TRIP DATES

June 28-July 6, 2025

Head to remote inland Norway, far from the busy coastal areas, to explore awe-inspiring peaks and glistening mountain lakes—and discover the heartland of Norwegian folklore, with its trolls and Jöttnar (mountain-dwelling giants). This inner realm, called Innlandet, is Norway's only landlocked county and a world of sleepy farms, folk dances, and mythical mountain ranges. From Skåbu (5,600'), Norway's highest village, we'll hike trails with panoramas across the glacier-carved summits of Jotunheimen, Rondane, and Dovre national parks, paddle canoes on tranquil lakes, and visit an ancient farmstead. From our historic lodge on the ancient St. Olav's Way, a pilgrim trail in Dovre National Park, we'll hike park trails amid the legends of Peer Gynt and take a walking safari to look for free-roaming muskox. As we explore, the farm-to-table cuisine keeps us well fed and we'll savor the long, soft evening light of Norway's summer.

Itinerary

Overnight: Bygdin Fjellhotell

Set on the shores of Lake Bygdin in the heart of the Jotunheimen Mountains, the Bygdin Fjellhotell is a mountain lodge with a warm welcome, comfortable guest rooms, and a restaurant serving local cuisine. There are expansive lake views from the deck and the nature trails start right from the door (with “ski to the front door” access in winter).

Meals: (Day 1) L, D; (Day 2) B, L, D

Hiking Details: (Day 2) 5 hours, 5 miles, elevation gain/loss 1,700 feet

DAYS 1-2 OSLO, NORWAY / LAKE BYGDIN / JOTUNHEIMEN NATIONAL PARK / FAGERDALEN VALLEY

Day 1: In Oslo this morning, we meet the Trip Leader in the lobby of the Amerikalinjen Hotel for a scenic afternoon drive to the remote Innlandet region. We’ll stop en route for lunch. Our destination is Lake Bygdin, set among the glacier-carved peaks of Jotunheimen National Park. The dramatic Jotunheimen range is home to 29 of the highest mountains in Norway, including northern Europe’s highest mountain, Galdhøpiggen (8,100'). We gather tonight for our Welcome Dinner. Overnight at the Bygdin Fjellhotell, a lakeside mountain lodge located outside the village of Beitøstol, a magnet for skiers in winter and hikers in summer. Driving Details: 3.3 hours

Note: You must arrive in Oslo the night before Day 1 of the trip. We are happy to recommend a hotel in Oslo (an “on your own expense”).

Day 2: After breakfast, remember to make yourself a Norwegian “matpakke” (packed lunch) from ingredients provided by the lodge’s kitchen. Today’s hike starts right from the lodge and brings us into the Fagerdalen Valley with stunning views across Lake Bygdin. Those who want a challenge can continue up to the summit of Synshorn (4,750'), an isolated peak with an imposing rock face that sits directly above the lake. From Synshorn’s summit, there are amazing 360-degree views across Jotunheimen, Lake Bygdin, and into the northern Valdres region. At hike’s end, we’ll descend and drive to the local village of Beitøstol, where we can enjoy a stroll around town before dinner at a local restaurant.

Driving Details: 20 minutes

Itinerary

DAY 3 JOTUNHEIMEN NATIONAL PARK / BITIHORN HIKE

We'll make our pack lunches this morning then set out for a hike to the iconic Bitihorn (5,250'), the steep peak that is the gateway to Jotunheimen National Park. Our route brings us across a grassy and boggy landscape and up to the summit (or to a lower point, if desired), where panoramas include Lake Bygdin and rocky peaks rising from the tundra. At hike's end, we'll drive to the village of Skabu for an overnight at Skabu Fjellhotell, a boutique lodge situated in Norway's highest inhabited village.

Overnight: Skabu Fjellhotell

This family-run hotel has a scenic setting in the small mountain village of Skabu, with comfortable guest rooms, local cuisine, and a cozy fireplace lounge. The building itself was formerly the village store and has been transformed into a unique boutique lodge. The property also includes the historic Lykkja Farm, founded in 1830, and the farm is home to about 50 long-haired sheep.

