Medieval France: The Lot Valley

COUNTRY WALKS, PREHISTORIC CAVES, AND MAGNIFICENT CHATEAUX

There's a little gem tucked away in a tiny corner of southwest France—the Lot Valley, a secluded world of medieval cliff-top hamlets, Romanesque abbeys, open-air markets, ancient chateaux, and a savory cuisine flavored with truffles and wild mushrooms. In this deeply French realm, we hike along the tranquil Lot River and across pilgrim paths between spectacular hilltop villages. We also explore the prehistoric Pech Merle cave, filled with extraordinary rock paintings, and sample the delicious wares of local wineries and small farms. Overnights are in hand-selected historic hotels, including the majestic 13th century Château de Mercuès overlooking the Lot River.

Itinerary

DAY 1

RODEZ / CONQUES

We meet in the medieval town of Rodez this morning (please arrive dressed for hiking!). Our journey begins as we explore the small villages north of Rodez, walking from the hamlet of Saint-Austremoine, nestled among vineyards, to Salles-la-Source, a medieval hamlet perched on a cliff that features a magnificent waterfall surging from an underground river. After lunch, we enjoy a hike followed by a visit to an off-the-beaten-path winery in the area of Marcillac, a red sandstone village nestled among one of the oldest vineyards of France. The prized red and rosé wines of Marcillac are 90 percent from the Mansois grape. Afterwards, we head to our hotel, the small and charming Le Moulin de Cambelong, just outside the dramatically perched medieval village of Conques. We gather for a Welcome Dinner at the hotel...LD

Hiking Details: 2.5 miles, 1 hour, 250 feet ascent, 150 feet descent

Driving Time: 1.5 hours

DAY 2

CONQUES / THE WAY OF ST. JAMES

Heading above beautiful Conques and the tiny hamlet of Montignac, we follow a pastoral path through villages and verdant fields to a viewpoint overlooking Conques. The town grew around an abbey initiated in the 8th century when Dado, a local hermit, founded a small monastic community. The abbey is a spectacular example of Romanesque architecture and became a major stopover for the pilgrims hiking the El Camino de Santiago (The Way of St. James) to the holy city of Santiago de Compostela in Spain. Conques continues to attract pilgrims today, and the abbey church and pilgrims' bridge are World Heritage Sites. After lunch, we enjoy a guided tour of sacred Conques and learn about the iconography of the stone sculptures of the Church of St. Foy. We also view the abbey's treasures, a collection of exquisite reliquaries dating from the 9th century, including the gold reliquary statue of St. Foy, encrusted with jewels and cameos. Later we enjoy a stroll in the streets of Conques before returning to our hotel for dinner. Overnight at Le Moulin de Cambelong...BLD

Hiking Details: 5 miles, 5-5.5 hours, 100 feet ascent, 500 feet descent

DAY 3

CONQUES / ESTAING

A lovely country drive of about an hour brings us to medieval Bessuéjols, where we visit its Romanesque church, then hike to medieval Estaing following the pilgrim path through picturesque countryside. Estaing, listed as one of "les plus beaux villages de France" (the most beautiful villages of France), is set at the mouth of the Lot River Gorge and has fine medieval and Renaissance houses as well as a handsome stone bridge. After lunch in Estaing, we stroll around the village before heading back to Conques following a scenic route along the Lot River. Overnight at Le Moulin de Cambelong...BLD

We enjoy a guided visit to this beautiful town with an emphasis on medieval architecture. Figeac was also the home of the scholar and Egyptologist Jean-François Champollion, who deciphered the Rosetta Stone. In town, we'll see hieroglyphs carved on the Place des Écritures and other Egyptian signs and symbols. After lunch in Figeac, we head for the timeless Célé River, which has carved a deep valley flanked by vividly colored cliffs with villages clinging to the slopes. ALZOU GORGE / ROCAMADOUR

Our hike is a dramatic one, bringing us along the gorge of the Alzou River, with views of the ruins of 13th century mills, and a spectacular arrival in tiny Rocamadour, one of the most picturesque perched villages in France. After lunch, we enjoy an exploration of this remarkable town, a pilgrimage destination since 1166, when the body of an early Christian hermit, St. Amadour, was discovered here in a miraculous state of preservation. Many miracles have been credited to this town, and St. Amadour's tomb rests in the Basilica of St. Sauveur. Overnight at the Mercure Figeac Viguier du Roy...BLD

PECH MERLE CAVE / LOT RIVER HIKE / ST. CIRQ LAPOPIE / CHÂTEAU DE MERCUÉS

The mysterious prehistoric painted cave of Pech Merle was discovered in 1922 by three teenagers who scrambled through a 400-foot passage to find a magnificent cavern decorated with prehistoric drawings dating back to the Gravettian and Magdalenian periods (25,000 to 16,000 BC). Mammoths, bison, and horses gallop on the cave walls of this sanctuary of art, one of only two original caves from the Magdalenian period to remain open to the public. After exploring the numerous galleries of Pech Merle and its beautiful limestone formations, we hike down to the village of Cabrerets for a delicious lunch. Afterwards, we cross the Lot on a narrow bridge and continue along the south bank, where the trail is a tow-path carved from the overhanging

"This is a trip we will long remember. It immersed us in the atmosphere of old France, from quaint medieval hilltop villages to prehistoric caves to nights in a romantic chateau.

And we spent days hiking through the stunning landscape surrounding the Lot River."

