Meals: D

DAY 1 ARRIVE / LUCERNE

A 45-minute train ride from Zurich brings you to Lucerne. Set on a beautiful lake in the center of Switzerland, Lucerne is the gateway to the Alps and a center for Swiss history: a pact of mutual defense formed here in 1291 against Rudolf of Habsburg was the beginning of the Swiss Confederation, which survives to this day. We recommend arriving a day early in this charming city to explore its remarkable heritage. We meet with the Trip Leaders and the group at 6:00 pm and gather in the evening for drinks and our Welcome Dinner. Overnight in Lucerne.

About the Via Alpina: The Via Alpina is a 3,000-mile-long hiking trail that connects eight alpine countries in Europe: Slovenia, Austria, Germany, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Italy, France, and Monaco. As the Via Alpina crosses Switzerland, it winds through several Swiss cantons and crosses a series of magnificent high passes that reveal incredible mountain panoramas, including the famed summits of the Bernese Alps. The Swiss section of the Via Alpina has 20 different daily stages. We've selected the most spectacular sections for our hiking journey (mostly stages 7 through 13). As you explore these trails, you'll have at your side our most experienced team of Via Alpina Trip Leaders (most have a mountaineering background in the Alps). They have led the trip many times and are gifted at sharing its delights with you.

Heading to the cable car station at the pretty village of Attinghausen, we ascend to the mountain hamlet of Brustli (5,032') and set off on a winding trail to the Surenenpass (7,560'). Here we have a stunning view of ice-crowned Mt. Titlis (10,684'). From the pass, we drop down into the Engelberg Valley to reach Engelberg (3,248'), a picturesque village set beneath Mt. Titlis and surrounded by a huge sweep of craggy peaks. This is one of the most impressive hikes in central Switzerland, with a magnificent view of fjord-like Lake Uri and the Reuss Valley, cut by the Reuss River. We'll have a picnic lunch on the pass, then later stop for drinks at a remote refuge that's only open in summer. Overnight in Engelberg.

Overnight: Hotel Victoria

This boutique-style hotel is conveniently located in the center of Meiringen, right across the street from the Sherlock Holmes Museum. The 18 guest rooms are modern, clean, and sport a Swiss-chic minimalist decor. The restaurant, which serves up excellent Asian fusion cuisine, has been awarded 14 Gault Millau points (an influential restaurant rating system strictly based on the quality of the food).

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 9 miles, 7 hours, 2,800 feet ascent, 2,700 feet descent

Transportation Details: 1 hour by cable car/chair lift

DAY 3 JOCHPASS / MEIRINGEN

From Engelberg, a cable car and chairlift whisk up to the Jochpass (7,280'), with great views of the open meadows and tiny hamlets of the Gental Valley stretching out below. We follow a route down scree slopes, then cross alpine meadows to beautiful blue-green Engstlensee Lake. A bit farther we reach the traditional alpine gasthaus at Engstlenalp (6,050'), nestled in a green pasture dotted with farm buildings at the head of the Gental Valley. Our magnificent ridgetop trail overlooks the valley, which, because of its particular rock composition, is graced by thousands of cascading waterfalls. We may see ibex scampering among the rocks, and in early summer, there are lots of wildflowers. Our hike brings us to the Alpen Tower cable car for a descent into the pretty town of Meiringen, famous as the setting for Reichenbach waterfalls, where Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's beloved detective Sherlock Holmes plunged to his death in The Final Problem. Overnight in Meiringen.

We stay in spacious rooms with a balcony and a tremendous view of the Eiger's North Face. Amenities include a wellness spa, four restaurants, and two bars. The staff is very friendly and attentive.

Meals: B, L, D

DAY 4 BACHALPSEE / GRINDELWALD

We take the PostBus (part of Switzerland's efficient public transport network) up to Schwarzwaldalp (4,800'), a charming hamlet set high in the narrow, wooded Reichenbachtal Valley. Here the valley opens up into high alpine pastures with views of the Wetterhorn (the "Peak of Tempests"), with trails that brings us marvelous views of a wall of glaciated mountains and vistas down into the little town of Grindelwald in the meadows far below. We then join a high balcony trail that leads to the cable car station at First (7,150'). From here, we have breathtaking panoramas on an optional hike up to the Bachalpsee (7,450'), a stunning alpine lake whose waters reflect the icy peaks of the Wetterhorn, Shreckhorn, Finsterahorn, and the Eiger—one of the most iconic views in the Alps. Returning to First, we ride the gondola down to Grindelwald (3,400'), a beautiful village set beneath the formidable North Face of the Eiger. Overnight in Grindelwald.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Bellevue des Alpes

This historic, family-run hotel is set right on the Kleine Scheidegg pass, and was once the “home base” of climbers attempting the Eiger. It offers a country house ambiance with touches of fin de siècle decor. Guest rooms are old-fashioned but nice and comfortable, maintaining the charms of an earlier era, and it's a treat discovering the hotel's fascinating history in an incredible location.

