cave-home once looked like, complete with original furnishings. In the afternoon, we'll take in the scenic views on a hike in Murgia National Park. Dinner is on your own this evening so you can choose from among Matera's many restaurants and trattorias; your Trip Leader will be happy to make recommendations.

DAY 9 MATERA

Today we return to the Murgia area outside of Matera where we'll hike amid the limestone cliffs, gorges, and caves of this region. We'll continue to explore the prehistoric dwellings, as well as the natural beauty of the area that has intertwined with these ancient structures for centuries. We enjoy lunch at Masseria Dragona where we can try their locally produced wine. We return to Matera, with the remainder of the afternoon free to explore on your own. In the evening, we gather for a festive Farewell Dinner.

INTERNATIONAL AIR TRAVEL

You are responsible for making your own arrangements for flights to and from Italy.

There are many online consolidators for booking travel, but for more personal help arranging air transport, you can contact Exito Travel at 1-800-655-4053 in the US or 1-800-670-2605 in Canada. # Trip Leaders

Wilderness Travel Trip Leaders have a passion and a joy for creating an unforgettable journey. We are extremely proud of them and the incredible travel experiences they make possible. ## GIANLUCA CANALICCHIO

Gianluca Canalicchio was born and raised in Rome, where his parents moved in 1960 from Umbria, when they left their life of hard work on their farm in search of new opportunities. He has a degree in accounting, and loves dancing, singing opera, and cooking. Gianluca is a devoted follower of the Italian food channel, Gambero Rosso, and friend to many noted chefs. "My cooking teacher is my mother, whose love for cooking always amazed me. I opened a pizza restaurant in Rome and a restaurant in San Francisco, but the problem is I prefer to be a client, not a chef!" Gianluca also loves sports and has competed in triathlon races for many years. Another passion of his is history, which he says "is essential for our times: not understanding the past makes us see the present in a distorted way." When guiding, Gianluca loves taking people to his favorite off-the-beaten-path places and introducing them to local people.

IRENE DE BENEDICTIS

Originally from Rome, Irene is a physical therapist specializing in Ayurvedic medicine and also a seasoned WT Trip Leader. Her love of different cultures and languages (she knows seven!), paired with her love for hikes and pilgrimages (she walked the Camino de Santiago...twice) makes her a wonderful traveling companion. Irene's father is a member of the Italian congregation of St. James, which is responsible for the upkeep of pilgrim trails from Italy into Spain and Jerusalem, and she has also worked as a "hospitalera" (pilgrims' albergue host) in Italy. Fun fact: Irene wrote a book called Spaghetti and Sauna about the cultural differences between Italy, her home country, and Finland, where she lived for four years.

JOANN LANTZ

Originally from Long Island and holding a degree in education from New York University, JoAnn Lantz has lived in Italy since 1988, slowly restoring an old farm house outside of Lucca, learning about the wines of Italy, and continually exploring her adopted home country. Whether she's leading a hike up to the Rifugio Lagazuoi in the Dolomites or to the top of Monte Solaro on the isle of Capri, she has a gift for bringing out the local charm of each place our journeys visit. "I became a Trip Leader to share the wonders of Italy with others," she says. "The slowness to change and the depth of history that exists here gives people a chance to reflect on their own lives and see what is truly important." When not guiding, JoAnn nurtures her small olive grove near Orvieto, pruning the trees, picking the olives, and making olive oil for her own use and as a gift for friends.

DANIEL WINDHAM

Dan Windham, while born in the Appalachian foothills of Georgia, has spent more than two thirds of his life in northern Italy, and 20 of those years leading European hiking trips for WT. His youthful passion for nature and mountains led him to choose a career as a guide, and he moved to Italy to run a mountain hut in the Alps with his wife, who is Italian. In the Europe off-season, Dan guides climbs of Aconcagua in Argentina and has also climbed some of the highest peaks in the Himalayas. He is fluent in Italian as well as Spanish.

LEILA THOMPSON

With a solid repertoire of outdoor skills including rock climbing, river guiding, and mountaineering, Leila Thompson surely lives the life of an adventurer. Since the early 1990s, she has led trips for us in Nepal, India, Tibet, Republic of Georgia, Canada, and Europe, and shows no sign of stopping. “One of the most wonderful things about guiding for me is starting a trip with a group of strangers and finishing with a group of friends,” she says. Through travel, she has fulfilled some of her passions such as environmental stewardship and engaging in the local culture of each place. Leila is conversant in German, Nepali, and French. When she is not guiding, Leila works as a nurse at the local hospital in Bend, Oregon, where she lives with her husband (and fellow WT guide) Sean Morrissey, and enjoys cycling, hiking, climbing, skiing, and her latest sports addiction—pickleball.

What to Expect

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE The hiking on this trip is Level 3, Moderate, according to our trip grading system. We enjoy day walks and hikes of 2-4 hours over variable terrain, including gently rolling countryside, rocky coastal trails, and steep canyons.

TERRAIN You need to be able to hike on uneven surfaces, occasionally downhill over loose rocks, so good balance is important. The hikes explore a mix of terrain, from dirt roads to paths across rolling hills to ancient stone staircases, which can be quite steep. The trip is designed for those who have at least some hiking experience. Please note that the hiking can feel more demanding at times because the weather can occasionally be hot, even in fall when we make our journey. Sturdy, well broken-in hiking boots are best for some of the rural trails, though walking shoes may be suitable for some days.

GETTING IN SHAPE For maximum enjoyment of the trip (and the wonderful scenery, food, and wine that are a part of it), we recommend you make a special effort to be in good physical condition. Daily brisk walking and/or regular hiking (or using a stair-climbing machine at your gym) are excellent preparatory exercises.

WEATHER Puglia has a warm, sunny Mediterranean climate. Temperatures are likely to be the 70s and 80s during the day and the 60s at night. Cooling breezes and showers can occur at any time, especially in fall. The weather can range from blue skies to cloudy, mist-shrouded days on which we need to keep rain gear handy in our daypacks. The sea regulates the climate in coastal southern Italy.

ACCOMMODATIONS Our hotels are chosen for their local history and central location. Although rooms in European hotels are not always of uniform or international size, our leaders try their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole.

CUISINE Please note that in Europe, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure early reservations for our groups, but most often the evening meal will be at 7:30 pm.

TRANSPORTATION Luggage is transported for us by van, so it is always possible to ride in the van if you wish to opt out of a day's hiking. We will carry just a daypack with water bottle, sunscreen, camera, and anything else you want with you while on the trail.