Itinerary

rock, recalling the days when river transport was the life-blood of the Lot Valley. In this section of the river, barges loaded with salt, dried fish, spices, or gypsum could not be towed by horse teams but only by crews of strong men. We arrive at the foot of the village of St. Cirq Lapopie and finish our hike with a short ascent to its cobbled streets and terraced gardens. St. Cirq Lapopie is one of the most beautiful villages in the Lot region. Many Post-Impressionist and Surrealist poets and artists settled in the narrow, tile-roofed houses here, including André Breton, the Surrealist poet who described the village as “like an impossible rose in the night.” We drive to Château de Mercuès, our accommodation for the next three nights and once the property of the count-bishops of Cahors...BLD

Hiking Details: 7 miles

Driving Time: 2 hours

DAY 7

CALVIGNAC / CHÂTEAU DE CÉNEVIÈRES

Our morning hike brings us along the banks of the river and up to the rock-perched village of Calvignac. We explore the sleepy streets and savor the views of the gentle valley before continuing on a peaceful trail framed by boxwood and oak trees to the top of a plateau for grand views of the Lot Valley. We descend gradually to the 13th century Château de Cénevières for a picnic lunch. The Château de Cénevières has a rich and colorful history, and once belonged to King Pepin le Bref, Charlemagne’s father. The lord of the château welcomes us for a tour of his noble family home, a unique opportunity to hear the stories behind this historic residence. Dinner is on your own in the lively medieval town of Cahors, and the Trip Leader will be happy to make recommendations of local cafes and restaurants. Overnight at the Château de Mercuès...BL

Driving Time: 2.5 hours

DAY 8

CAHORS / WINE COUNTRY

We head toward Cahors, entering on foot over the famous medieval Pont Valentré spanning the Lot River. After exploring the town on a walking tour, we enjoy the lively outdoor market that takes place every Wednesday and Saturday in front of the cathedral. It is one of the most genuine of southwest France, an event not to be missed, with displays of fresh fruits and vegetables, and animated scenes of daily life including beret-topped old men and housewives clutching chickens by their legs. In October, mushrooms, p^{ât}e, and delectable foie gras are for sale. Lunch is on your own—you can dine at a local cafe or purchase some delicacies from the market. Returning to our hotel in the afternoon, we may have time to hike around the property.

“A great trip at a perfect time of year. The hotels were excellent, in keeping with the theme of old France. The meals were a delight, and the hikes took us through beautiful riverine landscapes and quaint medieval villages. This is the ultimate trip to France.”

Elizabeth B., Ventura, CA

Itinerary

The Cahors region is the oldest wine-producing region of France, dating to Roman times, and Cahors wine is a deep red made from malbec, merlot, and jurancon grapes grown in ruddy soil scattered with limestone pebbles. The Château de Mercuès produces a range of excellent wines from several estates, and tonight we have a wonderful opportunity to enjoy wine tasting in the large vaulted cellar hidden below the chateau. We gather for our Farewell Dinner in the Michelin-starred restaurant of the chateau...BD

What to Expect

WHAT THE TRIP IS LIKE

This trip is rated a Level 2+ (Easy to Moderate) according to our trip grading system. You will need to be comfortable hiking 5 miles a day and being on your feet for up to 5 hours a day. Trail conditions, weather, and the group's level of fitness can affect hiking times and pacing.

Average Hiking Day

- 4 miles
- 3 hours
- 400 feet gain/loss

Challenge Day

- Day 5: 5 miles, 4 hours, 650 feet gain, and 250 feet loss

TERRAIN

We enjoy day walks and hikes over variable terrains, including rolling countryside walks, riverside trails, cliff-top paths, and country roads. The trails are generally shaded by trees, and there are some stony sections, but most are well-maintained and easy to navigate.

GETTING IN SHAPE

We strongly urge you to train for your trip, as your enjoyment will be highly dependent on your level of fitness. The best training for a hike is to hike, especially over hills or rough terrain. Next best are running, swimming, bicycling, or other cardiovascular exercise. Stair climbing machines are excellent preparation for hiking uphill. Your feet should also be well prepared—make sure your hiking boots are sturdy, comfortable, and thoroughly broken-in.

WEATHER

Temperatures are mild, typically reaching the high 60s°F to the low 70s°F during the day and cooling to the 40s°F or 50s°F at night. While weather conditions are usually stable, it is necessary to be prepared for a variety of conditions, as it can unexpectedly shift from warm and pleasant to damp and chilly with rainy conditions. Raingear and warm layers are necessary to bring on every hike.

ACCOMMODATIONS

In an effort to capture the spirit of old Europe, the hotels that we use are often family-run converted chateaux or inns, full of ambiance and colorful local history. Since they are often in historic buildings, the rooms are not always of uniform or international size. Our leaders do their best to assign rooms in a fair way so that all participants experience an equal advantage throughout the trip as a whole. Single rooms can be requested but are not always available, due to the limited space in the hotels. If you prefer a single room, please make your request as early as possible.

CUISINE

We will have a variety of delicious regional cuisine including many of the local products that the region is known for. Lunches are either picnic-style during our hikes or taken at a restaurant in town. Dinners will be at our hotel or at a local restaurant, and all menus are preset. Please note that in Europe, the dinner hour is considerably later than what it is in the US. We do our best to secure early reservations for our groups, but most often the evening meal will be at 7:30 pm.