Day 4: We'll have a change of scene as we cross three separate lakes by canoe (no previous canoeing experience necessary!). We'll also visit a fascinating site of 4,000-year-old rock paintings and visit the spectacular Espedal waterfall. Our lunch will be a delicious barbecue served outdoors.

Day 5: Today's hike brings us across easier terrain than the previous two days as we cross rocky trails and 4X4 roads with stunning views over Jotunheimen from the peak called Skardfjellet (5,850'), where we'll have our packed lunch. If time allows after our hike, we can enjoy an afternoon guided tour of Lykka Farm and learn about its heritage. The farm has about 20 historic buildings dating from the 16th to 17th centuries.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hjerkinn Mountain Lodge

Located on St. Olavs Way, a medieval pilgrimage route, Hjerkinn Mountain Lodge is the oldest family-run business in Norway—today the 12th, 13th, and 14th generation welcome guests. With 26 guest rooms, 12 apartments, and camping facilities, this remote lodge is popular with horseback riders, bicyclists, and hikers. The mountains are right at the doorstep and the pilgrim trail comes right through the main courtyard.

DAY 6 RONDANE NATIONAL PARK / PEER GYNT CABIN / HJERKINN LODGE

We start the day with a short drive to Rondane National Park, Norway's oldest national park, established in 1962. Here the Rondane massif rises above wide, lichen-covered mountain plateaus that provide habitat for nomadic wild reindeer. After about 1.5 hours of easy hiking, we'll pass the Vessel Ula waterfall and arrive at Peer Gynt Cabin, a historic spot associated with the famous stories of Peer Gynt, Henrik Ibsen's masterpiece. The play, written in 1867, still teaches Norwegians and people worldwide relevant lessons about life today. We'll enjoy a packed lunch here from a local provider and listen to some stories told by a local guide in a beautiful mountain setting. After lunch, the path is easy-going, winding around mountain lakes where we might even spot trout. We'll have a short break at Smuksjøsæter Lodge before we're transferred to Hjerkinn Mountain Lodge, our home for the next two days.

DAY 7 DOVREFJELL NATIONAL PARK / MUSKOX WALKING SAFARI

Today we head to Dovrefjell National Park for a walking safari to see majestic muskox in their prime habitat. Dovrefjell is one of few places in the world where you can see these prehistoric-looking creatures. With our specialist guide, we'll walk a trail through birch forests and across bare mountainsides as we look for these shaggy survivors of the Ice Age. A full-grown male muskox stands about four or five feet high and can weigh up to 800 pounds. We'll also keep an eye out for reindeer and birds of prey. The length of our walk depends on where the animals are found.

Itinerary

DAY 8 SNØHETTA VIEWPOINT / TRONDHEIM

Our morning walk brings us to the Snøhetta Viewpoint at the Norwegian Wildlife Reindeer Pavilion on the outskirts of Dovrefjell National Park. Here we'll have views of Snøhetta (7,500'), the highest peak outside the Jotunheimen range, and hear a talk by a park scientist on the wildlife, flora, and history of the surrounding mountains. Afterwards, we'll head to the Hjerkins Railway Station and take the train to Trondheim, where we'll transfer to the Britannia Hotel. This evening, we gather for our festive Farewell Dinner.

Overnight: Britannia Hotel

A member of the Leading Hotels of the World, the Britannia was established in 1870 and has a storied past, serving Arctic explorers, politicians, royalty and celebrities. Following a three-year renovation, the Britannia re-opened in 2019 with bespoke furnishings and state-of-the-art technology. INTERNATIONAL AIR TRAVEL

You are responsible for making your own arrangements for flights to Oslo and from Trondheim. There are many online consolidators for booking travel, but for more personal help arranging air transport, you can contact Exito Travel at 1-970-818-8459 in the US or 1-800-670-2605 in Canada. Depending on your routing, it is necessary to depart from the US one or possibly two days prior to Day 1 of the trip itinerary. The name on your airline ticket must match the name on your passport exactly, and your passport must be valid for at least six months after your date of return to the US.

