2026 Spain Eclipse Program

Join us in northern Spain in 2026 to experience a total solar eclipse as it sweeps across the Iberian Peninsula. Our exclusive viewing location atop a hilltop winery aligns with the eclipse's centerline. Chosen in collaboration with esteemed eclipse meteorologist Jay Anderson, it promises the finest weather and sweeping views across the flat Meseta Norte—we should be in for a visual treat. Because the total eclipse will occur low on the horizon just one hour shy of sunset, we can look forward to a number of effects being different from when totality is high overhead. Intensified atmospheric scattering should greatly enhance the colors of the surrounding horizon, and the setting sun will appear magnified by the “moon illusion.” Throughout the program, we'll enjoy insightful talks on eclipses and cosmic wonders curated by our distinguished lecturer Dr. Alex Filippenko, Professor of Astronomy at UC Berkeley.

OUR EXPERT ASTRONOMER ALEX FILIPPENKO, PHD

A name familiar to many, Dr. Filippenko is a celebrated professor at UC Berkeley, revered for his expertise in the fields of exploding stars, active galaxies, and universal expansion. His accolades are numerous, and notably, he's been voted “Best Professor” at UC Berkeley a record nine times!

Eclipse Program Locations

BILBAO

We begin the Eclipse Program in Bilbao exploring this Basque capital where timeless traditions fuse with the avant-garde. Bilbao's dedication to innovative architecture and cuisine is felt throughout the city, from the iconic Guggenheim Museum—a shining example of 20th-century architecture housing one of the most important private collections of modern and contemporary art—to its historic Old Town filled with eateries serving pintxos and Txakoli wine.

BURGOS

On our way to Burgos, the capital city of the unified kingdom of Castile and León for five centuries, we'll tour the prehistoric site of Atapuerca, where the oldest known evidence of humans in western Europe was unearthed. In Burgos, we'll visit the famed cathedral, one of the masterpieces of Spanish Gothic architecture and the only cathedral in Spain to be declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

LERMA

Our lodging during this astronomical event is the iconic Parador de Lerma, once the Ducal Palace and the seat of the Spanish Empire from 1599-1618 under the clandestine rule of the Duke of Lerma, a favorite of King Phillip III. Dating back to pre-Roman times, Lerma experienced significant growth and wealth in the 17th century under the Duke's patronage, including the construction of buildings in the Herrerian style that today are among the best-preserved historical-artistic complexes in Spain.

Itinerary

Overnight: Parador de Lerma

Built in the 17th century atop a medieval castle, this former Ducal Palace was built by the Duke of Lerma as a place of lodging, rest, and general enjoyment for his close friend, King Felipe III. The palace has a central courtyard surrounded by stately columned galleries, and features interiors from the era of the Hapsburgs, with beautifully designed lighting and décor.

DAYS 3-4 TOTAL SOLAR ECLIPSE PROGRAM, BILBAO TO LERMA, SPAIN

Departing Bilbao, we visit the prehistoric Atapuerca archaeological site, whose caves hold a rich fossil record of Europe's early humans. Heading to the charming town of Burgos, located on the Camino Frances, we'll tour its imposing Gothic cathedral before continuing to the medieval town of Lerma, where you will have time to explore before we gather for another astronomy lecture. On eclipse day, we'll craft our viewers and enjoy a bit more of Lerma before heading to our private eclipse-viewing site at an expansive winery on a hill—virtually on the centerline. Winery tours and tastings will be available this afternoon as we prepare for the eclipse and enjoy the winery's grounds and views. On Days 3-4, we stay at the fabulous Parador de Lerma, a Ducal Palace originally built for King Felipe III.

Itinerary

DAY 5 LERMA / SIRESA / PARQUE NATURAL DE LOS VALLES OCCIDENTALES

A morning drive brings us from Lerma up to the mountain town of Siresa. We'll have lunch en route or on arrival, then set out for a hike in the Hecho Valley, part of Parque Natural de Los Valles Occidentales in the Aragonese Pyrenees. The park's glacier-carved terrain, crystalline rivers, and forests of beech and fir stretch all the way to the French border. Our trail leads through a rugged gorge formed by the Aragón Subordán River. We gather for our Welcome Dinner tonight.