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 7 miles, 4 hours, 2,350 feet ascent, 100 feet descent

DAY 5 KLEINE SCHEIDEGG

From Grindelwald, we ride the train up to the hamlet of Alpigen (5,300') for a hike on the Eiger Trail, a dramatic path of scree, rocks, and waterfalls that brings us close to the infamous North Face of the Eiger. After lunch and amazing views from the Eigergletscher cable car station (7,650'), below Jungfrauoch and its mighty glaciers, we head down to the Kleine Scheidegg (6,760') for magnificent and up-close views of the Eiger's soaring 6,000-foot North Face. Tonight we stay at the historic Hotel Bellevue des Alpes, a family-run hotel set right on the pass in Kleine Scheidegg. The hotel was once the “base camp” for climbers attempting to scale the Eiger and the journalists covering their stories. Climbers included Irishman Charles Barrington, who ascended the Eiger's west flank in 1858, and the Austrian-German expedition who conquered the North Face in 1938. One member of that team was Heinrich Harrer, author of The White Spider, an account of the climb and a history of mountaineering in the area. A stay here gives us the chance to experience real alpine history in an incredible and beautifully remote setting. The hotel, which has retained all its turn-of-the-century charm, is the only structure under the Eiger, which means that once the trains running to the Jungfrau stop for the evening, we are the only ones on this mountain pass! Overnight in Kleine Scheidegg.

Itinerary

Overnight: Drei Berge Hotel

Centrally located in the quiet little village of Murren, the Drei Berge Hotel is an absolutely charming place to stay, with great chalet-style decor, friendly owners who are consummate hosts, good hiking trails right out the front door, and—the best part—breathtaking views of the massive peaks of the Eiger, Monch, and Jungfrau. The restaurant serves up a wonderful breakfast spread, and has excellent local beer on tap and amazing desserts!

Meals: (Day 6) B, L, D; (Day 7) B

Hiking Details: (Option 1) 3 miles, 1.5 hours, 700 feet ascent/descent; (Option 2) 8 miles, 5-6 hours, 4,100 feet descent

DAYS 6-7 JUNGFRAUJOCH/ ALETSCHE GLACIER / MÜRREN / OPTIONAL HIKE OR REST DAY

Day 6: We take an unforgettable ride on a century-old cogwheel train to Jungfrauoch (11,371'), Europe's highest railway station, set on the saddle between Jungfrau and Mönch. Along with the neighboring Eiger and the Mönch, the Jungfrau forms a dramatic wall overlooking the Bernese Oberland (British mountaineer Sir Martin Conway called this massif "the walls of heaven"). From the station, we'll hike a groomed trail on the great Aletsch Glacier to the Mönchslochhütte, set in the middle of the Jungfrau-Aletsch UNESCO World Heritage Site. After lunch at the hut, we return to Kleine Scheidegg, then take a cable car to Mürren (5,413'), a traditional mountain village and the highest in the Bernese Oberland. No automobiles are allowed in this village, which provides a peaceful atmosphere. In case of inclement weather, we'll hike in the Lauterbrunnen Valley (2,640'), one of the most beautiful glacial valleys in the Alps. We walk along a river past some 70 waterfalls and visit the thundering, glacier-fed Trummelbach Falls, which traces down this vertical-walled valley fed by ten glaciers. Our hotel is located right in the center of Mürren and their restaurant, with its wonderful views of the Jungfrau Massif, offers tasty cuisine.

Transportation Details: 2 hours by cogwheel, 15 minutes by train, 5 minutes by cable car

Day 7: We enjoy a day to rest and explore Mürren. For those who want to hike, the Trip Leaders will present some choices for hikes they will guide today. This evening we savor the sunset views of world-famous Jungfrau and its snow-capped comrades. Overnight in Mürren.

Itinerary

Overnight: Griesalp Hotel

In Griesalp we stay at a small hotel complex at the foot of the Blumlisalp that offers welcoming and cozy accommodations in the midst of a hiker's paradise. A sauna and steam room are available to soothe our tired muscles at the end of an invigorating hiking day.

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 11 miles, 8 hours, 3,400 feet ascent, 4,150 feet descent

DAY 8 SEFINENFURKE PASS / GRIESALP

The views are stunning from the very start as we walk through a village with beautiful old chalets and gardens then up through alpine meadows to Sefinenfurke Pass (8,600'). On the way up, we stop for drinks at a family-run refuge. We'll continue on a very steep trail with a handrail to the top of this narrow and dramatic pass, a highlight of the Via Alpina, with a magnificent panorama of the giants of the Alps. A fairly long descent along a slightly exposed trail with fantastic views of the huge peak of Blumlisalp and its glaciers brings us to Griesalp (4,642'), a tiny unspoiled hamlet at the head of the Kiental Valley. The hamlet of Griesalp is special—it lies at the end of the steepest road in Europe, so steep that only the PostBus and small cars are allowed to access it. So it's a very quiet and remote spot, and has the typical atmosphere of a mountain retreat—the sound of waterfalls and rushing rivers, and the fun of enjoying a well-deserved beer after a long hike. On clear nights, we can enjoy impressive views of a star-filled sky. Overnight in Griesalp.