STEFANO POZZI

Originally from Italy, Stefano Pozzi has grown up with a passion for the outdoors. He graduated from the University of Milan and later became a resident of Norway, where he studied Arctic natural history for a year on the island of Spitsbergen. Today he spends several months a year working on expedition vessels between Antarctica and Greenland, and guides trips for us in Norway, Finland, and the Alps. “I love being out in nature and being amazed by its beauty, and my hope is that I can share my knowledge with trip members, and in turn, learn something new every day from them.”

What to Expect

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated a Level 4+, Moderate to Strenuous. Day hikes and cultural exploration are our focus; many days we are hiking for 5-6 hours. Trails can be quite rough; be prepared for uneven ground.

Average Hiking Day

- 5-10 miles
- 5-6 hours 1,000-1,700 feet gain/loss

Challenge Days

- Day 2: 5 hours, 5 miles, elevation gain/loss 1,700 feet
- Day 5: 6.5 hours, 9.5 miles, elevation gain/loss 1,250 feet

TERRAIN

While the Norwegian mountains are not exceptionally high, they are steep and rugged. The trails in Norway are kept very natural and not maintained beyond necessity. Therefore, trails can be uneven, with large rocks or loose scree, and you can expect some steep sections. Norway is often rainy, so the rocks on the trail will be wet. There are some exposed roots along the way, and there will be muddy spots. You need good balance to be able to hike on these surfaces. It is extremely important to be a confident and capable hiker due to the remoteness of the areas we visit. Alternative hiking options will not be possible.

GETTING IN SHAPE

We strongly urge you to train for your trip, as your enjoyment will be highly dependent on your level of fitness. The best training for a hike is to hike, especially over hills or rough terrain. Next best are running, swimming, bicycling, or other cardiovascular exercises. Stair-climbing machines are excellent preparation for hiking uphill. Your feet should also be well prepared—make sure your hiking boots are sturdy, comfortable, and thoroughly broken-in.

WEATHER

This trip is in a region that is considerably colder than our other Norway trips. The mountain lodges are at elevations above 3,000 feet so temperatures could get down to the low 40sF overnight. The brisk daytime temperatures are perfect for hiking but rain is not unlikely. Mountain weather can be changeable, and we want you to be well prepared for all you may encounter. It is important to come prepared with layers for adding/removing, waterproof hiking boots, and good waterproof outer layers. Trip members need to remain flexible in consideration of inclement weather that may require changes, such as substituting different hiking routes, canceling hikes, or switching the days of certain hikes.

What to Expect

ACCOMMODATIONS

The mountain lodges of Norway are very simple. Rooms are clean and comfortable but amenities will be minimal. The guest rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Please note that hotel rooms in Scandinavia in general are smaller than in the US. As our lodges in Bygdin and Hjerkinn are in fairly remote locations, any hiking gear or other personal supplies you need should be brought from home. Single occupancy rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single occupancy room, please make your request as early as possible.

CUISINE

Vegan diets cannot be accommodated throughout the entirety of the trip, and vegetarian options may be limited. The cuisine at our mountain lodges is tasty and made from fresh local ingredients typically used for neo-Nordic dishes. For most of our packed lunches, we will use items from the lodge's breakfast buffet. "Pålegg" is the Norwegian word for toppings and spreads that go on bread, and that is the common breakfast and lunch in Norway. There will be a variety of spreads, jams, and pâtes to pair with cheese, cold cuts, vegetables, and fish, enough to make an entirely new type of "makpakke" (packed lunch) to bring on the trail every day. Please note that in Europe, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure early reservations for our groups, but most often, the evening meal will be at 7:30 pm.

TRANSPORTATION

Our vehicle for the drive from Oslo to Hjerkinn will be a 16-seater minibus with a trailer for luggage. From Hjerkinn to Trondheim, we will travel by local train. Note that hotel porters are not common in Norway, so guests should be able to carry their own luggage.