Overnight: Hotel Castillo d'Acher

This small and simple stone-built hotel is right next to Siresa's imposing 11th century San Pedro Monastery, a place of pilgrimage for centuries. The hotel is owned by Mrs. Nelly and her family, who offer us a warm welcome. Road access into the isolated Ansó Valley is relatively recent and the ancient Aragonese dialect is still spoken here.

At the sublime green meadow called Dios Te Salve ("God Save You"), views of the snow-capped summits of the Pyrenees are breathtaking. This is one of the most spectacular mountain settings in Europe, and our hike brings us up to the Cola de Caballo ("Horse's Tail") waterfall, just below the face of Monte Perdido (11,000'), where mountain goats scramble beneath vertical cliffs. Return to Torla for overnight.

We then enjoy a relaxing day of cultural exploration as we explore the lovely medieval town of Aínsa, whose old quarter preserves the ancient traditions of the Pyrenees in its old towers and stone houses. Our lunch today at Bodegón de Mallacan will include traditional and tasty "ternasco asado," or grilled Pyrenees leg of lamb, which was the first fresh (non-cured) meat in Spain to receive the Denominación de Origen (similar to France's wine appellation system), which is only given to the highest quality products. Later, we head along mountain roads to Taüll, a lost village with several incredible Romanesque churches graced by beautiful frescoes. In the afternoon, we can relax in the spa at our hotel in Caldes de Boi, a mountain town famed since Roman times for its thermal waters.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Manantial

Meals: B, L, D

Hiking Details: 9 miles, 4 hours, 1,450 feet

DAY 9 BLACK LAKE / CALDES DE BOI

Aigüestortes National Park, Catalonia's only national park, is a spectacular glaciated landscape of jagged granite peaks, but the park is named for its beautiful meandering streams and lakes (aigües tortes means “twisting waters”). Today we hike alongside a beautiful stream to Black Lake, with its gleaming, slate-gray surface. From the lake, we head higher to a picturesque setting of hanging rocks (“The Nails of Travessani”) and circle a crystal-clear mountain pool known as the Ice Fountain. We enjoy our lunch at a lovely mountain refuge and then hike back down to Caldes de Boi.

Itinerary

Overnight: Parador de La Seu d'Urgell

Parador de La Seu d'Urgell is a wonderful combination of old and new. The building is set near the town's Romanesque cathedral, and is within walking distance to quaint shops, restaurants, and the park (where past Olympians trained for the 1992 Barcelona Olympics). Inside, you'll find a nice courtyard area and the guest rooms are large and modern. The hotel has a good breakfast buffet and also a nice pool and spa if you want to unwind after a day on the trails.

Along the way, we cross the Portarró d'Espot (7,972'), the highest point on our trip. We end our hike at the stunning glacial lake of Sant Maurici and transfer to La Seu d'Urgell for dinner and overnight.

Driving Time: 1.25 hours

DAY 11 THE HIGH LAKES OF ANDORRA / LA SEU D'URGELL

Tucked into the mountains between France and Spain, the tiny independent principality of Andorra has been an autonomous state since 1278. We take a short drive to begin our hike through a deep valley, walking from south to north through the secret Cirque des Pessons, where snow often lingers on the surrounding rocky peaks until summer. The interior of the valley is studded with crystalline alpine lakes, and we'll make our way past five of them, passing some of the most scenic high mountain lakes in the Pyrenees. Our picnic lunch today will include some of the fantastic local cheeses and cured meats that make Catalonia famous. Catalanian cheeses (and especially their home-cured pork products) are unique, quite different from those available in other parts of the world.