Itinerary

Overnight: Waldhotel Doldenhorn

Situated in a quiet garden-like setting just outside the village of Kandersteg, the Waldhotel Doldenhorn is a great place to relax after our day's hike. Spa facilities include a large pool, two Jacuzzis, and saunas, and its two dining venues—one for fine dining and the other conveying a traditional rustic ambiance—serve excellent cuisine.

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 14 miles, 8-9 hours, 4,500 feet ascent, 4,250 feet descent

DAY 9 HOHTURLI PASS / OESCHINENSEE / KANDERSTEG

We head out on our toughest—but most spectacular—hiking day, a grand-finale hike up to the Hohturli Pass (9,120')—a 4,500-foot ascent! It's one of the most impressive in all the Alps. Once at the pass, we enjoy lunch at the Blumlisalp-Hutte, owned by the Swiss Alpine Club. From the pass, with its grand views of a wild mountain landscape, we make our nearly 3,600-foot descent through scree and along moraine beside icefalls and glaciers to Oeschinensee (5,250'), a beautiful turquoise-hued glacial lake set in an amphitheater of sheer cliffs and snow-clad peaks. At hike's end, we take the cable car down to Kandersteg (3,900'), a quintessential Swiss alpine village ringed by mountains. With its traditional chalets, it has been renowned as a base for hikers and climbers since the mid-19th century. This evening we celebrate with a festive Farewell Dinner. Overnight in Kandersteg.

Meals: B

DAY 10 KANDERSTEG / DEPART

From the Kandersteg train station, trip members can make the easy 2.5-hour train journey to the Zurich Airport for departure on homeward-bound flights (or to other destinations in Europe).

What to Expect

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated Level 5+, Strenuous, according to our trip grading system. You will need to be comfortable hiking 11 miles a day for several days in a row, being on your feet for up to 9 hours a day, and hiking on narrow, uneven, and exposed surfaces. While no climbing or mountaineering experience is necessary, all trip members should have ample hiking experience and be able to keep up with the group as there are no alternative hiking options available. Trail conditions, weather, and the group's level of fitness can affect hiking times and pacing.

Average Hiking Day

- 9 miles; 7 hours
- 2,500-3,500 feet gain/loss
- Altitudes range from 7,000-11,500 feet

Challenge Day

- Day 8: 14 miles, 8-9 hours, 4,500 feet gain, and 4,250 feet loss

TERRAIN

At lower elevations, the trails are usually packed dirt, but at higher elevations they are often much rockier, with occasional sections of glacial snow, loose scree, and large boulders. On some days, you will encounter sections of narrow, exposed trails with steep descents and chain handrails. Your experienced mountain guides are there to assist you if needed.

WEATHER

Temperatures are likely to reach the 60s°F and 70s°F during the day, with cool breezes and occasional rain. At night the temperature will drop quite a bit, depending on the altitude. The months we run these trips have the optimal weather conditions, but still can be fickle. It can range from blue skies to cloudy, wet, and cold conditions, making rain gear and warm garments necessary items to carry with you on every hike.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We spend our nights in alpine inns and hotels. Some are more traditional hotels and some have very small rooms, but they all have their own private bathroom with a shower or bathtub. Please note that the rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Many hotels also do not have an elevator or porter service, so be prepared to carry your luggage up the stairs. Single rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single room, please make your request as early as possible.

What to Expect

CUISINE Lunch will be in a mountain lodge, at a local restaurant, or in a picnic spot amidst the beauty of the surrounding mountains. Most evenings we will have dinner at our hotel. Some of the items you may see on the menu include hearty soups, a variety of cheeses and dry meats from the region, cheese fondue, raclette (melted cheese served with jacket potatoes), cocktail gherkins and onions, pickled fruit, älplermagronen (a kind of gratin with potatoes, macaroni, cheese, cream and onions), rösti (a flat, hot cake made of grated, cooked potatoes and fried in hot butter), zürcher geschnetzelte (a veal dish, sometimes also containing veal liver and mushrooms, served with a cream sauce), and bratwurst served with onion sauce. Please note that in Europe, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure early reservations for our groups, but most often the evening meal will be at 7:30 pm.

TRANSPORTATION Our support vehicle will transport the group's luggage, so you only need to carry a daypack (rain gear, sweater, camera, water bottle, etc.). Trip members are always free to skip a day's hike and travel to the next destination in the support vehicle (or remain at the hotel if we are not transferring that day). We will experience the efficient Swiss network of public transport from cable cars and chair lifts to cogwheel trains, funiculars, and the Post Bus which travels along marvelous, scenic roads to tiny mountain hamlets while delivering bread, salad, the newspaper, and letters to the locals.