Itinerary

Overnight: Hotel Catalonia Eixample 1864

Housed in a renovated historic building, the Catalonia Eixample 1864 has all the comforts of a modern hotel and a superb location in the stylish Eixample district, about two blocks from Passeig de Gràcia, with its amazing Gaudí architecture and charming cafes, and a 10-minute walk to Las Ramblas. After a picnic lunch, a two-hour drive brings us to lively Barcelona, one of Europe's most alluring cities, with its artistic and architectural heritage from Art Nouveau to Gaudí. In the early evening, we'll enjoy a two-hour walk past the "Illa de La Discòrdia" (Block of Discord), a stunning block of buildings with modern architectural designs. We'll also pass the Gothic Quarter before arriving for our Farewell Dinner at restaurant 7 Portes, a classic in Barcelona since 1929, where we will be offered the world-famous "Paella Parellada," originally created in this restaurant. It is served without bones or shells and is undoubtedly one of the most famous dishes in Spanish cuisine.

Wilderness Travel Trip Leaders have a passion and a joy for creating an unforgettable journey. We are extremely proud of them and the incredible travel experiences they make possible. LAIA BEDÓS BONATERRA

Laia is a welcoming guide who loves sharing her home country of Spain with travelers. Originally from Catalonia, she has been inspired by the arts of the region and earned a PhD in Fine Arts, offering wonderful insight to the culture of the area. When she is not guiding or leading art workshops, Laia enjoys rock climbing and exploring different peaks all around the world. She is a charming and knowledgeable Trip Leader who will welcome you to the splendors of Spain.

JOSERRA COMBARRO

Joserra Combarro, a native of Bilbao, Spain, received a degree in law school but has never practiced as a lawyer, working instead for Bilbao's city council until he decided to become a mountain guide. "I love being a Trip Leader in the land I was so lucky to be born in. Basque Country has everything—mountain trails, woodlands, beaches, wine country, tiny, unknown villages, and our own Basque language, culture, and sports—what more could you ask for? I especially love the sea, so a hike along the beach and a swim afterwards is one of my favorite things to do." Joserra is an energetic traveling companion and a wonderful guide to the hiking trails and hidden corners of northern Spain. Besides hiking and swimming, his passions include running, food and wine, music, and reading. His worldwide travels have taken him to such distant spots as Vietnam, Brazil, and Equatorial Guinea.

What to Expect

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated Level 4, Moderate to Strenuous, according to our trip grading system. You will need to be comfortable hiking 12 miles a day and being on your feet for up to 7 hours a day. While no climbing or mountaineering experience is necessary, you will need to be able to keep up with the moderate but steady pace of the group as there are no alternative hiking options available. Trail conditions, weather, and the group's level of fitness can affect hiking times and pacing.

Average Hiking Day

- 7 miles
- 4-5 hours
- 1,200 feet gain/loss

Challenge Day

- Day 3 - 12 miles, 7 hours, and 1,600 feet gain/loss

TERRAIN

The terrain can be rugged with steep ascents and descents and rough, rocky trails with uneven surfaces including downhill over loose scree. While we are not rock climbing, there are sections where you will need to use your hands to traverse over large stones, so good balance and prior hiking experience are necessary.

WEATHER

Temperatures are likely to be in the 70s°F during the day, with cool breezes and occasional rain. At night the temperature will drop quite a bit, depending on the altitude. In general, we expect mild conditions, but cold weather and rain can occur at any time, so it is necessary to bring raingear and warm layers with you on every hike.

ACCOMMODATIONS

We'll stay in a collection of charming and historic mountain inns and hotels. Since they are often in historic buildings, the rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Single rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single room, please make your request as early as possible.

CUISINE

Lunches will be at local taverns and restaurants or picnic-style along the trail, with cheese, fresh vegetables, salami, copa, ham, fresh fruit, Spanish chocolate, and local breads. Dinners will be in taverns and restaurants which offer plenty of opportunity to sample the best local dishes and wines. Please note that in Spain, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure early reservations for our groups, but most often the evening meal will be at 8:30 pm.

TRANSPORTATION

Our van will transport the group's luggage, so you only need to carry a daypack for items you need for the day (rain gear, sweater, camera, water bottle, etc.). Trip members are always free to skip a day's hike and travel to the next destination in the support vehicle (or remain at the hotel if we are not transferring that day).
